

YHWH STILL SPEAKS...

Since the beginning of 2013, God has blessed Living Faith with His precious presence. Living Faith gathered and printed a booklet of the prophetic words He was speaking to us and this booklet ignited the hearts and imaginations of our people that they have demanded us to continue to compile the "Words of the LORD" or the "Words of YHWH" for them in a second booklet.

These prophetic words from YHWH are a wonderful reminder of God's love and faithfulness throughout our journey in life, and the hope of Jesus' soon return and reign.

What a wonderful God we serve!

"Pursue love, and desire spiritual gifts, but especially that you may prophesy. 2 For he who speaks in a tongue does not speak to men but to God, for no one understands him; however, in the spirit he speaks mysteries. 3 But he who prophesies speaks edification and exhortation and comfort to men. 4 He who speaks in a tongue edifies himself, but he who prophesies edifies the church. 5 I wish you all spoke with tongues, but even more that you prophesied; for he who prophesies is greater than he who speaks with tongues, unless indeed he interprets, that the church may receive edification."

"Yea, and I would say unto thee My people, yea, and not I, a Great and Mighty God, have not I already said unto you this day that I am a rewarder of those who diligently seek after Me, and, yea, I would say unto you that it is My desire to pull down the strongholds of Satan; yea, if thou would seek My face and if thou would ask of Me, yea, I will put the devourer on the run. Yea, I will cause him to leave thy home. Yea, I will cause him to leave thy workplace. Yea, I will cause him to leave thy families, for I say unto you this day that I will reward those who seek after Me; yea, I will reward those who look into My word; yea, I will reward those who are following after Me in faith, those who are following after Me in the dynamic of My word. Yea, I say unto you this day that if thou will look unto the Lord thy God I will lift thee up into heavenly places; yea, I will cause thee to walk in places that thou hast not gone before, for I say unto you in this year, it is My desire to pour out of My Spirit upon you, yea, it is My desire that you would go forth with My Spirit; yea, it is My desire that you would be soul winners for Me; and yea, My people, if you would seek after Me as a Church, yea, if you would seek after Me as a body, yea, if thou would come and stand before Me as one, yea, know that the Lord thy God will fulfill the desires of thy heart, for I AM a God that provides for those things for My people; and I say unto you this day, financially, spiritually, materially, and physically, I the LORD thy God desire to bless My people and those who will follow after My word.

"(I would say unto you) ...further My people, yea, thou art not the tail, but thou art the head; yea, I have designed thee to walk before the things of the world; yea, I have desired thee to put down Satan; and I say unto you that you can put him under your foot for, yea, I have created thee in My image; yea, I have made you in My likeness; and, yea, as thou dost walk before Me the enemy shall see you, he is not against you but he is against Me, And I say unto you this day if thou would go into warfare for Me, yea, I would fight for you saith God.

"For too long My people have thought, 'Oh, All I have to do is believe God. All I have to do is to trust Him, and everything will always be alright.' But David said, 'You have trained my hands for war.' Lord, You've given us an anointing to stand; to stand against the enemy; to stand in the place of holiness, the place of righteousness. Lord You have given us an open door to take possession of the land that You have given to us. That starts with our mind and our body. It starts with our dedication to You Father. Did I not say, 'I would be with you?' I didn't say, 'I would be with you when the times are good.' because I knew the times are bad. And yet, in those bad times I've chosen to be with you. I will not leave you, I will not abandon you. I will not leave you to the whims of the enemy, and I will not abandon you that you have to fight the war by yourself. For I will confound the enemy, I will confuse him, to where he throws things at you and with the shield of faith they are put out one by one. One day the enemy will look back at you and he will declare 'I did my best to destroy them, and yet it had no effect.' And he will rail, cause he says, 'Where did they get their strength? Why could I not overcome them as easily as I overcame others?' And the difference is Me, saith God, for it's My shield, it's My breastplate, it's My armor. And when you walk in that armor you are ready for war. But My people don't know it, because you have walked in the blessing for so long you forgot there was an enemy, and you forgot that life is a struggle, and you've forgot about the impact of sin and rebellion; and you thought 'Oh, it will be easy;' but the times have changed, saith God. The blessing is still there, I have not changed, neither has My will changed; but those who have believed don't believe. For many who are called by My name, many who call Me, 'Lord, Lord,' I don't know them; for they have not done things according to My will, but according to their own imaginations. And in order to reveal and to separate those goats from My sheep, things have to be different. For I have called you to be a people who are aggressive, I have called you to be the salt and the light in the earth, I have called you to go into dark places, I have called you to reveal My light, and you have walked in so much light that you forgot about the darkness."Because you have celebrated your joy, that you've forgotten that there are so many people that have no clue what you are talking about;

cause they've never experienced joy, they've never experienced hope. They've never experienced the things of My kingdom, saith God, but they've tried to do it by their own effort and their own ability and that is collapsing all around them. And My people have for too long identified themselves with that which is passing away, instead of that which creates and endures and overcomes; for I have called you to walk in My power, saith God, to walk in My authority. When My Son would preach, oh, they didn't like it because He challenged their constructs, He challenged their way of thinking and so they took Him to the side of the hill to throw Him over and to kill Him, and yet I clothed Him with My glory, and He walked out untouched out of the mob. I will do the same for you. I will bring you through, and they will wonder, 'Where did they go?' and you will pop up and be in another place, and you will preach, and you will minister, and you will share the word, and they will come after you again! And I'll clothe you again in My glory and you'll walk through them. And you'll pop up in another place! And you'll preach the gospel, and you'll share the glories of My kingdom. And the world will wonder, 'How do they do this? We pass laws, we pass restrictions against them that don't allow them the freedom to proclaim the word of God, and yet they proclaim the word of God?' "For you have another Master, you have another Lord, who will always be there for you, and always protect you, and always watch over you. For I AM your Lord, saith God, and I hold all things in My hand. So come to Me, this year come to Me as you've never come to Me before, and I will give you rest, I will give you peace, saith God, in the midst of the storm I will be with you. And I will cause you to be separated for My glory shall be upon you, and the world will look at you and wonder why you are not being affected by the things that they are so afraid of. I am the difference, I am the way maker, saith God, and I have made a way for My people to know Me, and to show My glory to the world.

