

"For the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy." Revelation 19:10

Some people reject prophecy out of hand, even before they read or examine it. Scripture tells us "Do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits, whether they are of God; because many false prophets have gone out into the world." (1 John 4:1)

But think on this. "All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness, that the man of God may be complete, thoroughly equipped for every good work." (2 Timothy 3:16-17)

Think on this – All Scripture is prophecy! The books of Moses, Ruth, Psalms, the prophetic books, and Daniel, and all in between. Peter even says the letters of Paul are "scripture."

Living Faith does NOT suppose that the "Words of the LORD" are equal to the Scripture in the Bible. But test them! For reproof, correction instruction, that we may be complete for every good work.

"Oh, this is a year declares God. This is a year when My glory shall be poured out. It's a year when My people begin to come together in greater measure than they've been in a long time. For many have struggled with My Spirit, many have struggled with Who I am declares God, but no longer; for in My body, you will begin to come together as one. And as you come, as My Church becomes one with themselves, they will become one with Me says Jesus. And I will begin to reveal Myself again through the Church like I haven't been allowed to in years. And you shall see changes begin to sweep across this nation, you shall see things begin to fall and some things begin to rise, because My people are assembling themselves together as one in Me declares the Christ. For I am creating a new work for you, but a work I have seen from the beginning in this earth. And I am pouring out My glory in greater and greater and greater measure. And it will be as lights. Some lights will appear to grow brighter and brighter and brighter, and it will reveal the darkness around them, because they will stand out all the more. So be prepared in this year of the outpouring of the glory, in this year of transformation, in this year of what I am setting forth, be also prepared for that persecution to come. For those will rise up against you, and their voices will be loud, and they will be clamorous, but yet they shall fall short of their mark. For they shall not come near you, but I will propel you and I will exalt you above all those things, that those voices who would rise against you will be hollow voices, and they will fall to the ground, although they make much acclaim. But they are nothing but wind, and the wind of My Spirit will carry them away declares God.

"For this is the year of the coming out. This is the year of the manifestation. For there are those who I have had concealed in government places for years, that are now in the process of being revealed, and they are coming to the forefront. And you will hear the government in high positions make declaration of My Lordship; and, you will stand back and say 'I never thought I would see it in my lifetime.' Well, you will! You will see it, for I declare it declares God, and it shall come to pass."

"Let the heathen rage. Let them scream from their false altars on top of the mountains; for their high places are beginning to crumble, and the voices that they shout over the land are falling, void of impact. They are missing their mark. They are as the darkness shouts against the light, against that which they cannot overcome, for it is My light that they oppose. The foolishness of men is being revealed. For the foolishness of men deny the sovereign God, and to deny a Savior to come into the situation and change it. For they see the world as coming apart. And they see the world as crumbling. And they see that good is falling apart and this is their modus operandi. This is how they operate, out of destruction they believe will come a new birth, but it is out of the light, it's out of My presence that the new birth comes declares God. For if you reject My wisdom, all you have left is the foolishness of the world, of man trying to be his own savior, his own deliverer, which is impossible. For only from above can your salvation come. Only from without yourself, beyond yourself can your deliverance come. For I am He declares God, and I am the one who sets kings in their places, and I am the one who removes kings from their places. It is not men but it is Me declares God. And I am doing it again today, that I'm raising men up, I am raising those who walk in My anointing, those who will acknowledge Me. I'm raising them up again over the earth, and the world and its foolishness shouts against it, because they have no comprehension of a Savior. They have no comprehension that I can turn things around declares God. Even when I do it in front of their eyes, even when I bring those ashes to life, they will still refuse to see what is happening; for they are consumed in their own darkness. But the light has come declares God. The light of My Savior, the light of Jesus, the light of My Son, the light that I've put in you is rising in the earth once again; and it will go to the four corners, and it will rise up and men shall be dumbfounded in their foolishness. And it will cause them to be silent for a season, for a time, because they can not grasp what is going on. That's why they are fighting so hard, because in their heart they said this can not be. For this is not a work of a man, it is the work of someone else. That someone else is Me says God. For I am orchestrating events, and I am bringing things to pass once again to reveal the foolishness of men and to reveal the goodness of God. So choose My goodness says the Father. Choose who I am. Choose to walk in My light. Choose to walk in My strength and My power in these days for the darkness is waning, and the light is increasing and increasing.

