God Still Speaks...

Since the beginning of 2013, God has blessed Living Faith with His precious presence. Living Faith gathered and printed a booklet of the prophetic words He was speaking to us and this booklet ignited the hearts and imaginations of our people that they have demanded us to continue to compile the "Words of the LORD" or the "Words of YHWH" for them in a second, third, fourth, etc. booklet.

These prophetic words from YHWH are a wonderful reminder of God's love and faithfulness throughout our journey in life, and the hope of Jesus' soon return and reign.

What a wonderful God we serve!

"For the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy."
Revelation 19:10

Some people reject prophecy out of hand, even before they read or examine it. Scripture tells us "Do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits, whether they are of God; because many false prophets have gone out into the world." (1 John 4:1)

But think on this. "All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness, that the man of God may be complete, thoroughly equipped for every good work." (2 Timothy 3:16-17)

Think on this – All Scripture is prophecy! The books of Moses, Ruth, Psalms, the prophetic books, and Daniel, and all in between. Peter even says the letters of Paul are "scripture."

Living Faith does NOT suppose that the "Words of the LORD" are equal to the Scripture in the Bible. But test them! For reproof, correction instruction, that we may be complete for every good work.

“It’s not over with yet says the Lord. I’m not done. I’m still exposing those who would rise against Me. I’m still shedding light in the darkness. I am still bringing out of My goodness the things that belong to Me. And I am restoring them to My body saith the Lord. But now the body must receive the things that I am pouring out. They must learn to open their arms. For too long they have learned to walk according to the flesh, according to the natural things that they see. But I am moving in the realm of the Spirit, and many of My children will miss this movement because they’re looking to the natural to understand the things of My Spirit. And the natural only reveals My Spirit, it does not give wisdom of My Spirit. For I showed Moses My ways, and the people only knew My acts. And so it is with many in the church. They will see My acts but they won’t know My ways. For I am bringing things to pass that’s been spoken over this nation, things that I have spoken, things that My prophets have spoken, and I am bringing them to pass in these days saith God. For there is a great outpouring of My Spirit again in this nation. And it will not be limited to this nation’s borders, but it will go beyond as My people travel, as they go to different places, and they will begin to broadcast the good news here in your Jerusalem to the uttermost part of the world. And others will see and they will take heart as they sense the moving of My Spirit again. And those that have been silenced and those that have been still in many nations shall begin to find their voice, and they shall begin to pray and to intercede. And they will see the kings pulled down, they will see the rulers of this world come to naught and they will see My glory return. And for a brief time it will be heaven on earth.

“So keep your eyes to the skies. Keep your eyes on Me saith God. Do not be drawn to the left or to the right, but keep your eyes on Me and you will see My works and understand My ways. And you will walk in revelation that Abraham saw but never entered into; that Enoch saw and did step over into some of this realm. But I am bringing those things to pass in these days declares the Lord of Hosts.

“For the word that has been planted will come forth, and the seeds that have been sown, both good and bad, will come up for harvest. And the tares, the tares are beginning to be removed declares God. And My kingdom will go forth.”

“The wheels are coming off! For Pharaoh thought he had the children of God where he wanted them, and He thought ‘I will run them into the ground’. They think, he thought, that they have what they have sought after but he planned to take it away from them. Oh, but My word says don’t lift your hand against My anointed. Pharaoh pursued after the enemy, they pursued after Israel when they were in the water of the Red Sea, but I parted it. I brought them through dry shod, but Pharaoh tried to move in the same anointing that opened the sea. And as he drove into that sea, My angels literally removed the wheels from their chariots that they could no longer pursue. And the very trap that they thought they had Moses caught in killed them, and they all died that day. In a moment, in a flash, they ceased to exist, but My people were free. There are those enemies that have sought to pursue, I’ve taken their wheels off. And even now you can see them floundering, even now you can see them beginning to wonder what is taking place. But they have tried to walk into My anointing and only I can fill that place declares God. And those who would seek to remove Me from My office will find that they are ill equipped to do so. They have neither the wisdom nor the power, for I will confound the wisdom of the wise and I shall strip them as I stripped Satan in hell, and I will expose them for all the world to see. For I’m not just a God of individual salvation, but I have spoken to the nations, to the nations. Oh, that My people would begin to get their eyes into larger areas, and they would begin to see beyond their limited life, and they would begin to see that not only do I move in your individual life but I move among the nations. And what I am doing right now, declares God, is I am repositioning nations. There are goat nations and there are sheep nations and the division is beginning to be apparent between the two, for I am beginning to move among the nations, and they must decide where they stand. For in a short time all this will become apparent, and all of this will become visible for even the natural eye to see. And those who have sought to work in darkness, their darkness is being exposed, and they have nowhere to turn because they have already rejected Me says God. They’ve already rejected their Redeemer. They’ve already rejected their Healer, they've already rejected the One who can release them from the darkness that they're caught in, and yet they will not turn to Me and they will flounder in their ways and they will be removed declares the Lord. But, for My people, oh, you'll be on the other side of the waters, you'll be over on the other side and you'll watch the destruction of your enemies. Those who sought to persecute you, you will stand back and be aghast at their destruction. For it shall come suddenly, and you will say 'Oh, we're so glad we chose the right side to be on.' And you have chosen the right side declares God for I am your victory in every area."

