

2018 July - December God Still Speaks...

Since the beginning of 2013, God has blessed Living Faith with His precious presence. Living Faith gathered and printed a booklet of the prophetic words He was speaking to us and this booklet ignited the hearts and imaginations of our people that they have demanded us to continue to compile the "Words of the LORD" or the "Words of YHWH" for them in a second, third, fourth, etc. booklet.

These prophetic words from YHWH are a wonderful reminder of God's love and faithfulness throughout our journey in life, and the hope of Jesus' soon return and reign.

What a wonderful God we serve!

"For the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy."
Revelation 19:10

Some people reject prophecy out of hand, even before they read or examine it. Scripture tells us "Do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits, whether they are of God; because many false prophets have gone out into the world." (1 John 4:1)

But think on this. "All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness, that the man of God may be complete, thoroughly equipped for every good work." (2 Timothy 3:16-17)

Think on this – All Scripture is prophecy! The books of Moses, Ruth, Psalms, the prophetic books, and Daniel, and all in between. Peter even says the letters of Paul are "scripture."

Living Faith does NOT suppose that the "Words of the LORD" are equal to the Scripture in the Bible. But test them! For reproof, correction instruction, that we may be complete for every good work.

“Let My peace surround you. Let My presence fill your life. For if you look to the left and the right you will see turmoil and confusion. For the world is falling into these categories. But I am the peace, the Prince of Peace, over this world. Those who seek Me shall find Me. Those who hunger after Me shall be satisfied, for I will establish you. When all the earth is falling, when all the world is going its own different directions, yet I will be your stabilizer; and I will be the One who plants you firmly. But you must decide to be planted in My word. You must make the choice to follow after Me and shut your eyes and ears to the cries of the world, for they are the cries of confusion. And they are the cries of the evil that is filling the earth. But yet My grace is still available and My glory is still present. And those who come to Me will be as the light in Goshen while Egypt was flung into darkness. And I will show you the way to go, and I will show you where to go, and I will tell you what to say and when to be silent. For in this period of darkness there is that running to and fro, and men and women are searching for that reality, they’re searching for that truth which they can only find in Me says the Lord. So when you fill yourself with My peace, with My presence, oh they will come to you. Sooner or later they will come to you and they will ask, “How can you be stable in a world that is in such chaos?” And you’ll give testimony to Me says the Lord. And many will come into My kingdom in this age, many will come unto Me says God, for I am opening up the door once again. And those who seek will find and those who hunger and thirst shall be satisfied.”

“The earth shall be filled with My glory declares God. For My word is going out and as a covering, it is coating the earth. It is coating the people of the world; and those are many who are coming into My kingdom. And there are those many who are also rejecting My kingdom. But My kingdom will be done in the earth even as it is done in Heaven declares God. For I will see these things come to pass in My own timing, in My own way. There are those who live in darkness that a great light is shining upon them and the glory of the Lord is about to arise in many dark areas of the earth. Those who have counseled Me, those who have said ‘Never here!’, oh I will go there declares God. For I long to go into the dark recesses and the dark corners of the world, that they may see the glory of My Son Jesus Christ. That I may be lifted up and worshiped in all of the world. And not one corner will be missed and not one corner will be let go declares God. For I will go to the ends of the earth.”

(From Pastor Gordon - You know the Lord has spoken to us in the past that there are those who will cling to the darkness, that they would rather sink with the ship than get into the life boat. And we’re seeing these things come to pass today. Well, I can’t get it out in words, but what I’m sensing in My spirit is God is doing a great work in the earth, and there are those that will cling to that darkness, will cling to those things that they have held on for all their lives for fear that they could be wrong.)

“And they are wrong. They are wrong. For they’ve looked to the darkness to where they can not see the light, and the light is dawning upon them. And like in the book of Revelation, they are crying to the rocks and the stones to cover themselves, because if they would see the light, then they would have to repent. And they would have to admit that they are wrong and they refuse to bend their knee. They refuse to listen to any other God but themselves. And so they’ve set themselves up as God declares the Lord. They’ve set themselves up by their own wisdom, by their own understanding, and I am tearing those towers down says God. And I am removing them from the face of the earth. Many will be the cries. Many will be the outcry that this is not right. But it’s Me says God. For the wisdom of men is collapsing to where their wisdom no longer will work and no longer will operate the way that they thought it would. But My word will be seen as the truth. For My word is the only thing that men can build on that will endure and will last. Any other thing is sinking sand. Any other thing is rock that is crumbling beneath the feet. But My word will endure forever declares God. And those who strive to build on My word, they shall be like My word and shall last through all persecution, and shall be glorified in the end declares God. For My word will always be exalted above the things of this world.”