"And the light is increasing in you, in My body, in My fellowship the light is increasing; and it will continue to grow and grow and grow until it reaches that point of where the earth can no longer contain it. And when that time comes I will lift you up to myself declares God. And no longer will you look toward My coming, for you will be in My coming and My glory. My glory shall consume you and all you know will be My peace and My presence declares God. And we will rejoice. We will rejoice in that day."

"Those in low places are looking up, for their redemption draweth nigh. My glory has been in pockets in the earth, but that glory is beginning to expand. And as it expands, it's beginning to make contact with other pockets of glory. And there's a connectedness beginning to occur that hasn't been for a long time. For people are coming together. They're not saying 'We are of this faith or we're of this group or of this bunch', but they're coming together 'We are the children of God.' That glory is beginning to flow from one spot to another. And it doesn't seem to be separate or distinct, but there's a unifying, there's a coming together. For it all comes and flows from My Spirit declares God. For you did not create this thing, neither are you alone in what you are experiencing. But it is increasing and increasing in the earth to where it will be that even the deniers will have to submit, because it's the way that it is. And their voice, even though they shout against the darkness, their voice will be silenced because of My glory. For when My glory comes, it quenches the evil tongue, and it quenches those who disclaim Me says the Lord. For there is silence in My presence, and there is goodness, there is a goodness that flows from My throne into the earth.

"Seek to find your way into that goodness. This is not the time of abandoning fellowship, it is the time of coming together. It is that time of coming together to renew your faith, to renew your spirit, to renew your life in Me, declares God. And it is a time when those who come together, oh, they'll experience a flow, they'll experience an anointing, they'll experience all these things. And those who sit on the outside will say 'I don't know what's going on!', because they're not in the river. They're not in the river of life. They think if they just put their feet in, oh, it'll carry them away. Oh, no it won't. You've got to go in ankle deep, knee deep, thigh deep, until you go in over your head. For when you're in over your head, that's when My Spirit, My river can cause you to flow in the way that I desire. And you will find that way of peace and that will of knowing. And you will begin to do things that you never imagined possible, and you'll find out it's not you doing it, it's the Christ in you that is causing all these things to come to pass. Did I not tell you in My word? Have I not spoken it says the Lord, that My glory shall cover the earth?"

"For men have sought after Me, they have called after Me, they have longed after Me, and I have come to reveal Myself to them says Jesus. I am the One who was before all things. I am the One who was with the Father. I am the One who came from the Father, and I have come to reveal My Father to you. Many have sought, many have cried, many have longed, but they have not yielded to who I am. They acknowledge My existence, but they refuse to bow their knee; because all authority in heaven and earth has been given to Me, declares Jesus, from My Father, until all is consummated, until all is brought together as one. And when that day comes, the Father will call, and you, with Me in you, will be caught up again into the realms of glory. For those who have called, I've responded to. For those that have a yielded heart, I have come to you declares Jesus. And I am making Myself real to you. And I am showing you My power, My strength, My glory, even in this present age. Those who hear, those who respond, those who seek Me with all their heart, shall know Me even as I know them. This is the day of consummation. This is the day that all things are beginning to come together. This is the hour, this is the day when I am calling My church, I'm gathering them together as one. I'm gathering them together for a cause, for a purpose, that My glory will be shown out through all the earth; that people of every tribe, every nation, every tongue, they will know that I am Lord. And they will see My hand increase and increase in these days, declares God, to where the doubter will have no more excuse. For they will have to fall on their knees, and still they will deny Me, but they will know that I am

Lord declares Jesus. And they will know of My presence near to them, and they will know the salvation that they have missed. For they would rather cling to their darkness than come to the light. For My light reveals all the darkness. And there are those who would hang on to their sin, hang on to their shame, rather than come to the light to let Me cleanse them of all these things. Oh, don't be one of them declares God. Come to Me, come to Me with a open heart, a pure heart, a heart of seeking, a heart of hunger, and I will satisfy you says God. For I am the one who is life, and I have come that you might have life in you through Me declares the Son of God."