"I have come to take you to a higher level. I've come to bring you into a greater dimension. I've come to lift you out of the chaos, out of the wounds of this world that have been created because of sin and rebellion. I've come to draw you out of these things into My level declares God. To bring you into My presence. To bring you from the kingdom of this world, from the kingdom of darkness, into the kingdom of My beloved Son. I've come to lift your sights that you would not just see the things of this world that are passing, but you would see My glory that is rising. To see that which I am doing declares God, not just now but in that which is your future, because your future is My present declares God. And when I can draw you into your future, into My present, oh we will meet and My glory will be shed abroad in all the earth. So to those who say it won't come, to those who are the nay-sayers, to those who are negative, oh, I declare a new way of thinking for you. I declare you to lift up your eyes, look to the hills from where I come, from where My glory is. For that hill that you look to (is) not the natural mountains, but it is the hill of the Lord, it's the hill of My temple declares God. It's the hill that I've set aside for Myself. It's the hill that Jacob saw the ladder, and he saw that connection between heaven and earth. It's that hill that David offered the sacrifice on, and My glory shown 'round about. It's that hill that Abraham went and offered his son, and I made a sacrifice in it's place. It's that hill, that place, that dwelling, that I inhabit declares God, that I have desired to place it in the earth, that it should rule and reign. For it shall be the throne of My beloved Son, and I am coming declares God, to set it into it's right place. And it will be that those who say negative things and those who declare the apocalypse, will be shown that they're out of sync. For what they see, they see in part. For yes that day shall come; but oh, the days of heaven on earth will precede it. The days when My people will declare 'Peace, peace, we've achieved all that God has declared.' When that day comes, oh their eyes will be opened. And they will see that even heaven on earth is not as great as heaven in My presence. For I am bringing things to pass that will astound even men. And even the prophets shall stand back and say 'We never thought about this. We never perceived what God is doing and what He is capable of.' For you only see in part and you only see a little here and a little there, for if I would show you My fullness and My greatness, you would no longer be able to speak, for it would so overwhelm you. It would be so much greater than what you can grasp, that you would just be silent before Me. For have not I said in My word that I am able to do even more than what you can think, ask or imagine? But I've thought these things says God, and I've said these things, and I have seen these things declares God. For they are of Me, they're of My 'super' natural. For all this world and all the glory that you see in it, is still a fallen world. And this world that you see, I'm going to cause it to pass away and it'll burn up. Oh, but I have a New Heaven, I have a New Earth that I'm going to bring about, and then you'll be able to understand the fall and the contamination of sin. For then you shall see everything as I intended for it to be, and it will endure forever declares God. And you will be a part of this New Heaven and this New Earth.

"But you can begin to enter in now. You don't have to wait for the old things to be dissolved. You don't have to wait for all that old to be taken care of, but you can walk in My kingdom now by faith declares God. For I've made a provision and a way for you to enter in, even though it may be just temporary in this life, but I've made a way for you enter into My glory and into My goodness, that you would behold the salvation of your God. So enter in, lift up your head, look at My kingdom. Look at what I have done through Jesus My Son, and let these things become real in you. For it is greater than anything that this world can offer. For it will exceed the presence of this world declares God."

“Did I not tell you in My word to covet the gifts, and more especially that you would prophesy? But if you don’t covet them, if you don’t desire them, they won’t manifest! They won’t manifest in you if you don’t desire them, because I am not going to force Myself on you. So you must yield to Me. You must desire them. You must open yourself up for the gifts to begin to flow. And you must be willing to accept that somebody’s going to see you! But if they don’t see you, they won’t see Me! So, open yourself to Me, yield to Me, and begin to desire the things of My Spirit. Begin to desire for My Spirit to choose you. You don’t make it happen. I choose. I choose. But I can only choose those that are willing to be chosen. So, desire. Desire these gifts. Desire that they would flow, and be a part of exposing Me to the world.”

“There are many who say they want to enter into the Kingdom of God, but yet the fear that they have of being seen does not allow them to enter in. For they fear men more than they fear God. They don’t see it this way, they don’t understand it this way. But that is the reason why so many do not enter in, is because they’re looking to the opinion of men rather than to My opinion of them saith God. For I choose who I will to work in the gifts, but yet you must will to be chosen for Me to be able to choose you. For if you do not choose Me above the things of the world, then I am tied and I am limited. But I don’t want to be limited in My family. I don’t want to be limited in My house says God, for I want to rule and reign and I want to use you to let your light shine so that others can see Me, that others can enter the Kingdom of Heaven. But you must be willing to enter in. You must be willing to be a participant of those things that you believe for and you believe in, so that they will manifest through you; and, thus My kingdom will expand and will increase saith the Lord.”