"Yea, and I would say unto thee this day My people, yea, know that I am God, and the only God. Yea, I say unto you today I am living and I am around and I am about you. Yea, I am the God that has created you, and, yea, I say unto you this day, look not for Me in a grave; yea, look not for Me in a sepulcher, yea, do not go to a cave and look for Me, for I say unto you that I am the LORD of glory. Yea, I say unto you this day that I live in the heavens of heavens, but, yea, I desire to come down and walk among you, yea, I desire to live in you. Yea, I desire for you to manifest My presence to those around about you, for I say unto you this day that I am the holy God that inhabiteth His people. And yea, as thou would be walk before Me, as thou wouldst pray, yea, I know that you do pray, yea, I do know that you do seek My face, and I say unto you that thou will not go without reward for I the LORD thy God will reward thee; for, yea, I'm going to break forth on the east, and the west, and the north, and the south; yea, I am going to bring in from the four corners of the earth, yea, I am going to bring in from the hollars, and the hedges, and the byways; for I say unto you, I am about to manifest Myself to the world. And, yea, those around about you will come seeking, and I say unto you My people, have a word in season, yea, speak of the things of the LORD thy God, yea, manifest Him to the things that are out there in the world, and I say unto you that I will surely give thee a crown of crown(s), yea, I will give the a crown of righteousness that if thou would walk be fore Me in holiness, yea, if thou would walk before Me in the grandeur of the living God, for I say unto you that I shall be ElShadi, yea, I shall be the Breasted One, yea, I shall be that God that hovers around about thee, yea, I shall be that God that draws thee nigh unto My bosom, for I say unto you that you are My children, yea, you have been bought with a price, and, yea, know that I the LORD thy God love thee with an everlasting love. Yea, My people, bow thy knee to Me and thou shalt see a mighty move of the kingdom of God in thy midst.

“(For too long) My people have lived in the past, they’ve lived in their yesterdays, they’ve lived in their failures, never seeing My ability to lift them up and move them into a new place. I am doing a new thing in the earth, I am doing a fresh thing even in you! For those who will raise their heads, for those who will look and say, ‘What if God were for us? What if Jesus has been raised from the dead?’, for those who would raise these questions I will begin to move and reveal things to you that scholars have searched My word for and have never seen, because the possibility of My resurrection was beyond them. And yet I came for the simple, for the humble. I came where even the farmer could understand, but the scholar would be confused. For My grace does not come with great intelligence, but it comes to those who seek wisdom and seek understanding. And all people have that capacity to seek these things, saith the LORD. So be prepared, lift your eyes to Me, says God, and I will begin to draw you into areas that you have already resigned that could not happen and will not happen, and I will bring resurrection into those areas, says God. And I will raise the things from the dust and from the ground, and people will look and say, ‘Well, I never thought...’, and that will be their problem, they never thought. They never thought that I was able to raise a man from the dead. They never thought I was able to pour glory into dead sinners lives, they never thought that I would do the things that I speak about in My word. For they read the Bible as a history book instead of a prophetic book. And they read it as things that I have done long ago, and not understanding I will do them again for those who seek and hunger after Me. I will do them again. I will raise dead things, I will restore life, I will restore sons and daughters, I will restore the promises that you have held onto and no longer believe in. I will do those things because I am the living God. “When the scribes came to Jesus and they questioned about life after death, Jesus reminded them, ‘Is not YHWH the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob? For He is not the God of the dead, but He is the God of the living. And I would say unto you again this day, says God, that I am the LORD of those who live, I am the LORD of those who dream, those who dare to believe on Me, I am their God, for I am attracted to faith. I am attracted to those who dare to believe against the tides of this dying age, to those who would say ‘I will believe in the resurrection.’ “Job, without any knowledge, without any understanding, knew that his redeemer lives, and it brought him, not only through the trouble, but it established him in Me, saith God, and I brought him back from hopelessness, and I restored double to him of all that the devil had lost. Do you think I couldn’t do that again? Is your faith so limited that you only believe I can bring you through problems? Instead of overcome them? Has your faith grown so deficient that it no longer believes in resurrection? For I am the God of resurrections, says the LORD. And I will do the things of old in your time and your sight to reveal Myself that I am God the Creator and I am the redeemer, says the LORD.

“Did I not say I will give dreams and visions? These are things that you have not seen. These are the things eye have not seen, that has not been imagined in the heart of men, but they are in My heart, says the LORD. And if you will grab hold of My heart, I will give you dreams and I will give you visions, but I will bring them to pass, says the LORD.

“Take heed where you stand, take heed where I have brought you out of, where I brought you in; for I’ve not brought you into a place that the world understands, but I have brought, and am bringing you into My presence, says the LORD. For the day is coming when My glory will be exposed and My righteousness will be seen to cover the earth. And those who will see will walk in that glory, and you shall see and behold the things that I have spoke from times past. But for those who close their minds, they shall not see nor shall they understand, yet it is occurring all around them, but they’ve chosen to shut their eyes and to close their ears. But for those who see, I will reveal My glory and I will let you walk into those things that others have prophesied, that others have sown, that others have prepared, but you shall walk in the manifestation of these things. For you shall begin to see those whom the world has discarded, those who the world would look at and say they are insignificant and I shall take that vessel and I shall fill it with My glory, and they will say about you what they said about My disciples, “They have been with Jesus.” For I will bring wisdom out of your mouth and I will bring a presence out of you that others cannot refute, that the others will not understand. For they shall come with their case prepared against you, and when you step into the room, their mind will go blank, and they will say with Pilate, “I find no fault in this man.” For I will bring you before those, those who scoff, those who reel and rail against you, I shall bring you before these people and they shall be stupefied, for they will not have the understanding; for I will give you the things to say at the right time, and I will place My Spirit in your mouth, of where you will say the things that glorify Me and the world will stand back and they shall be shocked, and they shall be amazed at My glory. “For the atmosphere has already changed, and those things that the world is trying to build, we are seeing them fall away even now, and all their plans and all their speculations fail because they are not grounded in the wisdom of God, and these things are passing away even now. My kingdom is coming in greater measure to where it is beyond measure, to where people cannot fathom who I AM, says God. “But you shall see, for you shall walk in these things. You have already seen some displays of My power and My love, says God, for you have seen the dead raised to life, you have seen these things in your own people, in your own body, you have seen, I have displayed these things to you that those who were cursed, those who the world has said you have a death disease that I have healed them. And all the doctors can say, “Well, we must have missed the test.” No they didn’t miss the test, it’s a manifestation of My glory for I am confounding their wisdom. And you will see greater things than these, and you shall see them in your midst, and in My presence. For in this time, as of now, I am drawing you into My presence. So take the time, take the time to be with Me, for I have chosen to take time to be with you.