"Enter in to this new realm. Enter into this spiritualness as you call it. Enter into My presence, into My glory, into My person declares God. For all that I have I've given to you through Jesus. All I have I've bestowed to you, My children. All that I have I've given to you - the wealth of nations, the headship over kingdoms, I've given to you, so enter into that. Those things which you consider small, I consider a start. Those things that you consider to be of no essence, I have declared those things to be of significance declares God. Those things that you have cast aside, I declare to be the mighty works among you. For you look at the natural but I look at My supernatural; for I am above those things that you can see or hear or comprehend with the five senses. For I am greater than all of those. For have I not overcome even death itself? And have not I, Jesus, been raised to sit beside My Father in heavenly places. And I am like you, I am man; but I am more than man, I am the Son of God. And I have called you to enter into My glory, to sit with Me on My Father's throne, that all things in this world would be under your feet. But until you learn to take dominion over the small things, you'll never rule over much. Until you begin to yield to Me in the areas of your life that you think are implausible, you will not know My greatness, nor will you know the significance of what I can do. For you still look to yourselves for the answer, when, if you had the answer there would be no need for salvation, for you would simply deliver yourself out of your situations. But you can't by yourself, but I can says God. For I have overcome death and hell and the grave. And all the keys have been given to Me declares Jesus, and I have given you, the church, the keys of the Kingdom of Heaven. So take them and enter into this new realm, this new way of thinking, this new way of living that you can live with Me in the exalted areas declares God."

"There are those who cry out for My glory. There are those who cry out for that which they don't even understand. And I am pouring forth My glory afresh in these days. And you shall see it come even as a rising sun. And you shall see it come from the east and go to the west, but it shall not pass you by, for where that glory comes it will begin to reside, and will stay in the locations that receive and open their hearts to it. And when that glory comes it will bring community transformation. It'll change My church and My people, because you must be prepared to be carriers of My glory. Don't just be observers, but seek to become carriers, that when My glory comes upon you, it shall not only saturate you, it shall not only lift you up into heavenly places, it will not only be a blessing to you, but you will become a carrier of that glory; that wherever you go, oohhhh, like in the days of Moses and in the days of Joshua, wherever you walk I will give it to you. You will begin to mark My territory by the places that you walk, by the places that you tread over, and you shall begin to declare that these are areas that belong to Almighty God. And where you step, I will let My glory reside there, and for those who will take it up, for those who will receive it, they also will become carriers of My glory, carriers of My mercy, carriers of My abundance. And they shall begin to walk and they shall begin to carry it further and further and further. For when this glory comes, and it will come, when the glory comes, it will bring transformation to everything that you think that you know. For you will walk in greater revelation, not just in wisdom of the Word, but in wisdom of My Son. For My life shall overtake yours, and that which is lesser will yield to that which is greater, and My life will ascend and transcend all that you know and understand.

'Oh, it's a glorious day. It's a day that I've longed forward to see. It's a day I've longed to usher in, and you will see this glory for it will come in your day. And you will be known as the glorious ones, and you shall walk with Me and I shall walk with you, and the things that you declare, you will see them come to pass. And you'll see that what I have said is true and accurate, and even you will be so amazed at what you see you'll say, 'More! More! More!' And I'll say, 'Yes! Yes! Yes!'"