“Oh, the world is in chaos. The world is whirling this way and that way. They don’t know which way to turn. They don’t know how to interpret the signs of the times. They don’t understand what is going on. But in My place there is peace. In My Kingdom there is a settledness, for I know the end from the beginning declares the Lord. And I am not shaken by anything that goes on. My people know they’re in a battle. My people know they’re in a war. And there will be risings and settings; there will be those individuals who come for a moment and who will leave. They will have accomplished their job. They will have done what I have called them to do, and then it’s time for someone else to step into their place. And this is what you see. The world says it’s chaos. Oh, it’s Me setting things in order says the Lord. For I am in the middle of raising up mighty men, men that will stand on principle, men who will stand on character, people who will take a stand for Me declares the Lord, and all the ‘P.C.’ of the world is crumbling and falling apart. Even the world recognizes this but they have no clue what is going on. For they thought they were in charge and they thought they could turn the horse which ever way they wanted it to go. Oh, but they didn’t reckon with My stallion says the Lord. They didn’t come to grips with My Lord says God. For I am the one who puts the bit in the horse’s mouth, and I turn it whichever way I want it to go. The world does not control it, I do says God. And I am pouring out My glory in this day and this age. Yes, it’s messy. Yes, it seems confusing but it’s not to Me says God. For I am orchestrating events in the world right now that My Kingdom would come. That those who have set up false kingdoms will fall and they will collapse literally under their own weight. For the trap that they have set for others they are falling into it themselves. That’s why they’re in confusion. Because they have said ‘Peace, peace. We’ve won!’, and there was never peace, there’s never an order to things, but it was always in chaos because the world can not bring order. Only I can establish order says God, for I am the order that has set the universe into motion.

“So don’t worry, don’t fret, don’t be like the world and be caught up in the day to day news, for all they can see is the moment. And all they can see is what they see with the natural eyes. But behold, look unto Me says the Lord. Look to My mountain, look to Mt. Zion from whence cometh your help. For I am on the move says God, and I will rescue all those who seek Me declares God.”

“I tell you in My Word that I came to give life. Take life, don’t walk in the darkness anymore. Take life. Life is out there for you. Take it. Take My life. I have a higher, better way of living for all of you. Take that. I’m giving it to you. I love you. I love you. Take it. I love you. Hang on, hang on. Don’t look at what you see with your eyes. Look to Me. I have greater, better things for all of you. Look to Me. Stay with Me. Believe Me. I love you. I love you.”

“Many think that when My Kingdom comes that it will bring a great reign of peace in the earth. But even My Son said ‘I did not come to bring peace’, but I came to set family against family, children against parents and parents against children. For when My Kingdom comes, there are those who choose to walk in that Kingdom, choose to walk in My righteousness and there are those who reject it and will walk away. So there is a conflict. When My Kingdom comes it will be peace for those who enter My Kingdom declares God. But for those that are outside, they will resist and they will struggle against My will being done in the earth. So, yes, there is peace but it is a time of conflict. For the world does not want My Kingdom. That’s why it’s called the world. They operate under a different system than My Kingdom operates in. But I am establishing My Kingdom says the Lord in the earth, and those who are of My Kingdom, they will become more and more separate from the kingdom of this world. For they will look at those things and they will reject them. As they grow and increase in My Kingdom, they will reject that worldly system of doing things. And those who are in the world will continue to walk in darkness, and they will continue to walk by sight, and they will continue to live by the works of the flesh. But they have no part of Me, says God, for that is not My Kingdom. For My Kingdom cannot be established by kings or by governors or by force or by those who would just choose to do according to their own choosing. But when My Kingdom comes, says God, My Word is law. My Word is life. And I have called My people to live by faith. Why must you live by faith? Because this world operates in a different level. They operate by sight, they operate by the things that they see going on around them. Oh, but My people walk by faith in Me says God.

For My people, they see a different sight. For they see My goodness and they see My glory and they see My Kingdom come, and they rejoice at that (ir)regardless of what is going on around them. So enter into My Kingdom and receive peace. Reject the things of the world and come out against those things says God. To reject them in your life, in your life, that you would come to live by a higher standard of living than what this world could ever attain. For I’ve come to set you apart and I have called you into My Kingdom saith God. So walk in it and bear the fruits of repentance.

“For the kingdom of this world is passing away, and you’re seeing the death throes. Even as dogs will fight one another over the scraps, so you’re watching the world fight one another for the scraps, and they think this is gold; but it’s just scraps saith God. For My Kingdom is of greater value than silver or gold. It’s of greater things than anything that this world has to offer, for My Kingdom will transform this earth says God. As My people walk at a higher level, the blessings flow from them into their communities, into their countries, into their land, and My Kingdom will begin to permeate to silence the voices of this world for a period, and then I’ll release it again. For there will come that time when the restrainer is removed. Then all those things that have been shut up, all those things that have been made to sit and withdraw, will be free to fight over the scraps once again. For they fight over worldly things, and they fight over things that are temporary, and they fight over things that will not endure forever. But you, My children, oh, you’ve seen My Kingdom that knows no end, that has no beginning and no end because it is in Me saith God, and I will rule over all things by My Son Jesus Christ.”