“Yea, My people, I would say unto you this day, that, yea, I send the standard bearer of My armies to come and stand in this place, yea I say unto you, look for him for he shall be here. Yea, he hath My staff upon his hand, yea, he hath My bow upon his back, and yea I say unto you that he shall help thee as thou dost seek My face, he shall come and help thee to break down the strongholds of the enemy, for I say unto you this day that the chains are broken in this place, yea the chains are broken, yea, Satan must go for I say unto you that I AM the LORD God Almighty, great is my hand, and yea, thou shalt see miracles go forth from this place, yea, I say not unto thee little things, but thou shall see great things because I have told you and I have promised, and I cannot lie for I stand by My word, I SHALL, yea, I shall do great and mighty things through you as you yield unto My Spirit, saith the LORD thy God.”

“I have called My people into a celebration; for all My feast days are celebrations of Me. Even in the day of the passover the spirit of death came, but there was life and light in Goshen, there was My glory poured out while the Egyptians are running around in darkness and not able to see, even their lamps, even their torches, gave them no sight, but My people walked in the light. This is a sign of this day, for the world is going deeper and deeper into darkness, but the light is dawning on My children, for My children have looked into My face and they have seen My glory and My glory will be poured out upon them, among them, and through them, that all who would see the light will come to the light, and those who only see the darkness shall remain in the darkness; but it is a day of My dawning, it is a day of My appearing, says the LORD. It is a day of My pouring forth in new ways that have been bottled up for years and years and years, but My people have found grace in My sight, for I have and will pour out among those who hunger and thirst after righteousness. I will see them satisfied, declares the LORD! I will see them in the celebration of what I have done and what I am doing, and the world will be amazed that, ‘How can you rejoice when all these things are going on?’ But you’ve seen the feast! You’ve seen the glory of the LORD, and I will bring you into that place of celebration, within yourself, celebration within My Body, for the... to magnify the great things that I have done. For it’s time My people begin to celebrate their King. It’s time My people begin to lift Me up above all the troubles and all the problems of this world for I AM your deliverer saith the LORD. I AM your deliverer. Celebrate Me. Celebrate Me. Come into My presence with a spirit of celebration, of praise and thanksgiving. Come into My presence, saith the LORD, and you will see Me deliver you from the impossible. For have not I already shown you signs and wonders and miracles in this place? Don’t stop now, don’t stop now; just because you’ve seen a few, just because you’ve seen a little bit, don’t back off, for I will do it for all of you, says the LORD.

“I am coming sooner than you think. For there are those who are among you that have already received some wisdom, and there are some that are running ahead and trying to fit all the pieces together, and some will look at this and say, ‘Well, His coming is still far away.’ Oh, it’s nearer than you think, says the LORD. It’s too near for some, and it’s too far away for others. I know My timing, and I understand what must take place before I return. So don’t become impatient, but become expectant, for I am on the horizon, says the LORD, and when I reveal Myself, the glory, My glory, shall overtake the earth. For they shall see Me coming as a strong King, not as the suffering servant, Oh, I’ve already done that says the LORD, but I’m coming back as King to rule and to reign, to put all of My enemies under My feet, but more I am coming to redeem My people. I am coming to show the world that your faith is not in vain, that your expectation is not futile thinking, but that I am the God of your hope, and I am the Revealer of Truth, says the LORD. And those who mock you now, shall become the mocked, and people will turn to them and ask, ‘And what do you say now?’ And they will have no answer, for I shall stand before them and every knee will bow, every tongue confess that I AM LORD. But you haven’t waited. You’re not waiting till that dreadful day of the LORD. You’re not waiting for that time to come when all men bow, but you have chosen to bow now, to yield your life to Me now. And there shall be rewards for these things, saith God, for you have had to endure, and others around the world have had to endure that kind of suffering that they would prefer not to; and I am proving Myself strong on their behalf, says the LORD. “Do not simply think I am coming to judge those who deserve to be judged, but I am coming to reveal the redemption of My people from the scoundrels, from the liars, from the deceivers, from those who would take advantage of you today and the next day and the next day, those who promised you one thing and withhold from you constantly. I am coming back to redeem you from those things, that you shall hold your head up high, and I will point to you and say, ‘These are My trophies. These are the ones who would not bow their knee to another god. These are those who have stood the test, have persevered, have overcome all that the enemy has thrown at them.’ And I will say unto you, ‘Welcome, servant of the LORD. Come into My house,’ says God.

“Yea My people, when I say unto you this day, that you have stepped into the Holy of Holies into My presence. Did not I record for you that when Isaiah looked up that he saw the LORD high and lifted up, did he not see the Seraphims and the angels that were around about the throne, did not he see Me on My throne with My train filling the Temple; and I say unto you this day that that is a complete revelation of Me.

"Yea, if thou wilt look unto Me this day, I say unto you, that I shall give unto you the revelations of Almighty God. Yea, I shall show thee the desire of thy heart. Yea, I shall show thee whether they are pure or whether they're not, for, yea, did I not take the coals off of the altar and touch the lips? And I say unto thee this day that I touch thee. I say unto this day from the top of your head to the souls of your feet, I the LORD thy God touch thee. I say unto you reach out unto Me. Yea, receive healing for thy bodies, yea receive the things that you need in your homes, yea, receive the things that you need financially, yea, receive the things that you'd need materially, because I say unto you that if you will look you will see, and if you see you will understand, and if you understand you will have because have not I said unto you 'knock, and it shall be given unto you.' Have not I said if you would reach that I the LORD thy God would reach back unto thee. I say to you this day 'Draw Me and I will run after thee, for I am the LORD thy God the High and Mighty One. Yea, I live in My lofty Temple, but, yea, I come down to dwell among you. Yea, as I walk up and down, too and fro, in these aisles today I say unto you My people, 'Reach out and receive those things that I have prepared for you.'