"Behold, I stand at the door and knock, and if anyone would open that door, if any one would open that door, I will come in and sup with him. I will come in and commune with them. I will come in to them and make My home in them, with them, and will live through them. For I have given a window of opportunity to this generation. I have given a window of chance - a window - that if they would open the door, if they would understand Who is knocking and open, I will come in to them. For every life is at a threshold. And every life is at that decision point. And when I come, I knock. The knocking is getting louder and louder and louder, to where the news media cannot even avoid it any longer. For I am knocking on the door, and they try to cast it off as a joke, as a thing to be pitied that people would have faith in Me. They say these things 'cause I'm knocking on their door, and yet they refuse to open. But if they would, I will come in to them, and I will change their life, for then they will know Who I am, instead of just hearing what others have said about Me. For there have been false witnesses and false prophets going out in the earth, and they've declared this and that in My Name, but so much of it has not been in My Name declares God. For I am a God of mercy and a God of healing and a God of restoration. And yet this is not how I am presented to the world. For all they've heard is the judgment that is in the hearts of the individuals, and they try to put that judgment over on Me and they forget that it was because I so loved the world, I gave My only begotten Son, that whoever would believe in Him, that they would be born again, that they would be filled the knowledge of Who I am. And yet this voice, this cry in the wilderness, has been pushed aside. For men would rather declare judgment, for they believe that in the declaration of judgment, that they would justify themselves. And yet My Word says if you judge, you judge yourself also.

"So the door of opportunity is open. I am knocking on the doors of government. I'm knocking at the White House. I'm knocking in the Legislature. I'm knocking on the Courtroom door; and if they would open to Me, I will come in and I will sup with them. For the nation stands at a precipice as to whether or not they will receive Me, whether or not they will return to Me, whether or not they will lift up My values, or whether they will defend the righteousness of men who walk in their own understanding, who walk in their own condemnation. I am knocking at the door that they would know Who I am declares God. And it is up to My people to pray for the hearing of those in positions of authority that they would hear My voice, that they would hear what I am saying, that they could turn from their wicked ways and come unto Me that I could bring a healing, a generational healing into this land. For out of the United States of America, out of this land has flowed in the past a greater glory to the world. But I am preparing a greater glory that the earth has not yet seen. For this glory shall be like a tsunami, it shall be like a wave, and it shall sweep across borders, it'll sweep across cultures, it will sweep across oceans, that they would know Who I am. For I am showing Myself strong on behalf of those who come to Me. But for those who refuse to come, I'm giving a window, an opportunity. And it they do not come, they shall receive the shame of their unbelief. And the things that they mocked, will come back upon them, and they will be destroyed for their lack of belief, for they have rejected the One Who can heal and the One Who can deliver them.

"So don't be like them, but open your heart. Open your heart to My blessing, to My abundance. Open your heart to My ways says God. For what you would desire to see Me do in the lives of others, I desire to do it in your life, that you would know Who I am for yourself and not just what others have said; but, that you would have an intimacy with Me declares God, that you would know Me for Who I am, and you would walk in My pathways declares God."

"I am not confused says the Lord. The god of this world thinks that confusion opens a pathway for him, that it opens a door for him. He creates confusion, he creates chaos in order to cause a distraction to get the eyes of My people off of Me on to him and on to the situations that consume them, but in Me there is no chaos, there is no disorder. For I brought everything into line with who I am through My Son Jesus Christ. It is that chaos that manifests in sickness, in disease, that chaos that is breaking up marriages and households and governments. That chaos is not of Me, for I am bringing all things into order in My Kingdom declares the Lord. So the chaos that seems to consume you is only to distract you from who I am and what I have done. Keep your eyes on Me declares the Lord, look unto Me, for I am the source of your life. I am the source of your healing. I am the source of bringing you into the unity of My Spirit, the unity of My people that healing will break forth in that place where there is oneness of the spirit declares the Lord."