“For I am able to take that which you consider to be small and enlarge it to such a capacity that you would never recognize where it started from. For I’ve given you the parable of the seed, and in that seed, even how small it is, everything that is needed for growth is in that seed. And if you plant it, a great tree can grow out of it. And out of that tree a forest can come. And out of that forest, animals and birds come, and they make their home in it. If I can do that with a seed, do you not think I can do it in you? To take that which you consider waste, to take that which you consider to be small of little importance, and yet by My touch says the Lord, I can cause increase to come in your life. I can turn situations around to where you don’t even remember how it began. For I make all things new, and I am the one who shines the light into the darkness. And when that light comes, all the darkness has to leave. But in order for the darkness to go, light must come in. I must have entrance into your life. I must have that entry point into you that I can cause you to grow. And the things that I place in you from birth, those things I can increase and magnify until literally you become a world overcomer. To overcome, to pull down, to destroy all those things that have been spoken against you. And all those circumstances that seem to be contrary, I can turn them around declares God. For I am the light, I am not the darkness. And where there is darkness, I sent My Son, the Light of the world, to dwell in that place, that the darkness would flee from His presence. So let My light have entry in you and let My glory, My goodness manifest in you, that you could take of that goodness on the inside and you can manifest it to the world. And the world will see your light, and many will come to your light, to My glory, My goodness. And they can enter the kingdom of My glory, even as you have, because they’ve seen your witness. So come unto Me and let Me take that which is small, that which you are willing to throw away right now, that dream, that hope, that desire that you have put on the shelf, give it over to Me and I will use it to reveal My glory and My goodness declares God.”

“It is My desire to give bread to My children. It is My desire to give the Kingdom to My Sons and to be in health. And yet you must cooperate in all these areas. You must go and get the bread. You must seek first My Kingdom. You must be the one that longs after Me and longs after My blessings says the Lord. For though I’ve given it to all the earth, I’ve made the opportunity for all to receive what I have, yet many don’t for lack of knowledge, lack of understanding or lack of desire. For they’ve sought the things of the world and they say ‘I’m content. I have all that I need.’ But I’ve given to you more than what you need. Yes you can survive, yes you can get along, yes you can pursue after the things of this world, but I have a heavenly Kingdom to bestow upon you. And I have blessings from above to give to My children, if they would receive what I have to offer; but, it requires a discontent. It requires no longer being satisfied with just being satisfied. For there is a spiritual hunger that must be sought after. A spiritual desire to pursue more than what you have, for I have caused you to be a blessing to those around you. And if you only pursue that which satisfies you, you can not satisfy those around you, because they will draw from you. And if you have no more to give, then they have nothing to receive. So pursue after Me says God. After your needs have been met, after your goals have been attained, pursue after Me and long after who I am that you would attain the fullness of the Godhead in you, that you would have an abundance to give to those around you, so that life would flow from you to others, that they could tap into your reservoir and draw out what they need. For I’ve put it within you says God, all My blessings and all My glory, and yet you must draw out of these things in order to meet the needs of others. For out of your own needs, your own supply, you can not give to them. It must be My supply in you says the Lord, that you will meet their needs. For Jesus drew not out of His reservoir in the natural, but He drew out of that heavenly reservoir that I had put in Him. And out of that heavenly reservoir flowed healing, flowed redemption, flowed the power to brake the curse and to set men free. And this is what I would desire for all of My children, that you would not stay children but that you would become sons, that you would become fathers and mothers to those around you, that you would disciple them and grow them up in the things of Me says God; that they would know Me for themselves and not just for what you have heard or what you have spoken to them, but that they would know the power of what you speak and know the One who has come to set them free. This is your choice, it is your choice to walk into the greater or just be satisfied with where you are. But I've called you into the greater. I've called you into more glory, more abundance, more healing, more revelation. I've called you into these areas says God, that you would be able to meet the needs of others, because they don't know how to meet their own needs. So don't just stand back and say 'Well they need to do it on their own.' Help them. Show them the same love that I have shown to you. Show them the same forgiveness that I've shown to you. Show them the same mercy that I have shown to you. For this is drawing out of a deeper reservoir than your own. You will be drawing out of My kingdom and out of My glory says God to meet the needs of the many.

“(It is when you begin to live) for another that life begins to flow out from you. If all you do is live for yourself, you'll never have more. You'll have enough but you'll never have the more. You need to live for Me says Christ. You need to live for My sake, not just for your own. Then you'll find the Kingdom. Then you'll find the satisfaction that escapes so many of My children because they're only living for themselves, moment by moment, and they've not chosen to live for another. They've not chosen to live for Me says God. But step up into this realm, step up into this place where you live for another, and I will take you places and I will meet your needs and I will show the love for you, that I have for you, to others that they would walk in the same love. Walk in this level and you'll walk and step into a higher realm of glory.”

“The world is afraid of My goodness declares the Lord, because they don't understand My compassion. They don't understand how My love is so great and so vast. They don't understand that My forgiveness is My entry way into the throne room, that My grace and My mercy have been poured out on the world. They're afraid of it because they can not receive it. But they'd rather live in their own shallowness, their own limitations, because if they would receive My goodness, there is no more excuse. There's no more reason for them to live the way they have chosen to live, so they're afraid of My goodness. Because if people discover My goodness says God, natural men will lose their control over the lives of others. No longer can they dictate, no longer can they strike fear into the hearts of the people, because My goodness will meet all of their needs. My goodness has been poured into the earth says God. I will not draw it back. I will not say 'No, no, no, you come back to Me.' But My goodness is there to change; and those who would see, those who would behold My goodness, will be changed forever. For they will begin to see the things of this world fade and pass away into the nothing that they are. They will begin to see My fulness, the fulness of My mercy poured out. The fulness of My light that dispels darkness. The fulness of who I am that consumes even the flesh of men, to bring you into a higher dimension, a higher way of living. For the world promises these things, but they can not give them, because they are beyond this world. They are beyond the carnal understanding of things. Oh, it is the realm of My Spirit says God, that I've called you to inhabit, that I've called you to participate in. I've called you to walk in My goodness, in My glory. And all the other things will fade away. But you will know Me, for I will abide with you forever and ever and ever declares the Lord.