“Praises are going up all over the earth declares the Lord, praises for the things that I have done. For I have rescued men and women, I have saved them out of eminent death. I have healed them and delivered them from the curses that are coming upon this world. I have redeemed them to call them My own, declares God. And all over the earth, where people recognize My mercy and My goodness, oh, there is worship, there is praise ascending to the heavens. And I am inhabiting that praise, and I am filling that praise declares the Lord. And I am inhabiting it with My very nature. And where that praise goes up, oh My glory comes down declares the Lord. And when you praise, My glory will come upon you in greater measure, in greater measure. And yet so many are afraid to enter in to that worship. But that worship identifies you. That worship separates you from the things of the earth, from the things of the world. And that praise seats you in heavenly places with My Son. For praise exalts a person, and praise magnifies and enlarges Who I am within that person. So lift up your voice. Worship Me and praise Me and give Me honor that is due, because I have redeemed you from every curse, I have healed you of every disease. I have exalted you above all the things that go on in the earth, and I have seated you in heavenly places with My Son declares the Lord! Oh, so magnify Me, not because I demand it, not because I deserve it, but because I have saved you, and I have redeemed you, and I have brought you out of many, many waters.

“Don’t think that you’ve attained it, don’t think you have it all, for there (are) many things that I have yet to do in the earth. Many signs and many wonders are still yet to come. And people will see them, and they will see them come with great strength, and with great rapidity, to where the people of the natural mind set will wonder and question what is going on. For it leaves them dumbfounded now, but they shall be even more dumb later, for they shall not be able to speak or able to say anything about what they see, for it will literally shut the mouths of the lions. And those that are railing against you now declares God, silence will come upon them. For they will open their mouths and nothing will come out. They will go to slander Myself, they will go to slander My children declares God, and yet nothing will come out. For I will shut their mouths. For though they try to rail and they try to make accusations, all of their vain threats will fall to the ground. For in this day, I am pouring out My glory says God. It’s the glory that the three Hebrew children saw in the fiery furnace. It is that glory that protected them from even the smell of smoke. It is that glory that came down upon them that the fires burned all around them, and yet they were not consumed. And in that fire, there was a Fourth Man. And in that fire they saw Me, declares Jesus, and they saw me walking with My children, and walking with those who are bold to declare Who they belong to. I was with Daniel, and My glory came down, and all night long, he petted the lions. The very things the kings thought would destroy him and devour him, he petted because My glory was upon him. And yet when the accusers were thrown into the very same pit, they were devoured and they were consumed from the very weapons they had formed against My children.

“Know this declares God, no weapon formed against you shall prosper, and every tongue that rises in judgment, you shall condemn, for this is the heritage of My servants, of My children, declares the Almighty God!”

“I’ve desired for My people to come into My presence, and yet they come in with their hands closed and their fist tightened because they’re afraid of Me. But, if you would come into My presence says God, oh, there is such a liberty, there is such a freedom in My presence says God, and when you learn that, when you discover that, you will open your hands and throw out your arms to Me and worship Me, because you have been set free. You’ve been set free of the limitations of this world. You’ve been set free of the attacks of the enemy, because you are free on the inside to worship Me. You are free to express love, sincerely and deeply, and let that love flow out from you. Oh, come to Me My children says God. Come to Me with open hands, come to Me with uplifted arms. Come to Me with your spirit opened and your soul willing to be changed and transformed. Come to Me and give away all the things in this world that you’re holding onto, and let those things go and receive My Spirit that I can flow in you, and I can lift you up in that flow to a higher dimension, to a higher way of living in this life. For it will change you and it will transform you, and it will cause you to see things differently and to walk at a different level, because you’re not limited by the things that you see or hear. Oh, but you have entered into the realm of the spirit and the realm of the supernatural says God.”