"My word has come into the earth. And there are those who through generations have received that word, have stood on that word, have given their all to that word. My word has been tested, has been tried, and has been proven to be true over and over again. Men have used intellectualism to come against My word, and it has failed. They have tried to use emotion to overcome My word, but My word did not collapse; for it has not only endured, but it has given the true emotions of My Spirit. And there are still those who would assault My word. And they make mockery of those who would trust it and believe it and receive it and walk in it. And yet their voices are continually falling to the ground as hollow as they were when they first began. My word is still being proved this day says God. And My word, because it is truth, will overcome every adversary and every assault against it. For that word has found residence in you. And as you stand on that word, you prove My word to be true. Even in all the things that you deal with and you struggle against, yet My word keeps you steady. And My word gives you that firm foundation that no man can remove and no man can steal from you. When you look to Me declares God, you're looking to that word, to Jesus. For My word is not a thing but it is the person of My Son. It is the essence of My character declares God. That's why that word can not be moved. And those who come against the word will come against a hard rock. And they will shatter upon that rock. So don't be worried. Don't walk in confusion and don't let care overtake you, for My word will prove itself again. For it is the only truth on which men can build and last and endure. For every other word, every word of man, every word of tradition, every word that comes against My word, shall be revealed and it shall collapse, and it shall be seen as being hollow and empty, for it can not answer the cry of man. For their cry is to know Me declares God. And My word is that revelation of who I Am. And as they cry about Me and they cry out for Me, oh, I will send them My word and it will quicken them, and it will come alive in them and it will make them in to new creatures, into new persons in Me says God. For when they respond to My word, oh My word takes root. And My word will grow and increase on the inside of them even as it has in you. And that word will continue to grow and prosper and will continue to yield fruit in its season, for that word has no death in it. It has no shadow of turning, for My word is true. So stand on that word. Don't listen to the things of this world, but listen to My word; because heaven and earth will pass away, but My word will not fail declares God. And as long as you stand on that word, you will not fail. For I've made it that way. For that word is your life, that word is your hope, that word is what you have to cause you to overcome all the adversary, all that he can throw at you. That word causes you to ride in victory over him and over every area of life. So stay close to My word. Give My word place. Mediate on it this day as you have never meditated on it before. For persecution has come and is going to increase for a season, and then it's going to pass away for a season. And those who have made mockery of My word are being shamed and being humbled even today. And it will become so prominent that they will shut up and be still, for they know that the more they talk, the more they blabber, their words fall pointlessly to the earth. Oh, but My word, I've lifted My word even above Myself, even above My Name declares God. For I've said that in My word. That word is all powerful. That word is Jesus Christ, Who has been given all authority in heaven and on earth. And until His enemies become His footstools, He will sit in heaven. But you are making the enemies the footstools now, and they are under your feet declares God. So rejoice in this, that you have the victory; not that it's just coming, but you have the victory; because every day My people are putting the words of this world to flight, and they're putting the words of those who claim to know so much, they are proving them to be so empty, but My word endures forever declares the Lord."

April 29, 2018 through Pastor Gordon Brubaker

"For I am the Lord over all the earth. I am He who has created it. I am the One Who sustains it, and it will not end until I close the door. There is one who has set himself up and calls himself the god of the earth. Oh, he's not much of a god at all; for he cannot control anything except that I have given him authority to do it. For he only operates as I allow him to operate, and as people allow him to operate. But in these days declares the Lord, I am pouring out a fresh glory upon the earth; and this is the glory that will quench the fiery darts and it will shut the mouths of lions. For he has roamed the whole earth seeking whom to destroy, and he yells at this one and growls at that one, and because they don't know Who I am, they have cowered in his face; and they have backed away and they have given him precedence because they do not know Who I am. But I am revealing Myself in these days saith God, that the weak shall call themselves strong and those that were once intimidated have said, 'Enough is enough.' For those who know their God will do exploits, and I will show Myself strong on those who have been oppressed, for those who have been pushed under, for those who seemed like they are all but gone, and you will see them and are seeing them raise to the surface now, and they are taking control because of My will, because of My Spirit declares God. It's not through the strength of men. It's not by a technique that many of them would suppose, but it's because they know Who I am. And because they know Who I am, oh their righteousness makes them bold as a lion; and they walk in a confidence that the god of this world looks at and is amazed and utterly confused because he thought they had it all in control. But suddenly, ha ha ha, suddenly My children who know Who I am are rising up and they are saying we will allow and we will not allow what is to come. And they are standing in their place, as I prophesied, and they are putting the devil to flight. And those who have relied upon him are beginning to tumble and beginning to fall, not just out of favor with men, but out of favor with those in the world; and the world is looking at them and saying 'They have no power.' All that they have is a spirit of fear. But God has given us the spirit of faith. A spirit of life. Oh, and you shall not be overcome in these days declares the Lord. For it is My work, it is My doing saith God. And I am bringing those things to pass, and I am beginning to usher in an age in this world that has not been seen for many a year. For it is a new revival. It is a new opening. It is a new window of heaven being poured out in the earth, and My glory is covering the earth. And those who know Me are seeing Me. And those who have said that they know Me but do not, they're just as confused as the world. For they thought it was by their wisdom. They thought it was by their eloquence. They thought it was by their own abilities and the power of their will and personality that exalted them. But I am the one who lifts up and I am the one who pulls down saith the Lord. And those who stand against Me will find themselves on the wrong side of history. And those who defy Me will see themselves in the judgement that is about to befall them. And they will be powerless to stop it, for when it comes it will sweep like a broom. Like a fresh wind that blows the loose leaves about, and those leaves will go and they will go wherever I blow them says the Lord. But as for My people, I'm establishing My righteousness in the earth. And I am establishing My people, those who are not afraid to be called by My name, I am establishing them again in Me; and the waves will come, the winds will blow, and yet that house will not be shaken for it is built on the foundation of My Son Jesus Christ.