“So walk into My goodness. Walk into these things that I've provided for you says the Lord. They're free. They're free. You can have them by believing in Me. By knowing that I am the Greater One than the one in this world. To know that I am the all fulfilling, all encompassing God. To know these things about Me that they will manifest in you as you trust Me and as you yield yourself to Me says God.”

“Oh, that My people would know My grace. Oh, that they would know My love. For you’ve received My grace to a certain point. You’ve received it to the degree that you understand, but I have more than what you know. I have more grace, more mercy, more power than what you can think, ask or imagine. I have more for you than what you have entered into so far, and even more for you than what you’ve been able to see through your natural understanding. For you see in part and you know in part, but I, say the Lord, I know the end from the beginning, and I know the plans that I have for you that you would walk in those things that I’ve already set out for you to attain. And yet you’ve become satisfied because of your pride, because of your ego. You’ve become satisfied, ‘Well I’m doing all I know to do;’ and that’s your problem. You’re doing all you know to do, but I know more to do. For I know those things that I have placed within you that you haven’t even begun to tap yet. For I have put My very essence, My very person within you says the Lord, through the new birth. And in that reborn experience I have come to inhabit you. For My grace, My power, My strength operates through a power of unity declares God, of oneness with Me. That’s why Paul said in Corinthians that you be of the same mind, you be of the same Spirit, because that releases My gifts in operation. But where there is envy, where there is strife, where there is bitterness, where there is discouragement, I am not free to move in the way that I would desire to move. For those are limitations to Me. Oh, I am moving in these days, declares God, to bring My body into a unity of My Spirit, not their understanding, but a unity of My Spirit declares God. And when they come into that unity of Spirit, I will begin to do things; and the church, those through whose hands it is performed, will begin to stand back and say ‘This has to be God.’ For it will no longer be the imagination of men. It will no longer be the desire of men, but it will surpass those things to where My Spirit is released in the earth to move and to have sway. Oh, that you would come into unity with Me, declares God, that you would come into unity with one another, that there would be no division in the body, and there would be no division between Me and you. For I have called you unto Myself says God. And I say again ‘Come, come, come,’ that we may walk together and the power of My Spirit would be poured out and glorified in all the earth. This is My will declares God. This is My desire for you and for My body in the earth. Not in Heaven, for it will be that way in Heaven, but I want to see those things manifested in the earth, in the natural realm declares the Father.”

“Many are asking Lord when are you coming again? When are you going to blow across this land? I already am declares the Lord. I am already showing myself strong. But even as Jesus came into the earth, many of those who believed, many of those who sought after Him did not like the way that He came. For He came as one of them. He came and walked among them. And they wanted a mighty king, one that’d just overthrow all the natural gods and kings that were in the earth. And they wanted to see Him set up a kingdom. He did, but it was a spiritual kingdom. A kingdom that lives and continues in the hearts of those who believe in Me says God. For I am blowing on this earth again says God. For evil has seen its day, and it has risen to such a level, but I am showing Myself in the midst of that evil. And there are many who say, ‘We want the Lord, and we want God to do this and God to do that.’ Well, I’m doing those things in My own way declares God. And those who have wanted this day, many are even rejecting it, for it has not come in the appearance that they desire. For I will do it in My way and My fashion says God. For My desire is to see men repent, is to see them come to the end of their own rope that they would turn to Me. I am even shaking up Hollywood. And like the crowds that followed My Son into Jerusalem, they will cheer and they will holler ‘Oh, Son of David.’ They will holler all these wonderful, good platitudes, and yet when it affects them, the shouting and rejoicing will wane away rapidly, for it’s not about others, it’s about them says God. This is about their heart. And although they want things to change, they don’t want to change their heart; and their heart is the issue says God. What they truly believe, what they truly yield themselves to they will be servants of. For I am revealing hearts in this day says God. And there are those, even among My own people, who will holler and cheer until they come before the fire and the citadel of the King. And there is someone who will point to them and say, ‘Aren’t you one of those?’, and then you’ll have to declare yea or nay. And many will deny Me, says God, like Peter; and they shall walk away ashamed. And yet My grace will reach out to them and I will still call them back. But there will be others, like John, no one ever asked him a question because his lifestyle and his mannerism was such that they all knew. And he was there with Jesus through the trial; and he was there through the beatings; and he was there when they carried the cross to the crucifixion; and he was there under the cross; and he was there when Jesus died. And he saw the whole thing and he endured it with Me, declares Jesus. That's why I honored him with long life. Because of his countenance, because of the integrity of his heart, he lived long and prospered in the things that I had planned for him.

“So this is the day to follow after Me says God. It's the day not to hide, not to shirk. It's the day of the out coming of My body, My church says God. For you are My witness in the earth. And you are the ones that I am calling this day to display My power in you. And again, although many would desire this and many would seek after this, when it actually comes down to their choice, many will not stand. For they will have to make a declaration and it will be a declaration not of just words, but of commitment to whether or not you will walk with Me in the valley, whether or not you will walk with Me when all those around you are yelling ‘Crucify Him, crucify Him!’ And there will be those who will stand strong and there will be those who will see the glory in it fulness, and there will be others who wish they had done what they knew was the right thing to do. So prepare to make your stand. Prepare now to do the right thing, for it will come upon you. And you will have to make that choice and that decision. And when you do, it's not going to be as hard as you think. It's not going to be as difficult, for you've already set your face; and you'll say along with the early disciples, ‘We must obey God rather than man. And we must acknowledge God in all of our ways, not just occasionally.’ And I will call you My sons and My daughters says God.”