“There are those who would say they have nothing to praise God for, because their world is falling apart. But that world that is falling apart is not My world says God. But it is the world of the world. It is the world of natural things which must cease to exist, which must be put under My authority declares God. For I have brought you out of this world to bring you into My kingdom declares God, that you would walk upright before Me. Not in the fear of man, not in the fear of the world system, but that you would walk above those things and walk in My system, that you would walk in that which I decree saith the Lord. That you would know that the Greater One lives in you. And that Greater One is above everything of this world. For I have seated My Son in the heavenly places till all authority in heaven and earth is brought under His feet. And you are the ones who are to bring this world under the authority of My Son, Jesus. For I have given you My kingdom authority. Those who walk in My kingdom are establishing a new world. You’re stamping, you’re stamping the heart of God in the earth. Men would trample that image under foot, but you are stamping that image to be indelible upon the face of this planet. And because of that, many things come against you and you look at that and say, ‘Oh, it’s coming apart!’ No, it’s coming together saith God. For I am raising up My people in this day and this time, and I have given them kingdom authority that they would put every devil under their feet. All principalities, all powers are to be under your feet. So I am establishing through you, My kingdom declares God, that will not yield to another. And many voices are crying out and they’re going hither and thither, they’re scattering, they’re going up and down, they’re crying, they’re wailing. Why? Because their world is coming apart. And that world is not My kingdom says God, and yes that world will fall; but My kingdom will rise and be established in its place declares God, through My people, through those who are obedient to Me. Through those who have sought My kingdom first place in their lives. I will use you to establish My rule and My reign in the earth.

“So do not fear. Do not look to the east and the west that your help is going to come from there, for your help will come from Me saith the Lord. And I am more than able to put you over. I am more than able to see you through. And I am more than able to cause your enemies to scatter and to flee before you, because they see Me in you. So walk with Me and come closer to Me in these days, for many things will depend upon that relationship. And as our relationship grows, so shall your kingdom authority increase and increase, and so it shall be seen in the earth as that power which is increasing over all the other powers, because they are falling to the side declares the Lord.”

“(I have) come to deliver you.
That if you would believe in Me
I will give you eternal liberty
And you would walk with Me
That you would be seated in Me
In the heavenly places
Oh, that you, oh that you would walk
In My authority
That you would put the devil under your feet today
Don’t give him place, don’t give him your thoughts
But put him under your feet
And you will make him My footstool
For I, I have come to give you liberty
That you would tread upon
Every serpent that comes to steal
I have come that you would have
My life among you
So bow, bow down to Me says Jesus
For I am the King of Kings
And your authority comes not from men
But from My father who reigns in heaven
That authority is beyond the earth
And has all authority over all that has been created
Like Moses pick up your staff
That I have given you
And that staff will part the seas
When you use it properly
The seas will part, the storms will flee you
And you will stand on the solid rock”

“This is not the time to be silent, when the voices of confusion and dismay surround you and raise their voices. This is the time for you to declare the works of the Lord. It is a time for My body to rise up. It is not the time to be quiet. It is not the time to acquiesce, it is not the time to draw back. It is the time to push forward against the powers of darkness, that they are being revealed and they are being pulled down and they are being shown for what they are – is they are sounds, clouds without rain. They have no power in them except the power of confusion. But you have the Spirit of the Living God on the inside of you, and the voice that you speak, it will rise up and it will cause the enemy to scatter and will diffuse him and all that he has for he can not win, he shall not overcome, for I have already defeated him. But it’s time for My people to declare My victory in the earth again. To shout out, to shout out with the voice of triumph. To shout out the things of My Spirit declares God. For I am rising in the land and I have come to set people free. Not to put them into bondage. Not to put them back into the old ways but to proclaim a liberty that will set all people free. Not just a class, not just a group, not just a crowd that gathers together, but I am gathering My people and My assembly is taking authority in the earth again declares God. And I will see this to the end, for I will be with you and I will not leave you. So take heart, take heart and rise up and speak with confidence, because I am the one who is leading you into the victory and into the truth declares God. Amen and Amen.”

“Now some are saying ‘Oh, the nation has turned!’ Oh, I turned it in January says the Lord. I turned it around early this year, for I announced that this nation was turning around. And I spoke to My people and there were those that ‘Oh, I hope it’s true, I hope it’s true.’ Well, stop your doubt and start believing what I’ve spoken to you says God. Start believing these things that you say that you trust in, start believing them and acting on them, and you will see them come together even quicker than you imagined, because I’m waiting on My people. I’m waiting on those who are called by My name that they would come together as one, that they would humble themselves and pray, repent from their sins, and I will give them a new nation to live in. I will bring My promises to pass for My people, declares God, who are willing to come together, not under a political banner but under the banner of the Lord Jesus Christ.”