"So take courage. Take courage in these days. Do not look to the winds, that are contrary to My word. For they will blow you this way and that way, but look unto My word and unto My Spirit declares God, and you will know the right and the wrong. You will see with clarity what others can only see in darkness, but you will see these things. So therefore take confidence, take boldness, and be assured that I am the God, the Lord over all the earth. For it all belongs to Me declares Christ."

"The courts of men have arrayed themselves, and yet it is a lesser court than My court declares God. For the courts of men judge the sin of man. And they judge this weakness and that weakness and they pass their own sentences, but I am beginning to array My court says the Lord, the higher court, and I judge righteousness saith God. I judge the hearts of men even over their deeds, over the natural things. And while men array their courts and set themselves up as the ones that have the power, ones that have the ability, that they think that their word is the final word once the gavel strikes, but in My court says the Lord, it overrules the courts of men. For I judge with a righteousness that is based on My righteousness and the righteousness of My Son. And those who have entered into My Kingdom, even though they were once sinners and even though they were once ........ they were the low part of the earth, yet I have raised them up by My righteousness, by My grace, to where the courts of this world do not have the authority to pass sentence of either condemnation or justification. For if you are not justified in My Son then you are still dead in your sins. But My court recognizes the righteousness of God poured out in the earth. It looks at those who have been made clean of their sin, not by their own efforts, not by their own morals, but by My grace says God. For no one can approach Me without holiness. And no one can approach Me without righteousness, without My righteousness. For My righteousness cleanses the sin and purges the iniquity out of the hearts of men. So seek My righteousness and let not men have sway over you, but let My will have the dominion. For I even said in My word that sin shall no longer have dominion over you. For My grace has intervened and My love has covered a multitude of sins. So come to My grace. Come to My court says the Lord, and I will judge you righteously says the Lord."

"For I have called you to come out of the world and come into My Spirit declares God. I have called you to leave behind those things that have trapped My people for so long, that which is natural, that which is carnal, for you are more than these things. You say, 'Well you have to die to get.....' You've already died. You've already died to the ways of the world, you've already died to conditions of this world. You have been raised from the dead by the glory that raised My Son from the dead, that you might have new life in Him, but as long as you look and say, 'Oh the old life is still greater than the new.', the old life will still dominate. Begin to look that you are born again, you are filled with My Spirit says God, that you have been changed from death into life. My Son when He walked in the earth did not say, 'Oh, this body limits Me so much!' No, He walked by faith. He did not walk by sight. He did not walk by according to what He had seen in the natural, but He walked by what He saw in the supernatural. And that supernatural overcame the natural things. He walked on water. He could throw Himself off of a mountaintop. He could do all these things, but He chose to follow after Me rather than seek out those things that would exalt Him among men; but He sought to please Me saith the Father. So seek to please Me. And seek those things that are above and you will receive them. Seek those things that are of Me and you will walk in those things, for I desire to pour Myself out through My people, through My body, that Jesus will be realized in the earth; and you are that body. You belong to that body in the whole earth that I am bringing together and uniting in this day, in this hour, for this special purpose declares God. So do not think light of it, but understand that you are no longer of this world; for you have died to the world. And you are right now passing into the realm of the Spirit to where the Spirit will dominate more and more and more and more. Yield to Me.