“You think there's strength in numbers. You say, 'Lord, if we get more and more and more, we'll be stronger and stronger and stronger.' But I say to you, there's not strength in numbers, there is strength in agreement. For where two or three are gathered together in My name there am I among them, says the LORD. For I will be with those who gather before Me, says God, not just in numbers, but in purity of heart and sincerity of purpose, those who come together in that heart of agreement with Me, puts you in agreement with one another. For you would say, 'Oh, but we envy the big churches, we envy those that, that can do all these other things,' but you're doing things you're not aware of. For even when I spoke to Gideon, the crowds followed him, and yet I thinned them out, I brought them down to a small number of people and they won a great victory, and when they won, everyone came along side and said, 'Me too. Me too.' And they all followed, and that was good, but they did not win the victory, it was the small that won the victory. You see this in your politics, where two or three are gathered together they can thwart an entire nation, because they are in agreement while the others are not. This power works for all those who would come into agreement, but I say it's time to agree with Me, for there is a time coming, says the LORD, and has already begun. There is war in the land and I am calling those who would gather together to rally to My Banner, says the LORD, for I have begun to pour out of My Spirit upon this earth, I have begun to call to the four angels who stand at the four winds, and I have begun to speak to them and begun to command, for things are coming together quicker than you imagine. And it will not be as you desire or as you can see in the natural for it will be supernatural the things that I am doing, and you will see good things and bad things occurring at the same time and it will throw panic into the world, for they cannot understand, but you, you, you, you, watch for the hand of the LORD, for I will be visible to all those who will discern, for I am pouring out of My Spirit, says God. But don't run hither and thither, don't run here and there but seek My face, says God, and I will show you the things that are to come, that when they appear, you will not be disturbed by these things; for I will have prepared you for the time and I will bring you through, says the LORD God, for I am with you. Never doubt that. Never doubt that, that I am with you, for I AM the Great God. I AM the One bringing all these things of this time to come to pass, because it is My Day, says the LORD. It is My time, says the LORD. There is a separation that has begun and will continue and will increase in these latter days. Be prepared for it, and stand the ground that I have given to you, and do not yield it to the enemy, to those forces that come against you, do not yield; for it is the time that I am rallying My army, and it is the time that I am causing you to stand entrenched in My word, entrenched in My Spirit, entrenched in the things that I AM, says God, and as you stand with Me you will see a mighty victory won, for it is not the multitude, it is the believers, it is those who are willing to stand in agreement with Me. Did I not say that one will chase a thousand, and two ten thousand? It is not numbers! It is My people in agreement with Me, says God.

“As darkness begins to cover the earth and the world runs to and fro without direction, without wisdom, yet My light will shine in My House, says God. For out of Zion shall flow wisdom, out of Jerusalem shall come the hope that the world looks for even while they try to destroy it; for that is the work of the devil, that is the work of the enemy, to cause confusion, but light will arise, says God, in My house. Light will arise in My people, says God, for have I not said, ‘you are the light of the world,’ and I am your light! So let that light shine, don’t let the darkness that is coming on the world, don’t let the darkness overcome your light! But let your light shine, for as it shines it will draw others that are seeking the light. There will always be those who cover themselves in darkness, but you are not among them, you are not like the world, for I have drawn you out of the world and I have declared you to be different from the world, for you are like My Son, and you are growing and growing and growing in Him. He was the light in the darkness, He was the One who came forth and for those who were seeking the light, they knew Him, they knew Him. There are people today that say, ‘Look to the heavens for there’s signs, there’s wonders, there’s signs in the heavens look to the heavens.’ I say again ‘Look to Me,’ says God, for I AM the way, the truth, and the life. No one comes to the Father except by Me, says Jesus, no one comes to the Father except by Me. So come unto Me, come unto Me. Sit at My feet, learn, let me teach you, and instruct you, and lead you, and you will know the Father. You will know the Father.

“Oh, that My people could understand. Oh, that My people would know, every time you seek My face I will to be found by you, for I am not hiding, I am not trying to stay away from you, but I am gathering you up to Myself that where I am, says Jesus, there you may be also, that you may be seated with Me in heavenly places, that as you seek My face you would realize that when you find Me, I will lift you above the things of the world and draw you out of those things. For am I not the Greater One, am I not the One who has created all these things? And yet you pray as though I am not able to overcome that which I’ve created. For that which is created is always subject to the Creator, and I have created these things, I’ve even created the smith that blows the fires, and I am greater than he says God. For I am putting the enemy under your feet, indeed, I have already placed him under your feet, but you need to receive what I’ve done, that you would always walk on the enemy, that you would always keep him under your feet, and never, never, never, allow him to rise to such a level that you would walk in fear of him. For I am the Greater One says God. Every knee shall bow, every tongue shall confess that I am the LORD, the God Almighty. And they will bow in submission to Me, says God. That day has already Come.

“That day has already arrived when you shall declare My greatness and the enemy shall bow before you. For I have given My Son Jesus all authority in heaven and earth, and I have given that authority, says Jesus, to you, for I have given you My name, and My name is higher than all other things.

“So walk before Me, walk right before Me, and you’ll see the power flow, for in that day you shall see the enemy flee and he shall go away from thee. You shall see My glory manifested all around you, and you will not think it to be an unusual thing. But you will simply reflect and say it is My God and He is with me, everywhere I go.

“ ‘How long must I wait?’ That’s what some of you think, ‘How long must I endure ‘til it’s over? How long will it take before what God has promised will come to pass?’ This, this is what goes through your mind, but think how long I’ve had to wait. Think of the generations I’ve had to wait for. For Job knew who I was, yet he didn’t walk by faith before Me as Abraham did. And Abraham walked before Me by faith and I called a people out of him to fill the earth, to preach My word; and yet they went into bondage. And I called them out of bondage and I called them into My promises and I was willing to speak with them face to face, and yet they walked away again. I promised them the land, I gave it to them. Wherever they walked they, they took possession of that land and yet they still fell away. Oh, you think you’ve endured? “Time is of no matter to Me, saith God. For when you begin to see the things come to pass, you will look back and say, ‘Oh, that was quick.’ And time will vanish from you as it has vanished from Me. So don’t look at the time it has taken, but look into My face. When you look into My presence, My glory will make time seem to disappear. And it will. For I am outside of time, says God. And time holds no boundaries for Me whatsoever. And when you begin to move into My realm, time will not be significant to you anymore either. For as the prophets began to age in this life, yet they were being renewed by My Spirit, says God. And they would see things thousands of years in advance and prophesy of it as though it were their today. And it was their today. It belongs to them for they for they saw it and they possessed these things. David saw the crucifixion of My Son and he spoke of it, and yet it was a long time for you before that took place. So time has no significance. Whether you feel like it’s been delayed, whether you feel like you’ve put it off, it has no significance for Me, says God. And you need to learn to move outside the realm of time! To not be limited, to not let it distress you, to not let it burden you. For time is not important, but My will is, says God. And when you walk in My will you will begin to see those things come to pass and you’ll have understanding and wisdom that the world does not have. For many are looking to the four... to the, to the blood moons, and they are looking to these things and saying, ‘Oh, oh, it’s, it’s the time, it’s the time, it’s the time.’ It’s a time says God, but there are many things which must come to pass, and they are beginning to happen. You’re beginning to see those things manifest in your lifetime.

Tongues...