“There are those of My family who still come before Me asking Me, requesting Me to give them more. Give me more of this, more of that, more of the other. I have already placed Myself within you says the Lord God Almighty. All that you need is already present. My anointing is upon you as a believer. My power is within you as I dwell in you. And I have called you to rise to a new level to overcome greater devils. And I have placed within you all that you need, but you must begin to walk in Me says the Lord, that I can be free in you. For you're still trying to do these things by your own understanding instead of My understanding says God. You're trying to accomplish them through the works of the flesh instead of by the power of My grace. For My grace is greater than your works. For your works can not accomplish what My grace has already given to you. Therefore you must learn to walk in My grace, to humble yourself before Me says the Lord, that I can fill you up to overflowing. And when you walk in Me, My overflow will begin to run through you and it will cause overflow in every area of your life, but it will first overflow you. For I am the greater one. I am the one who has all things. I am Jehovah Jireh, and I have placed Myself by My choice within you declares God. So don't look and say, ‘Well who's gonna do this, and where's God gonna come from, and when is this going to occur?’, for it is already within you. For I dwell within you declares God. And when you look to Me, when you draw upon My Spirit says God, the overflow becomes a natural way of living. For you are no longer living out of your resources, but you're living out of My resources. And I am the more abundant One declares Jesus. For I have come that you might have life and have it more abundantly than what you can produce by your own efforts.

“So step into My overflow. Step into those areas that I have already provided for you, for your provision is there. But you must go there to get the provision. For I've prepared it for you. It's not where you're at, it's where I have called you to go. It is the ‘there’ that I've set before you, and as you go ‘there’ you will find the provisions that you need.

“Don't be afraid to go there. Don't be afraid to go into those areas that I've called you into. For again ‘there’ is the provision. And what keeps you out of My provision is the fear of the things of this world, that you will not receive that which I've said. But if you go there, there is the provision. If you break through the fear, there is all that you need. For I am there, for I go before you says the Lord. I am with you, but I also go before you, because I am drawing you up to a higher level and a higher way of living. And there will be many who will say ‘No, I'm content where I am, I don't need the more.’ Why do you fight Me says God? Why do you fight My goodness? Why do you fight and struggle against My mercy and against all the bounty that I have for you? Why do you struggle? It's because you don't trust Me. You trust Me to go to Heaven, but I've ask you to trust Me with your life, with all that you have. For if you will give up those natural things, I will give you those natural things back and even more says God. For you will not walk in dependence upon the natural, but upon My Spirit. And My Spirit is greater, greater, greater than that which is natural.”

The spiritual Babylon is coming down. It's coming down fast, says the Lord. It's coming down and there is many says the Lord, they are crying aloud, “Babylon is fallen. It's fallen, that great city.” And they will mourn, they will wail, but my people, they shall rejoice, that city that has held my people for so long it is falling, it's failing. It is only temporary. There is coming a time that My people will have to make a decision, will they follow Me, or will they mourn with the people of that city that has fallen. So stand firm, stand with Me, stand together in Spirit and in truth. Be united with Me, with My Body, become one mind. Don't mourn, for I said that the things of this world are passing, and they are passing quickly. So remove yourselves from them before you get caught in the falling away.

“For there is a breakthrough. My people all around are looking for it. They're asking, ‘Is this it? Is this it? Is this it?’ Oh, but it's all around you says the Lord. And many are those who do not see it, for they're looking only into the natural realm of existence. But in My Spirit there has been a breakthrough. Stones are being removed. Stones have been removed and the wall is beginning to show the break in it that it coming. But the breakthrough is already here declares God. And for those who want to participate, they must look into the realm of My Spirit and not into the realm of their own flesh, or the things that are happening around them. For when My Son walked in the earth, many received the miracles, many received the bread, many received the loaves, many, many received the fishes, many received the words but until they received My Son there was not a breakthrough. There were only the signs, only the manifestations, only the things that they could see in the natural could they grasp and comprehend. But the breakthrough came when Jesus asked Peter, ‘Who do you say that I am?’ Peter says, ‘You are the Christ, the Messiah, the Son of God.’ And there are many that will say that Jesus is a prophet, that Jesus is a teacher, that Jesus is even the lover of My soul, but they haven't made the breakthrough because they don't see Jesus as the Messiah, as the appointed one, as the chosen one. But there is a fresh move where the wisdom of men have failed and people are asking ‘God, who are you?’ And they are in the process of discovering the Messiah, the answer for all that they've searched for. And when they find Me declares Jesus, they will be set free for they will walk at a higher level.

