

“For the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy.”
Revelation 19:10

Some people reject prophecy out of hand, even before they read or examine it. Scripture tells us “Do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits, whether they are of God; because many false prophets have gone out into the world.” (1 John 4:1)

But think on this. “All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness, that the man of God may be complete, thoroughly equipped for every good work.” (2 Timothy 3:16-17)

Think on this – All Scripture is prophecy! The books of Moses, Ruth, Psalms, the prophetic books, and Daniel, and all in between. Peter even says the letters of Paul are “scripture.”

Living Faith does NOT suppose that the “Words of the LORD” are equal to the Scripture in the Bible. But test them! For reproof, correction, instruction, that we may be complete for every good work.

“(They) have sought for the rainbow. They have sought for the pot of gold at the end of the rainbow. But the rainbow does not point to a pot of gold. It is a reflection of my covenant declares God. And those who seek for the gold at the end of the rainbow shall never find it, shall never receive it for they’re not looking for Me. For in My rainbow, in the glory of My presence there am I found says God. And I will fill those who hunger and thirst for Me, those who seek after Me, who call on My name I will satisfy them. But for the world that’s always seeking the gold, always seeking what’s at the end of the rainbow miss the meaning of My covenant and they miss who I Am declares God. For I will reveal Myself to the least. I will give Myself to those that are hungry, to those who are empty, for those who are longing for Me declares God, to those I will reveal Myself and they shall know Me and I shall call them friends. For they shall know Me even as I know them. This is the day of the outpouring. This is the time of My coming, of the spirit being poured out on all flesh. It’s not a new thing but in your understanding it’s a new day. For it ‘s a day that you’ve anticipated because you haven’t yet fully walked into it but yet I declared it to be a new day when My Son was raised from the dead and when he ascended into heaven, oh it was a new day for then My grace was poured out on the earth. For then My glory was shown forth for all men to see and all people to dwell in and for My people to just to know and rejoice in My presence says God. For until that grace came law abounded. And the law bought condemnation because you can not live to My requirements says God. But in My grace I’ve met all those requirements. And all I ask you now in My grace is to come to Me. Just come to Me. Forget about fulfilling the law because I have already done that declares God. In My Son Jesus He fulfilled all the law. And you were counted righteous, not by your deeds, not by your efforts but you are counted righteous because of My Son and what He paid for you declares God. So fear not but come unto Me that you would know Me. That you could rejoice in Me even as I rejoice in you for when you believe on Me oh, I rejoice. When you cast all your fears over onto Me and call out to Me the angels in heaven are moved. And they are moved to meet your needs and they are moved to meet whatever you require declares God because the law has been fulfilled. Grace has come and you have been found to be right with Me declares God.

“There’s a fresh flow of oil declares the Lord. There is new wine being poured out in the earth again. For My people have cried and cried, they’ve prayed to Me, they have repented, oh, and they are coming home. Like the prodigal, son they’re returning to the Father. They’re returning to Me declares God. Oh, and I will not leave you homeless. I will not leave you alone, but like the prodigal son I will bring you back home, and I will restore to you all the things that you thought you had given up, all the things you thought you had lost, I am restoring them to My body declares the Lord, declares the Christ, the Alpha, the Omega, the Beginning and the End. For I have declared things years and years and years ago, and this is the age, this is the time when they’re being poured out in the earth afresh, anew.

“Things that people had given up - lost dreams - I am restoring them says the Father. Those that have said, ‘Oh, but we are stuck in this place’, I am unsticking you declares God. And I am putting you back into your right place and that right place is seated with My Son in Heavenly places. That doesn’t mean you’re going to die, it means you’re going to live. You’re going to live. You’re going to live. Like the dry bones in the valley, I am bringing them back together; and I declare to you says the Lord, begin to prophesy over those dead things in your life. Begin to speak to those areas that are dried up. Begin to speak to those areas that, that have gone to waste. For not only will I join those bones together, but I will put new flesh on those bones. It will be different than what was, but it will be fresh flesh. It will be new things declares God. And those things I speak to you (and this is where you prophesy) to breathe life into those dead bones. Bring life into those sinews and those muscles that I am restoring. Bring life into that flesh, for it’s not just by the natural, but it’s by My supernatural declares God, that I am moving in the land in this day. Those things that many have said ‘Oh, we’ve grown beyond that. We don’t need that old stuff anymore.’ But you still need My life. You still need to come out of the dead areas that you thought were living but they’re dead. They’re nothing but the flesh of men. They’re nothing but the things, the idols of men that are collapsing around you. You need a fresh breath, a fresh move of Me in your life declares God. And I am more than willing to do it, for I am willing to see you return to that which you have lost and restore to you all those things. For I am bringing life back in.