“And I said this generation will not pass away. This generation will not pass away until they have seen it. Oh, lift up your eyes, not to see the moons, but to see My Spirit, says God. To see My signs, to see My timing, to see My moving says God. Don’t look at the stars, but look to Me, for you can see the stars and miss Me. For the stars only speak of the times that I’ve set in motion already says God. “But the times are drawing nearer and nearer and nearer, and yet men seem to be so consumed with the time. But again I am outside of time. And when you move in Me you are outside of time. You are not restricted in your receiving from Me, says God. But when you look at the watch, when you look at the clock, you put deadlines on when I can move and what I can do in that time period; but time has no meaning for Me, for I pronounced two thousand years ago that you are healed by the stripes of My Son. That healing is now. It’s now. It’s now. Those burdens that you carry, I carried them at the cross years and years and years ago. And yet because you look back and you see the difference of time, you say, ‘Well, I’ve still got the burdens.’ No, I, I, I took them from you says God. I’ve delivered you from those things that oppress you and depress you and oppress you. I’ve taken away those things from you, if you believe. For there is no time in My Spirit. For what I did two thousand years ago I am doing now, for you have come into My kingdom, and I am beginning to move and speed time up so that you won’t notice it, and it won’t be a burden to you any longer, says God. For things that you would say will take a long time, they’ll come to pass suddenly. For I am releasing suddenly’s into the earth! I’m releasing My glory into the earth and time is of no meaning; for you shall see kingdoms rise and kingdoms fall in a moment, in a flash, in a second of your time. But if you are caught up in your time, you will not see My time, says God. For these are all wonders, these are all signs, but in the midst of it all there I AM, the Everlasting, the Eternal, the Forever. I am the Alpha, the Omega, the Beginning and the End. I am outside of time and I am calling you, by your faith, to live outside of time.

“Yea, My people, and I would say unto you this day, Am not I the God of heaven and Earth? Does not My glory fill the heavens and fill the earth? And I say unto you this day as I have opened the wells, yea, as I have caused the river to flow, yea, I say unto you that I shall cause thee now to become a refuge. For yea, in the coming days there shall be perilous times, and I say unto thee, that if thou would look into the past, just as I have said in My word that I am the same yesterday, today, and forever, have I not said that I am the God of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, and yea, I say unto you through these years I have brought thee through perils, and I have brought thee through good times, yea, I have brought thee through the storms, and I have brought thee through the sunny times. And I say unto you that it was for a reason and for a cause, for yea, I the Lord thy God shall pour out of My wrath and of My Spirit upon the whole earth. And yea, they shall see and they shall know. And I say unto you that I have set up refuges, places where they may become, places where they can come and feel and know and learn of Me. For I say unto you, yea, My people be unto Me those things that I shall set before thee, for yea, I shall cause thee to be mighty in this area. Yea, I shall cause thee to pull down the strongholds of Satan. For yea I am in thee and I am with thee, yea, I have unified thee, and yea, I have brought thee to the kingdom for such a time as this. And yea, I say unto you as you will stand before Me, and yea, as thou wilt wait upon Me, yea, will not I bring revelations of My glory. Yea, will not I bring revelations of My power, for I say unto you, that you have been called to the kingdom for such a time as this. Yea, march forth as an army, for yea, thou art the army of the Lord, and I say unto you, put on the full armor of God for thou wilt need it, for yea, thou would cause others to be strengthened because of the things that I shall do through you, and in you, and around you, and about you, for I am the Lord thy God, Mighty in the midst of My Church.

“Yea, I say unto you, yea, do not mock or do not be dismayed or do not be discouraged or do not be doubting, for I say unto you this day My people, that every knee shall bow, every tongue shall confess. Yea, as thou dost look around about thee and thou dost see the turmoil, as thou dost see the earthquakes, as thou dost see the volcanoes erupting, as thou dost see the seas rising, I say unto you surely that there is a mighty God on the move. Yea, I have an army and I say unto you, that I have said to you in times past, that the standard bearer has come, and He stands before Me this day, just as He stands for you this day. And My people, I say unto you, be not dismayed or be not discouraged because of the things that I have said unto you, because ye shall be mighty in the name of the Lord thy God.

“Yea My people I say to you again, do not worry, do not fret, saith the Lord thy God. Did I not record in My word, ‘Fret not thyself because of evil doers, neither be envious of the workers of inequity.’ Have not I said unto you that as the army goes forth, yea My armies always conquer. Yea, I say unto you fret not, fret not My people and do not worry, do not be dismayed because of the things that the Lord says unto thee. For have not I prepared thee, as I have said unto you, have not I prepared you for such a time as this. Have not I prepared you for such a time as this. Do you not see the things that I am doing in thy midst? Do you not see the great things that I am doing? Yea, maybe thou dost not see the house full today, but I say unto you, yea look unto the Lord thy God and thou shalt see miracles, thou shalt see mighty things done. For I say unto you, they will come because of their worry. They will come because of their dismay. And yea, My anchor holds, and today you are My anchor. Stay in Me, saith the Lord thy God, and thou shalt see the hand of the Lord work. Not only in thy families, but I say unto you, in the family of God you shall see a mighty thing begin to rush forth across this nation and across this world, because, My people I say to you, I do have a remnant, and My remnant shall rise up, saith God.

“Yea, God would say unto you. Yea, and I would say unto you, yea My daughter worry not, fret not, because of the things that I say and because (of) the things I do. Yea, I am God Almighty unto you, yea, I can bring thee through the storm. Yea, I say unto you, look unto the Lord thy God. Fret not, be not dismayed, do not worry, saith God. For I the Lord thy God am a deliverer, and know this day, I have delivered you, saith God.

“Yea My daughter, and I say unto you this day. Yea, thou can’t look back and see all of the turmoil, and all the heartache and all the anguish, but I say unto you as a mighty warrior and as a victor, I have brought thee through. Yea, I have caused thee and thy husband to have the ministry I have called you to. Yea, I say unto thee, that it is not always good and fuzzy and happy and lovely, for yea, the ministry is a warfare, and yea, I say unto you that you have been warriors for Me, saith God, and ye I shall continue to use you, and yea, I shall continue to build My kingdom through you and around and about you, for yea thou hast been called for such a time as this. I have called thee to be one with thy husband. I have called thee to be one with thy church. Yea, I have caused thee to be one in the ministry I have given unto thee. And yea, know this day, that I shall lift thee up, and I shall cause thee, I shall cause thee, saith God, to be the warrior cloaked, cloaked in the armor of God.