“Who told you, you were naked? Who told you, you are beyond redemption? Who told you that you can’t do what I’ve said you can do says the Lord? Who is it that planted that thought in your head that comes against who I am in your life? For too long (you’ve) yielded to the enemy. For too long (you’ve) let his thoughts consume (you) instead of letting My thoughts consume you. For when My thoughts consume you, oh....., you’ll be as My Son said, ‘...but you are gods.’ You are created in My image declares the Lord. You have been given My dominion over the earth and over every creeping thing. You have been given authority even over the angels in heaven, and yet you listened to the voice of a fallen angel who has been cast out of heaven; and, you let his voice speak to you with more authority than My voice says God. It should not be this way. For My people who are called by My name know My voice. And those who are called by My name will do great wonders and works in the earth. Those who are called by My name go with My authority declares God. For I’ve given it to you as I gave My Son all authority in heaven and on earth and He has given that authority to you - to every believer. So, lift up your head, for you have escaped the snare of the fowler. You have gone beyond what he can do, because while he sets a trap on the ground, you fly above those traps. For you live and move and have your being in a different realm. For you move and live and have your being in Me declares God. And as you live and move and have your being in Me says the Christ, I will lift you up above all the things of this world. And you will know who I am in you says God. And you will walk at a higher level. You will do greater things because you have listened to the voice of your heavenly Father and you do his works in the earth. Even as the children of the devil do the works of their father, so My children do My works declares God. And you are My children. And I’ve given you My works to do. To do. Not to repeat, not to just quote, but to be doers of My word, that you would manifest My glory in the earth, in your sphere of influence, in your arena, and as you release My glory, oh, that glory will become richer, and richer and richer, and the flow will become greater and greater and greater to where the kingdoms of this world will literally collapse before My children says God. And they will pass away, even as this world will pass away, but My word and those who abide in My word shall abide forever declares the Lord.”

“Have I not told you that I have given you your nation back? Have I not said that this is the year of the turnaround? I’ve said it through many, many voices, but you need to believe it. For instead of looking at a date when everything will be made right, I have given you the land, the territory, and as Israel entered into the promised land, they didn’t get it all at one time. But that area where they would walk upon, that area that they would be bold to enter in, that area that they would be bold to claim, I gave that to them as they went. Don’t think that this is a short race, for this is a time of the outpouring of My glory. And it will come suddenly upon the world, but it’s not suddenly upon you. For you know it’s a work, and you know that it is a purpose in My heart that you would receive all the land. You’ve prayed tonight over government, over education, over business, over banking, over media, you’ve interceded for all of these areas, and yet you must be bold to go into those areas and take control of them. I have got people hidden that are entering into these areas, that they are being raised up even now declares God. And yet, it may take some time before they get into the positions of where they can actually influence things to the way that I would desire it. But they are there, and they are doing the work. For I have given this country back to you. But get your mind off of a date. Get your mind off of an event, and begin to look to Me, for the land belongs to My people declares God. And I will not let another rule it or steal it or take it away. For My glory is being poured out, has been poured out, and is still being poured out declares God. And it will continue to shake this nation. It will continue to shake this nation and the nations around the world as they see what I am doing. For there are those who said the United States could never recover, it could never come back to its former glory, it would never have the status in the world, and yet in two years look what I have done. For the allies are excited to see the United States re-emergence, and the enemies are shaking in fear because they don't know what is about to happen. But they know America is back. It's back because My people have turned declares God. It's back because My people have come together as one and are still coming together, but they've come together as one, and I am able to do what I want to have done, because My people have turned from their wicked ways and have humbled themselves before Me. They have prayed and I am healing the land declares God."