“For they look to the flesh. And they look to the flesh thinking that they can find Me, but you can only find the leaves rustling in the wind when you look to the flesh. But I am the wind declares God. And if you look to Me you will see the wind as it blows and not be moved by the leaves in the tree, for My breath will be upon you says God. And I will turn what you think is a hopeless situation, I will turn it around for My glory, declares God, and for your benefit. So in these days look to My Spirit. Look to Me declares God. Get your eyes off the things of the flesh and look to Me for I have done and caused the breakthrough to already occur, and many are those who'll walk through the breach in the wall, for they shall see the salvation on the other side and nothing will keep them back any longer declares God.

“For you have followed My Word as a duty, as an obligation, as something you must endure, but you haven't served Me. And you've done all the things, what you think is the proper and the right thing to do, and you haven't seen any results and you're just about ready to give up. But it's because you've been doing it as a slave rather than as a friend. You've just been doing your duty, but I ask you to open your heart and let Me love you. Receive what I am for who you are. Receive Me and you'll see those things turn around. But as long as it's just a duty, as long as it's only a requirement, you'll continue down the path that you're on, and you'll blame Me when you haven't given yourself to Me. So give yourself today, give yourself today. Freely, voluntarily, give yourself.”

“There is an outpouring of My power declares God, that has not been seen for a long time. And it’s not coming in the great waves like it was in the past, oh no, it’s coming on individuals. It’s My grace being poured out upon My body declares God. For there’s been leaders, and there’s been those who have passed on the anointing, and there have been those who have displayed the anointing, but the anointing is going to come down into the individual parts of My body declares God. And that anointing is going to flow from one cell to another cell, and those two cells are going to combine together and they will pour out the glory. And it will be a glory that covers, literally covers the earth with My goodness and My presence declares God. For it’s a glory that has never been seen in this way, not since the early days of the disciples, and they only began to walk in the edges of it, for they knew Me as the Messiah. And people will come to know Me as the Messiah, the Deliverer, the One Who has rescued them and redeemed them out of every situation. And when they get a hold of that wisdom, when they get a hold of that knowledge, and that revelation of Who I am, oh, they will be set free! And no longer will they look to one another ‘Tell me about God’, but they will know Me for themselves declares the Father. For I will let Myself be known, and I will reveal Myself to them, that you will hear testimonies of My outpouring everywhere you go. For where My Name is spoken, there I will be declares God, in My fulness!

“Fulness! You’ve known in part, but My fulness is on the way. My fulness is now beginning to overtake My church. And My fulness will take you into areas where you’ve never been before. And My fulness will fill you up to levels you’ve never known before. So open yourselves up. Get out of yourself and get into Me declares Jesus! For I am all that fills all, and I will fill you to overflowing. Don’t cling to the things that are past. Cling to that which I am holding out to you. Cling to My Word declares God. Cling to My Spirit declares God. For those things of the past that you are afraid to let go, they are weights, and they weigh you down to keep you from entering in to what I have already provided for you. So step over. Step out of your past and over into My glory declares God. For My anointing will set you free. It is release, release to the captives.”

“There are many voices that go out at this time of the year; but there is only one voice that you need to hear and that’s the voice of My Spirit says God. For this is the time when the enemy likes to cause disruption; and this is the time he likes to attack people’s faith and attack their hopes and their dreams, because this is the season when hopes and dreams are celebrated. And the enemy wants to dash those to the ground, and he wants to trample over them, but not this year says God. Not this year. For this year My people have grabbed hold of My voice, and in My church among those who believe, they are not saying the things that the world wishes them to say. You see it in the media. You see it in the programs. Oh, they bite their tongue because they want to say things and I won’t allow it. And so they are beginning to declare My glory declares God. Even when they don’t, they acknowledge My values. Because if they have their way, oh they would have much to say of hate and bitterness and division and animosity . But I have brought it to the place, says God, that they are having to back up and apologize for what they wish they would have said, because My Spirit has stopped it. But for you My people, stay with My word. Stay with My council. For My word will get you through and My word will put you over declares God. For My word is the power of My Spirit, it is the expression of who I Am declares God. And in My word is My mercy and My power revealed to all who would hear. For there is confusion coming into the land. There is confusion as to which way to go and who to believe, and all the confusion of all the variety of voices, and yet My voice is ringing true. For thousands of years My voice has been true. And it is becoming clearer within My church declares God. For even there, there will come division and there will come that dividing line, that plumb line, by which I will judge all things. And those who are askew, and those who are wanting to do their own thing, some of those I am bringing back in to my plumb line, and I am lining them up. But others will refuse to return and they will continue in their own way and it will be to their own destruction. And even though they’ve seen the destruction of others who have refused My call, they still say ‘Oh, but it won’t happen to me.’ Oh, yes it will declares God. For the things that are hidden will be brought to the surface. And the things that men wish to declare of evil, I am exposing in their heart, and I will make it public unless they repent of those things, unless they return to Me. For it is part of My plumb line declares God, that you would return to righteousness. That you would return to the One who has created you in His own image. That you would return to a life of responsibility. That you would return to living Godly in this world declares God. For those I have a reward, and for those I have benefits of, but I will give it in these days and I will display it in this hour declares God.

“When the king would return from battle, the people would rejoice. For he would come in victory. And he would come with the spoils of the enemy. And so I am preparing you for liberty, for rejoicing, and for the sharing of the spoils that I am taking. For indeed the wealth of the wicked is laid up for the just. And there is that transference of wealth, not as you would suppose in the natural, but a transference of wealth of those positions of power that the world has held, that those who oppose Me have held, are turning around, and I am putting My prophets, My priests, My kings into those positions. For it was created for them declares God. And it is that time when they return to their right owner, which is Me.”