“Yea, My daughter, I say unto you this day. Yea, I have called thee from the time that thou was a child. Yea, thou hast gone through hard times, and you hast gone through dark times but I say unto you, have not I always walked beside of thee? Have not I always led thee and guided thee, and I say unto you, that thou art a pillar in the house of God. For yea, I have set thee, and thou hast not turned back from the things that I have spoken unto you. Thou hast not turned back from following the ones that I have set before you. Yea, thou hast been obedient to those that have the authority over you, and I say unto thee this day, that yea, I am pleased with thee. Yea, I am pleased with thee, My daughter, and I say unto you, thou art not the only one in this place, but yea, I say to you and through you and to them, yea, thou hast been called for such a time as this, yea, I have set thee in the place that I wanted thee. Yea, thou art not in this position, in this place, on this street, but it is the reasons of God that I have placed you here. For yea, thou shalt be the center of the things that I shall do in this community and in the communities around about thee. Yea, this is the place that I’ve called thee too. Yea, My daughter I say unto you, look unto Me for there shall be revelations that thou can’t not even understand at this moment, but revelations of the things of God.

“For I have given you the victory, declares the LORD. Not just in a place, not just here and there, not just occasionally, but I have given you victory of life over death. For the enemy comes to steal, kill, and destroy, but I have come that you might have life, says Jesus! And that you might have it more abundantly. So celebrate your victory. Get over the things of the past, move beyond, because I am the present, I am the now, I am the instant God, the ever present God. But those things that have happened that have wounded you, they have already passed into the past, so let them pass, let it go, stop dwelling on those things and move into your future. Move into My presence, says God, for in My presence there is delight. In My presence there is joy. Whenever you’re not walking in that joy, you’re walking in the past. When you’re walking in defeat, you’re walking in the hurts and wounds of yesterday, but you’re not walking in Me, says God. For I AM life, and there is no shadow of turning in Me. So walk in the light. Walk above those things that would pull you down. Walk away from those things that would drag you into the past, and walk with Me, says God, for I will bring you into My glory and I will bring you into My presence, says God, and I will show you things that others have longed to see and you shall see them. For this is the day when those things of the natural, those things of the flesh are passing away, and they will pass away rapidly. Behold all things are being revealed. Not all things are being made new, but all things will be revealed. And those who follow Me, those who seek after Me, those who humble themselves before Me, Oh, they shall be made new, and newness shall come into them and they shall walk at a higher level of faith than they ever anticipated. For I will bring you through the trial, I will bring you over the mountain, and I will bring you into My presence, says God, where there is joy everlasting.

“But begin to walk in it now. You can experience heaven on earth. You can experience My presence with you, says God, if you’ll just let Me in. So let Me in. Begin to rejoice, begin to move past the things that are over and begin to move into My now, says God.

“Yea, My people, and I would say unto you this day, yea, as thou dost sing of Me, and as thou dost sing of the names of who I am, yea, I say unto you that each one of My names is an attribute of who I AM. Yea, I AM El Shaddai, the Breasted One unto you. Yea, I AM that Mother God who also succors thee. Yea, I AM that Mother God who draws thee close to My breast. Yea, I AM that Mother God who causes thee to be nourished in the things of My kingdom. And I say unto you this day that if you will appropriate the things of My Name, yea will not I come unto you as a mighty God? Have not I said to you in the past that I AM that I AM. Have not I said unto you in the past that you cannot find Me in a grave. Have I not said unto you that you cannot find Me in a statue, for, yea, I AM a living God, and, yea, standing before thee, me, this day is My only begotten Son whom I have sent forth for thee, that thy sins might be saved through the work that He has done for thee on the cross. And, yea, My people, I say unto you that if you would look unto Him, if you would bow thy knee to Him even while it is now, yea, thou would not have to knee to Him in the kingdom when My wrath will be poured out upon those who know Me not. For I say unto you that in Him is every appropriation that thou dost need. So many times you have not because you ask not. He has come that you might have it, and have it more abundantly of those things that you have need. And, yea, I say unto you this day, that if you would look unto the living God, yea, if you would serve Me, and if you would walk after Me, yea, if you would walk in My ways, for I say unto you this day, that your way is not My way, and, yea, My thought is not your thought because you do not think as I think. But I say unto you, that if you would come along beside of Me, that if you will walk in Me, yea, I would give you My thoughts. Yea, that thou might convey them upon the world that is round about thee, for I have called you to be soul winners in My kingdom. Yea, I have called you to go into the highways and the byways. Yea, I have called you to go and compel them to come in. Yea, I say unto you this day, it’s not angels that bring them, but it is those that I have chosen for Me. And I say unto you, that if you will be a soul winner for Me, yea, I will be a mighty God unto you, that when you ask and when you call upon My Name it shall be done. For I say unto you this day, appropriate the things that I have placed within My Name. Yea, if thou dost not know Me and My Names, I say unto you look upon My Word, and My Word shall teach you of who I AM. Yea, did not I move the plagues into Egypt, and, yea, did they not have to bow their knee unto Me, saith God, for yea, I say unto you, but My people were protected. They did not see the plagues come upon them before, because, yea, I the LORD thy God protected them in that time, and I have protected them throughout the ages. And I say unto you that you should pray, yea, pray for the peace of My people, for, yea, I say unto you that there is a day coming when every knee is going to bow and every tongue is going to confess that I AM God. Every king, every mighty man, every person in his lowly estate shall bow unto the things of the LORD God, for, yea, I AM a living and a mighty God this day.

“Come into My glory. Come into My presence, for the things that are around you are fading away, and they are fading even quicker than you can imagine. For there is My glory that is beginning to be poured out in the earth as it has never been poured out before. Even the prophets, Abraham, saw the day of My Son and they rejoiced in it, but Jesus saw the day that you are living in and He rejoiced in it. The day of My power. The day of My presence. For I shall be revealed to all flesh, not in just one place, not in just one situation, but through out all the earth they know Me, says God, and they shall come to a point, whether they receive Me or reject Me, that they shall know Me. For there is the day that no man shall say, ‘But I didn’t understand.’ For I will make it clear. As I wrote on the tablets of clay My law so that all men would know, so I am writing on the tablets of their heart that all men may know and be with out excuse, for I am coming, says God, with all My glory I am coming; and I am coming in power to redeem those who call upon Me. So enter into My glory, let the things of the world go, separate yourself from them, and let My glory fill you and consume you, for then, then you shall show forth of My glory in this day, in this age, in your situation, people will know that you have been with Me, says God.