Yield to that Spirit. Yield to Me in you says the Father, and it will increase even more and more and more."

"There is a new period coming forward. It's being ushered in this Monday (May 14, 2018 / USA Embassy opening in Jerusalem). As I recognize Israel declares God, as I recognize their redemption, their solidification as a people again, I am releasing new things into the earth, because it's the coming of My Son that's at hand. And you're going to start seeing prophecies fulfilled that they've talked about for years and years and years. And yet even as they see these new ones or these current prophecies being fulfilled, there's going to be new things that you see in the scriptures and in the Word that you're going to go 'Wow!', because they've been hidden. Men have seen these things. Daniel has seen these things, and yet I told him 'Close the book, don't write it down!', because these things are for the end times. Well, you're coming into the end times, the end of the end times. For you're going to see My people Israel raised up, and you're going to see them being able to lift up God and exalt God, because every false god that comes against them I will tear down declares the Lord. Even as Samson in the temple of Dagon, and as he was there, that image of the world fell. And they kept erecting it and it fell. And they erected it and it fell; and the final time that it fell, the arms and the head came off of it. So you'll see the gods of this world being revealed and being thrown down. And men shall try to resurrect these gods, because this is what they have their faith in is the work of men and not the true God. And they will raise this false god up again of materialism, and it shall collapse again. But the final time that it collapses you will know, because the arms and the head will be severed. In other words, the power of its hands to do work will cease to exist, and the head that controls it, that manipulates it, that sets it in a certain direction, that head will even topple. And men will be astonished. But I have these things planned says the Lord. And it is the day of them coming to pass; and tomorrow when Israel celebrates its 70th year, these things are going to become manifest. And it will appear as though time is sped up, because these things must take place in a short period of time. So keep your eyes on Me says the Lord. Don't look to the left or the right. Don't look at the thousands that may fall on this side or the thousands on that side, but keep your eyes on Me. For I will see you through these times says the Lord, for I am revealing My glory and My splendor to the world that no man can deny Who I Am declares God. So rejoice, take pleasure, but keep your eyes open and watch for the soon coming King! For He will manifest Himself in the earth as it was said by the prophets of old, and He will bring in and usher in wave upon wave upon wave of His glory declares God."

"I have set a standard in this world declares God. It is My Son, Christ upon the cross. For that sign has been lifted up that all the world may see Him and glorify Him. It is the sign of salvation. It is the wisdom of God revealed in the earth declares the Lord. For I have set all things upon My Son and I have given Him all things and I have withheld nothing from Him that He might be the standard of all standards to be lifted up in the earth. And that standard is drawing men to Himself, is drawing those who are of honest heart, is drawing those who are of clean hands for they shall enter into My presence declares God. They shall enter in to My tabernacle. For I have set that standard and men seek that standard, and yet there are those who will clash and crash and fall at that standard. For as they run to it to cling it, to cling to that, hoping that men will see their arrival, they will hit and burn for they have not really received Me as their standard, but they're seeking to use Me for their own purposes and their own devices says God. That standard will be the cause of the rise of many in the land, and it will also be the cause of many downfall in the land. This is what I prophesied to Mary, that her son would do in the earth. And He is still doing it says God. So this is the time for My body to come together and to come to My standard declares the Christ. To come to that which I have established in the earth; and let the standards of men, let the things that they exalt be put down, and allow them to be diminished in your eyes so that you will seek out that true standard that endures forever. For those who come to My cross says God, will be saved, they will be delivered says God. They will be the ones that I will look upon that I will pour out My glory upon, for they shall be called the sons and daughters of the Almighty God. But for those who come without acknowledging Me, it will be their downfall. For it will reveal and it does reveal the hearts of many in the earth. For My Spirit is come to raise up the standard of righteousness. My Spirit is come to set up those standards in the earth says God, that can not be of men, for they are above men. They are of My Spirit. Thus, only can My Spirit establish these things in the earth or in you. For you must come to Me and give yourself to Me. This is the downfall of many, because they can not yield themselves to a source that is greater than they. For they have acknowledged that they are the source of wisdom and they are the source of righteousness in the earth but it's not so. That's My Son. He is that ultimate sign, that ultimate standard in the earth. And that sign is foolishness to the world. But it is My wisdom and reveals My wisdom to all who would believe on Me says God."