“Some will say these are tumultuous times. Things are changing rapidly, things are going up and down and so many people don't know which way to turn. It was that way when My Son was born. It was that way when Jesus came into the earth. For when He was born the kings shuddered. The kings wept. For they knew that if this is true, if this rumor of the Son of God born at Bethlehem were true, it would shake the foundations of their kingdoms, and they were right. But instead of looking to Me to deliver them, they tried to deliver themselves, and so they ensnared themselves through the very thing that they claimed they were against. And so it is in these days, those who would be free are so afraid of Me, so afraid of losing their position, that they have succumbed to the very things they claimed to be fighting against. And they're confused because light has come into the darkness. And when the light comes there's a choice that is being offered: whether you will walk in the darkness or whether you will walk in the light. For the ways of men are dark because they have no light except from Me saith the Lord. And My light, if they would give it place, would enlighten and illuminate their thoughts and their deeds. And so it is today that the light is shining and there (are) many whose darkness is being revealed. And they're so shocked by it because it has been such a normal practice for them to walk in the deceit of their heart, and they walk in the corruption, and to walk in the lies that when they are found out, they don't know what to do, because they've never looked to Me to start with. But for those who are looking for a deliverer, for those who are looking beyond themselves for help, oh they see what's going on. And they have understanding of the times and they know what's happening about them. And they rejoice, just as the shepherds rejoiced in the fields, just as the angels rejoiced in heaven, for I have come to bring peace on earth; but when that peace comes, it causes confusion and often turmoil. People say 'This is not the peace that I thought.' No, but I didn't come to bring peace between people, I came to bring peace between people and Me saith God. And I came to deliver them out of their pettiness, out of their smallness, out of their limitations, to bring them into a glorious glory that they can only begin to fathom. For all the kings' horses and all the kings' men can not do what I did in a baby in a manger. For in that Baby all the hopes and all the fears of the world are met. I've called you to be a savor, a fragrance. To those who are dying you are the fragrance of death, and to those who are living you're the fragrance of life. For it's My fragrance says God, and I am doing what I've always done. I'm separating the light from the darkness; and there are those who don't like it because they've always walked in what they thought was light, and it's turning to be darkness. For they have refused the light that has come into the earth. But I've said to you My children, that you are light. You are the light of the earth, and I say to you again, let your light shine and let not the darkness of men overpower it. But let your light come forth. For this is the day that My light is being revealed again among men, within men - the light of heaven, the light of My glory. For only that light can free you from the darkness of this world. So seek the light. Seek Me says God, and I will guide you and I will direct you and I will bring you out to a safe place. And others who are being destroyed will soon begin to ask, 'Where do you get the stability, where do you get the light?' And then you can shine. Then you can speak of My love, My glory, and they'll give you attention because they've never heard religion like this. For I did not come to bring a religion, I came to bring life. I came to set men free who will hear of Me declares Jesus.”

“Things are not always as they seem, for some things start large and people say ‘Wooo, look at that!’ And sometimes those things that start large end up very small. And there are those things that start small and they go almost unnoticed, and yet they will grow and increase and increase til it fills the heavens. It was that way in the birth of My Son. Oh, the angels acknowledged Him, and we told the shepherds and we told the people that needed to know, but for the most part it was very insignificant. It was just a curiosity, even to the shepherds, and later when the wise men showed up. Oh, that was a curiosity, too. But it aroused the attention of the king, because the king understood what was happening, that his time was coming to an end. So he sought to kill the curiosity, that which was different, that which was unexpected. And yet that Child that was born....My Messiah, My Deliverer had come into the earth. And He has changed the course and the destiny of this world in a way that many have not yet begun to comprehend. But that Savior, that light in the darkness has saved so many people. And yet He’s still an enigma. He’s still a confusion to those that would pass by and not notice. And yet He is the Savior of the world. And He is the Messiah that was to come. And He is now the King that is soon to return. And when He returns many will say, ‘Ah, this is what they spoke of’, and they still will not know. For to them it will still be a curiosity, but for others they will see their redemption drawing nigh. And they will be caught up with Me, declares God, while others still wonder and others are walking in their confusion. But the confusion comes because they have rejected My Baby. They’ve rejected My Word. That which seems so small, that which is so insignificant. They’ve rejected My Word. They’ve rejected My calling, My message, My communication with them. And so they walk in the blindness, they walk in the darkness, not comprehending what I have done.

“But you are not of those. For you have heard My word, and you’ve received My word. And that word is the light of the world. And that word in you, that seems even to you to be so small and so insignificant, and yet it has transformed your life, not just for today, but for all time. For forever it has changed who you are and changed your destiny and changed you from death into life. Do not count it as a small thing, but see it as what it is - My entrance into you. And that little entrance has done great and mighty things. And you, like my Son, have become a wonder in the world, a curiosity that others look at and say, ‘Well, they’re peculiar!’ Yeah, you are. But to Me, I call you special. I call you a chosen generation, a royal priesthood, king of kings, lord of lords. I’ve called you to fill the heavens with My praise, to walk with Me and to know Me as the Mighty One Who has changed your life. So appreciate the little things that are going on, and let them become the large things in your life declares God.”