“Don’t back away! Don’t back away! Don’t say, ‘Oh, this is too much.’ Oh, it shall be as natural to you as breathing. For it is My life being manifested in you. It is Me showing Myself through you. You won’t have to ‘work,’ you won't have to strain; but if you spend time seeking after My glory, if you spend time in My word, if you spend time in My presence, says God, these things shall flow out of you as water flows out of a spring, and you will not be able to turn it off, but you will be able to direct it where I will it to go, says the LORD.

Minister Roxann Kaiser:

"I just have this impression, that if you won't tire of worshiping that you can touch, you can touch the glory, you can touch the glory. But it's... And it's very heavy and we can touch it, if we choose you can touch it, you can touch the glory. The glory will change, it will change who you are. Don't be afraid of the glory. Don't be afraid of the power, that power that raised Jesus from the dead lives in you, and is in you, and that power is here so you can walk in and out of that power. You can touch that glory and you will be changed. You can touch that glory, and you will see the face of God. You can touch that glory, if you choose, if you choose.

"Yea, and have not I shown thee, have not I said unto thee also, that, yea, I AM the LORD thy God in the midst of My people? Yea, as thou will look upon the land that I have given thee, have you not seen Me move forth? Yea, when thou hast fought for thy freedom, yea, was not I there with thee? Yea, did not I guide, and did not I lead those who would go before? Yea, did not I teach them, and did not I give them the words that would govern thee? For, yea, I say unto you this day that I AM a mighty God. Yea, I say unto you this day that I AM a God of war, but, yea, I AM a God of peace, and I say unto thee that My hand has been upon this nation, yea, not because you were a nation, but because you served Me. And yea, I say unto you this day, My people, if thou will look forth unto the eons of time, yea, thou wouldst see that I will be faithful unto thee, yea, I will lead, and I will guide thee. Yea, the times look dark and the times look terrible, but I say unto you, that I AM still upon My throne, I still have My hand upon this land, I still guide and I still lead. I say unto you this day, that I AM a God that knows how to cause His people to come up out of circumstances. I AM a God that knows how to lift thee up into heavenly places in Me. And I say unto you this day, that I AM a God, I AM a God that inhabits the praises of His people. If you will praise Me, if you will worship Me, if you will trust Me, yea, will not I lead thee? Yea, I lead thee and I guide thee because you are My people. Yea, you have been grafted into the tree, and I the LORD thy God shall always be a God of My people. Yea, I say unto you this day, look not at the circumstances that are around about thee, but, yea, look into the LORD thy God. For there shall be times of darkness come, but, yea, I AM the Light. Yea, I AM the Light that shines forth, and I say unto you My people, I have given you a great land. Yea, I have given you a land of freedom. Yea, I have given you a place where you can worship Me, and I say unto you this day, that if thou wilt go forth and worship the LORD thy God, yea, I will inhabit your praises, yea, I will provide for thee, yea, I will cause thee to have the things thou hast need of. But, yea, know this day that I shall also supply those things that are not even seen, those things that cannot be touched, those things that cannot be placed in within thy hand, those things thou can use for thy own good, but, yea, I shall give thee the things that thou shalt use for My good, for I have given you My glory, I have given you My honor, and, yea, I say unto you this day, that if you will draw Me, I will run after thee, saith the LORD thy God.

"I am coming as a fire, declares Jesus. I am coming as a flaming sword into the earth. For My sword is the word that I have given to My people, and My sword shall cut asunder, even to the division of the soul and the spirit. For there are those who will cry out, cry out for My name and yet they will not let Me cut away the things that are killing them. They will not allow Me to cut those things off, so I must come in fire to burn the chaff, to burn the things out. And it may seem hard, and difficult at the beginning, but in the end you shall be as the three men in the fiery furnace, who walked around among the... in the midst of the fire and yet they were not burned. For they were cleansed and they were made whole, and My Son was with them in that fire and He walked and stood with them, and the only way they survived the fire was because of the fourth man; for that fourth man was their protection because they were in His fire and the fire of the world could not touch them for they were in the heart of My Son, says the LORD. Oh, I have come as a flame and I am beginning to burn in the earth even now. For I have said that the time is sooner than you think for I am coming rapidly, declares the LORD, and I am coming to bring judgment on the earth, for I will separate the goats and the sheep, I will separate those who declare their love for Me and yet walk away from Me. I will show Myself, I will burn the chaff out. So this is the time My children. Run to the fire. Run to My word and let it cleanse you. Let the things of the past go and begin to walk in the power of My Son. Begin to walk in My salvation that I have given to you, begin to receive the abundance of grace, begin to receive My gift of righteousness, for I have given it to you but you must pick it up and as clothing you must put on the new man. You must discard that which is old, that which is rotten, that which is of the world. You must put on the new man and My Son Jesus Christ, and as you put on that new man the fire will begin to clothe you, and it will not burn you, and it will not dry you out, for it will consume you, and you will become a burning flame among those, among those, that you walk with. And they shall behold My glory in you, says the LORD, and they will begin to ask questions and you will have an answer because you say, 'This is only because of Jesus Christ! He is My rearguard, He is my protection, He is the One who has lifted me up. He is the One who has delivered me from all of my enemies.' And you shall lead them to the LORD, for many shall come in, in these last days, many shall come in, and they will come in because of you, because they've seen My glory among you. For this is how the early Church won the lost, it wasn't just be preaching, but it was by the display of who I was, that they saw them and heard them and they beheld My glory that consumed them. So let Me consume you, for I will drive out those demons, I will drive out the sickness, I will drive out the things that separate us. I will drive them out till you stand pure with Me.

"John saw Me, he saw Me as a fire from My loins up, and a fire from My loins down. He saw Me as that all consuming fire, and I am coming says the LORD and as I come My fire precedes Me, and My fire prepares the way for Me. For it will draw, it will draw all to the fire, for everyone loves to see a burning building, and they will watch you burn but they will not see you consumed. For many now say, if they would come to the LORD, He would surely destroy them because of their unrighteousness, and yea, I would except for My grace, says God. But I have poured out My grace as a precursor to My fire, that as you would receive that grace, that fire would not consume you, but it will cause life to rise up within My people, says the LORD.

(Sue Thrasher) "I am the mighty warrior, I am the One who hates sickness and disease. I am the One who hates what Satan does to My people. (Unintelligible)... I will devour the enemy with My (power). You see the gentle side of Me, now you shall see the fierce side of Me. It shall be a terrible day, the Day of the LORD. It shall be a terrible day. You don't want to be found in that day. It will be a day of great horror that you shall remember... (Unintelligible)..."