"Do not think that My glory has lifted. Get your eyes off times and off of dates and off of events. For I am moving far beyond these things declares God. For remember I see the end from the beginning. And the things that I declare will come to pass declares God. But you've got to begin to seek and to look into the supernatural, which is above and beyond the natural things that occupy your natural sight, and see that I am working great things in this nation. For I am bringing things to pass that I've declared of old declares God. And I am reviving those things and I am revisiting those areas in the lives of this nation, of its leadership, of its focus. And I am digging up and re-opening the old wells again, that fresh water will flow out of those old wells. And places where the enemy has come and has covered them up, I am un-digging them, and they don't like it. For every old well that I dig up, I am reclaiming that area for me declares God. Jacob went and opened the wells or they opened the wells of Jacob that he had dug. And as they opened those wells, it was a proclamation that God's word is still true. It's a proclamation that what He once owned He still possesses. Even though it may be covered, God still possesses those areas. And the enemy knows this. And that's why even while He says that he has victory, he is still running in fear because he knows the outcome, too. And he knows he can not hold those places that he has invaded, because they do not and never did belong to him. I am repossessing those areas in this land declares God. I'm repossessing those lands in Israel. For I have moved My capitol, although I've established it from eons ago. I've established my capitol anew. Oh, and World War III was going to break out over it, and you see not even the enemy raised up their voice, because they know that this is true. They know this is the reality. So rest assured, I am moving in these complicated times; but remember, they're not complicated to Me says God. For I am still bringing all things to the surface, and it may get ugly and it may get nasty, but don't lose your hope in My word. For when I speak My word, it establishes a thing in the earth. By your faith move yourselves in alignment with My word, that it would have more force and more validity in you, so you could move by faith and bring those things to pass in the earth declares God. For I've already declared it, and I've already sealed it says God. This nation shall not pass away. And this nation of the United States is moving into times where it will occupy more than what anybody ever thought was possible. And your influence will not diminish, but will increase and increase and increase for the good across the earth declares God. So hold fast. Hold fast in these days, and don't let go of your hope which the enemy comes to steal from you. Don't get rid of the hope that I've planted in your heart, for those things that I planted in you may not be for your time, but it is the reality of My Spirit declares God. That's why I said to Abraham, pass them on to your children and your children's children. Pass them on that they may have a heritage that is established in the past, but they can see it arriving in the future, that they would walk upright before Me in all of these areas declares God. What I've declared to Abraham I'm declaring to you. Do not let these things pass away, but keep them and teach them and sow them into your children and your children's children, that they may see these events and they may know this is what was prophesied, this is what was spoken years ago, and we're seeing it come to pass in our times. Oh, let them have that faith and let them see those things that My word is true, and My word will not pass away declares God. Amen."

“For I am the Lord says God and there is none to compare with Me. There are many voices that rise up and they say, ‘Oh, here is the Messiah, here’s the deliverer, here’s the one, this one has the answer, this one has the way, this one has the wisdom.’ They don’t. For all wisdom is found in Me declares the Father. For man knows very little except what I reveal to him. And the things that I have revealed, they will take and run with them and go in this direction and go in that direction, for they seek to understand these things by their own wisdom, by their own understanding, instead of by My Spirit. For My Spirit does not bring division declares God. My Spirit is a unifier. My Spirit is come that all men would come together as one in Me declares the Father. But there are those running (who) say ‘No, you follow me and I will produce unity’, but all they do is create division, because all they can do is condemn everyone who doesn’t agree with them. That is not My unity says God. For I do not judge you and I do not condemn you because you haven’t yet caught up. But I will love you and bring you in. Those who hunger and those who thirst shall be satisfied. But if you thirst for the things of this world, if you thirst for natural things you will always be hungry, you will always be thirsty because you will never be satisfied. But if you come to me says God, oh, I have a well that will never run dry. I have manna that will feed you on a regular basis. So come to Me. Cast off the understanding of the world. Cast off the news media. Cast off those who are seeking to prophesy but with a wrong spirit, and cast them aside and come to Me declares the Father. For I will comfort you and I will draw you into My unity, and then you will begin to see things in your life and see the things around you in clarity, for I will give you light in the darkness and I will give knowledge and wisdom and understanding in the times of confusion. So come to Me and seek after Me for I am the Way declares Jesus.