"Those powers, those principalities, those authorities that thought they had charge over all things were sorely confused at the day of the crucifixion, for they thought they had won the ultimate victory. But when I raised My Son from the dead, oh they were shaken to the very foundation. They were shaken to realize who they were, how small, how little they were, when they claimed to be so strong. For with one word I raised My Son from the dead. With one word He came out of the grave. With one word He ascended into heaven. With one word He sent the Holy Spirit. And now I have a world full of sons and daughters. And the same glory that raised My Son from the dead, lives in every believer. And that glory is being raised up again declares God. Those things that once many thought were dead are being revived. And the things that the enemy thought he had overthrown and had trampled under foot, those things are rising back up. And as they arise they are once again destroying the world that the enemy thought he had created. But he cannot create, he can only destroy. And where there is life, there is life; and life is stronger than the grave and life is stronger than the destruction of the enemy. And when My life begins to appear, the enemy shudders again, and he fears again, because he saw this come before. And he knows what his end is, but he's going to go screaming and fighting 'til the very end. But My people who are chosen by Me says God, I am raising them up at this time and this hour, and they are once again walking to and fro in the earth. And as they walk, the ground that they walk upon, I am yielding to them and I am giving them authority and power over those things. I am setting people in high places, and I am pulling down others who thought they had the high places, but it was only about them, it was not about Me. And I am pulling them down says the Lord. By the end of this week, you will see leaders fall. You will see changes in the earth that only a few days ago they were heralding as being immutable, as they were heralding that these people had survived the storm, but yet they are going to fall this week says God. And you will see their collapse, and the world will wonder what is going on. For once again their plans have gone awry, and once again My people are rising up with a voice that they will honor Me above all the things of this earth, above all the gods of this world. For I am rising to ascendancy again declares God. And I am coming with a wave of My glory that will sweep not from just the east to the west in the United States, but will sweep literally around the world.

"For I will not be silent anymore in these days declares God. But I am speaking what is on My mind, and what is on My mind is the Spirit of Liberty poured out in the earth. What is on My mind declares God, is healing the bruised, the broken hearted, is releasing the prisoner from the jail, for causing the blind to see and the deaf to hear. For this is what I have spoken declares God, and I will see it come to pass, and it will come to pass quickly says the Lord. And all the earth will begin to rejoice when the righteous rule and when the righteous reign. And those who have spoken out against them will be revealed for how small they are, for how petty they have become. For they thought they've hollered great things, and they think that they have spoken great, great wisdom. Their wisdom is being revealed for as shallow as it is. For by My cross I have brought redemption into the world. By My cross I have brought life into the world, and I am bringing dead things to life again declares God. So walk in My glory, walk in My life, walk in the boldness of My Spirit says God, for this is the day of the outpouring. This is the day, this is the hour when these things are going to become manifest in the earth again, and they will begin to hear what you say even though they've not listened before, even though they've written you off as being wacko. They will give you heed this time because of the transformation coming upon the earth declares God. So don't keep silent, but let My wisdom flow though you, that My words would become your words, and it would halt the enemy in his tracks."