"...and you will see, for I will begin to reveal things to you, things you have hoped for, things that you have sought after, but I will show them to you in the realm of the Spirit, and when you shall see them you shall say 'That is me. That is me. That is who I am in Christ, for he has set me free.' you will say these things because the revelation is not just coming as future things, but they are coming to reveal a present reality that you can walk in now. For the world seems to be falling apart because they are walking according to the vision of the god of this world and they are at war with one another, they are at war with even what they call their god. But My people are not at war with Me, says the LORD, for I am causing an alignment to where you will come into My presence, spirit and soul and body and you shall see My hand of deliverance, for not only shall I deliver you, but I am in the beginning of delivering families, households. I am beginning to deliver those nations, those peoples, who would be called by My name, and I am delivering them out of the bondage and out of the oppression of years and years and years, for this is the day of My breakthrough, says God. For My people have cried out and I have heard their voice and I am coming soon, says the King of Kings and the LORD of lords, I am coming soon for I have not abandoned you, but I am fulfilling Myself in you and I am causing My dreams to be fulfilled in you, that you should walk in those things, instead of your own dreams. For your dreams are passing away, but My dream is being accomplished, says the LORD, and I will see My dream for My house, My dream for you, My dream for this church. I shall see those dreams come to pass, says the LORD, for it is the day of My appearing.

"And in the day of My appearing, you will be seen for who you are, for My glory shall shine out from you, and people shall behold you and they shall say, 'Aren't you the one who used to...' and they will see the transformation. They will begin to compare who you used to be with what they see before them, and they will say 'Surely something has happened to you.' It's My glory that they are seeing. It's My glory, it's My presence, and that presence will either draw them or it will convict them. It will be a fragrance in the air. To those who are the heirs of salvation it shall be a sweet fragrance, but to those who reject Me, oh, it shall be a bitter fragrance, and it shall be a fragrance of death for they refuse, even though their eyes have seen and their ears have heard, they refuse to come to Me, saith the LORD. They refuse to receive My grace, they refuse to see My mercy, and they shall receive their reward for that. But for My people, I have a reward laid up for you, and you are beginning and will walk into that reward, says the LORD of Hosts.

"The storm clouds have gathered. The vultures are preparing for their feast. For a dark time is coming on the world, on those who have rejected Me, on those who have gone onto a different path, for those who seek to be called by My name and seek to include Me but yet they walk on their own. For it is the time the devourer is coming into the earth, and he will release many things, even as I give him the power to do this, for he can do nothing on his own except I grant him the privilege. Yet in all these things there is that separation, for the tares have grown up with the wheat and I am beginning to remove the tares, for I am letting them be exposed and I will come and draw them out, says the LORD, for it is My will and My work that you are seeing come to pass. "For the world, the path will be dark, for the world the path will be confusion, for the world the path will even be destruction to the uttermost, but for My people, says God, I shall let My light shine upon My people, and My people shall walk in a glory. For they shall learn what it is to walk in faith, and they will learn what it is to walk in the power of My resurrection. For the things that they've read in My word, the things that they have sung about, and the things they have declared with their mouth, they shall see these things come to pass, for a thousand shall fall at your right hand and ten thousand on your left hand yet it will not come nigh you, says God. For I have separated My people, and I have lifted them up, and I've drawn them out, and I have separated them, and there is a barrier between the world and My chosen ones, says God. For I have chosen you out of these things, and I've chosen you to walk in My glory, and I've chosen you to walk upright before Me, says God, and My people shall do that, for even the division, even the darkness would come and deceive those who are not walking in the light. But if you walk in the light, says God, you will not have darkness. For that which even seems shadowy for you shall disappear. For it shall be clear to you which way to walk, for I am revealing Myself in these days, says God. And there will be those who cry to the rocks to cover them up, but My people will cry out unto Me, says God, and I will display Myself on their behalf, and I will show Myself strong on their behalf. So, yea, though the dark days come, do not let them overcome you. Do not succumb to the panic that is going to strike upon the earth, but look to My Spirit, says God, for I will lead thee, and I will guide thee, and I shall be with you even during the storms, says God.

"This is not the day to draw back. This is not the day to pick up small offences. This is not the day to lightly, to lightly deal with the assembling of yourselves together. For in that joining I will quicken My people and I will draw you unto Myself that you shall not be moved. For My stabilizer, Jesus, will live among you and He will be revealed and those who know Me will walk with Me, says the LORD. But don't draw back, don't draw back, but boldly, boldly, come before My throne that you may receive the grace, for this is a time of much grace as well as destruction. It is the time of the outpouring that you've prayed for, that you've longed for, that you've looked for. It is that time of outpouring of My grace upon the earth, that those who would call on My name would be saved, for they shall enter into things and they shall enter into the giftings, that others have said (pause) and longed for and have not received that these new ones, they shall walk in them. For they have come out of the darkness and they're walking in the light, and there is no confusion in them, and I will use them, the babes, to lead those who consider themselves to be wise and I shall exalt them in this day, says the LORD, for they shall know Me, because I am their deliverer.

“Have not I said unto thee in the past, that, yea, I would give thee a complete revelation of My being? And, yea, I say unto you this night, that I am a mighty God to the pulling down of the strongholds of the enemy. And, yea, I say unto you this night, that I AM YHWH, I AM THAT I AM. For yea, I could speak unto Myself and say, “Go thee forth,” but yet I give thee that power also, because, yea, I desire to inhabit you, and I desire to inhabit the praises of My people. And I say unto you, that if you will look unto Me, yea, you will see, and as you see I will reveal Myself unto you, for I AM not a hidden God. Yea, I AM not a God that cannot be seen, yea, I AM not a God that cannot be felt, but I say unto you this night My people, that if you will look unto Me, yea, I will lead thee and I will guide thee, and I will teach thee all truth. For yea, I have set aside for thee revelations of Myself, yea, I have set aside for thee revelation of those things that are around about you. Have I not said in My word that My thoughts are not your thoughts, and my ways are not your ways, and I say unto you, that yea, I desire to bring thee together in Me. Yea, I desire to give you the power of My name. Yea, I desire to give you the power of My being. Yea, I desire that you walk before Me. As you walk before Me in righteousness and holiness, as I have been speaking unto thee these past weeks, I say unto thee this night, that yea, I the LORD thy God will give thee a revelation of Myself. Yea, you shall see Me, how I am lifted up. Yea, you shall see the throne room of God. Yea, you shall see those things that are round about Me, and as you see those things, and as you acknowledge those things, yea, I say unto you that I will bring My presence into thee, and I will cause thee to go forth, and I will cause thee to speak things into existence, yea, that I shall show thee of, for yea, I AM THAT I AM, says the LORD thy God.