“For there is a wisdom of the world and there is a wisdom of My Spirit. And the wisdom of this world is passing away. And you see it before you, for those who have declared and cried one thing, oh, tomorrow they’ll cry and declare another thing, and the day after that they will cry and they will declare still another thing, and yet in the mist of it My word is a clarion call and it is a clear call, and it does not change, for I am the same yesterday, today and forever. My wisdom is not up and down. My wisdom doesn’t change with the times. My word that is uttered forth from My mouth declares God, through the prophets, has not yet failed. And it stands the test of your time. It stands the test of being hundreds and thousands of years old, and yet it is still just as true today as it was when it was first spoken. And it is causing things to come to pass in the earth that disturb all the earthly wisdom and understanding. For try as they may, they cannot grasp it, for it is spiritual, and it is understood and revealed by My Spirit says God. So those who do not walk with me will never grasp it, they will never understand it. For only My Spirit gives them the understanding and gives them the revelation. So seek after Me, hunger after Me and thirst after Me, that you would be filled, that you would come out of the darkness and into My marvelous light declares God. For I will show you the way, and I will show you how it’s to be done. But stand with Me. Stand with Me. Stand with Me.”

“It is I who set the seasons. For I have put the stars in their places and I have set the moon to encircle the earth to reveal times. Men today think they control events. They do not, for I control the events declares the Lord. For I have set times and seasons into motion and into process, and things will happen at My choosing declares God, not by the choosing of men. For men are trying to establish history, and they’re trying to say ‘We’re going to make it go this way’, and ‘We’re going to make it go that way.’ Oh, but they don’t know the times or the seasons, but I do declares God. And I have set things into motion through My Son Jesus Christ; thousands of years ago I set the things into motion. And they are still yet coming to pass, for in My word it says over the birth of My Son that many shall cry, and yet many shall rejoice. And we are in the season now says the Lord, where many are rejoicing and others are sorrowing, and they are crying because they see the things that they thought they had, and they watch them falling apart. But My people rejoice for they see My day. And they see My appearing close at hand, and they see the things that I have set in motion through My Son Jesus on the cross being fulfilled even today, in spite of the will of men to stop it. Herod thought he could stop it. Oh, he did not know what he was up against, but the wise men, when they visited My Son, they rejoiced for they knew this was the Messiah. But Herod cried, because he knew this was the Messiah. So you have the two emotions. You have the two kingdoms crashing with one another, and yet My kingdom will dominate says the Lord. For men do not control the future, but the future is in My hands says God. So this is the time to trust Me and to stop trusting men, and to stop trusting those who would declare things that are not of My Spirit says God. For they shall come to naught. And all the false prophets will be revealed, and they shall look at them and they shall mock them and deride them. For they thought they claimed such high things, and yet when their plans and all their schemes fail, the world will look at them and say, ‘Who did you think you were that you could control the times and the seasons, when only God has those things in His hand?’ So as My people, rejoice! For you see the hour coming and you see the time approaching when all things, says the Father, will be returned unto Me.”

through Pastor Gordon Brubaker

“For I am the provider saith the Lord. I am the God who sees into your future, and into your future I prophesy wealth, and strength, and abundance. I prophesy into your lives more than what you can think or ask or imagine. For I am the God not only of the present, but of that future. For I hold the future in My hands declares God; and, if you would humble, humble yourselves to Me, you would seek after Me with your whole heart, Oh, the blessings that would enter into your life. You would look back one day and try to imagine what has transpired. But it’s Me! It’s Me that’s transpired in you says the Lord. It’s Me that has come alive in you. For even though men go through government shutdowns, I will never shut down declares the Lord. For I am forever and eternal, and My supply will never ever, ever, ever run out. For I am the God of more than enough. I am the God of more than is able. I am the God who has put you over from one life into the next life that knows no limits and knows no boundaries. Oh, I am the God of your future says the Lord, and I call you to walk into My presence, to walk, to dare, to dare to walk out of the flesh. To dare to let go of the things of this world and cling to My Spirit, that you have all the fulness of heaven, all the fulness of My glory in your life in this world declares God. For I have set the waters in the earth, and I’ve commanded men to dig wells to tap into that water. I’m not talking about the natural water, I’m talking about the waters of the flowing of My Spirit declares the Lord. For I have created the heavens and the earth, and I’ve filled the earth with My glory. And that glory still is here, that glory still lingers in the earth, for it belongs to Me says the Lord. All that you see is the shell that the devil has put over, the cloak of denial, of who I am says God. Oh, but I am being revealed in these days, and even in this hour says God. For those who look to Me will never see shortage and will never know shortage, for I am all they need. For I have filled their wells with abundance, and their cup overflows declares God. For I am the Lord, again, of the overflow, and I am the God of more than enough for all those who come to Me says the Lord.”