“For I have found among My people says God those who will not quit, those who will not flinch just because it looks tough. But My army has been in training and you have endured to this point and now says the Lord you are ready to go to battle. And when I say you are ready to go to battle I mean you are well able to overcome the lies of the enemy and his deceit. For My army is going forth all over the earth in these days says God and we are pulling down the strongholds, those things that have exalted themselves against Me. Those in the world are even openly now talking about killing live children. They’re talking openly about this, and they are stunned that it’s coming out of their mouth. But it’s because it’s what’s in their heart. For I am bringing those things out, and I am revealing them that all the world can see. For the decision is being set before you this day declares God. You will be forced, forced says God, by the Spirit that belongs to Me. You will be forced that you have to choose between life and death. And those that choose death will die in their sin. And those that choose life will live in My glory, and will walk in My power and My strength declares God, and you will overcome all the weapons of the enemy.”

“Let the heathen rage. Let them yell and scream while My people rejoice, because we’ve already seen the victory. We’ve seen the coming of the glory of the Lord. We’ve seen His army begin to march around the world. And the heathen are screaming, and they’re yelling and they’re up in arms, because they see it, too. But they’re not part of My army says the Lord. That’s why they’re yelling. That’s why they’re so upset. The very thing that they’ve tried to create in the natural, they see coming in the supernatural, and it scares them! For it condemns them and condemns their heart, because they’re not of Me says God. In this day, I am revealing all things, and I’m bringing everything up to the surface - good and bad - so that it can be divided; so that the good can be received over into My corner, and the bad, even all the world will see it. And even though many will not be able to draw themselves out of it, they know that it’s doomed from the start. And yet because of their pride, they will hold on to those positions, and they will hold on to those things, even knowing that they are opposing Me! But the pride of life will drag them down.

“But it’s not so with My people declares God, for My people rejoice in My glory, and My people have pride in what I am doing. Not in their own works, not in their own endeavors, but they take pride in Me as their God, as their Deliverer, as the soon coming King. And My people rejoice in that hour and it that day. Even though it may be dark, even though there may be persecutions and prosecutions, yet My people are rejoicing, for My light is being revealed in all the earth. For it crosses every border, and it crosses every nation, for this is a global event says God. The coming of My Son is a global event! It’s not local. It affects the local, but it’s not just in your region. Neither is it just in your city or in your state. Neither is it just in your nation, but this is a thing I am doing declares God, over all the earth, that all men shall see it. For My Son does not return in secret, nor does He hide His appearing. But He does it openly, boldly, that all would see and all would rejoice.

“It’s a time of separation; but not just of those that are evil, but it’s a celebration and an ingathering of My people declares God. For I am bringing them into a unity of My Spirit; and, those that have wrong doctrine and wrong understanding, because they are hungry for My Spirit, they will yield to Me says the Lord. Even though they don’t like it in their flesh and it makes them uncomfortable because of prior wrong convictions, but yet they will yield to Me because they choose My Spirit even over the things that they understand. But for those that have already chosen Me, have already made that decision, oh, get ready for a ride! ‘Cause you’re gonna see the glory. You’re gonna see the things that you’ve dreamed of, the things that you’ve prayed for, you’re going to see them manifest in the natural realm. And when it occurs, the world will say ‘What was that?’ But you’ll say, ‘I’ve seen it already.’ For it’s not new, for I have prophesied it of old declares the Lord. My servant Isaiah saw it. Daniel saw it. Hezekiah even saw this, and they rejoice in it. And John the Baptist - oh, John saw the Day. It was so close and so real in him, he could taste it. That’s why when it didn’t come out the way that he was expecting, he sent inquisitors to ask of Jesus if He was the One, because it was so real in him. And he couldn’t wait to see the fulness of it. Oh, but he was the forerunner. He was the one who introduced it in the earth. He was the one that was the greatest of all the prophets of old. And yet, and yet, anyone who believes in Me says Jesus, is greater, greater than even John the Baptist. For you know Me. For John saw it in the future as a thing yet to come, and yet I am manifesting these things in My people, in My house declares God; that you know Me for

Who I am now, as well as the One that is yet to come. And you'll see these things come to pass, but you already rejoice in it, for to you, it's already happened!

"For it comes upon the world suddenly, but it doesn't come suddenly to My children. Because I've told you in advance, and now you're just waiting to see the manifestation. So it's not sudden to you, but it's that confirmation of Who I am and Who I have declared Myself to be says God. For you know these things already, for they're written and revealed to your heart declares God."

"For the angels have already begun their celebration. They are celebrating the advent of the King. They are celebrating the return of Jesus Christ into the earth. For when He comes, every knee will bow, every tongue shall confess that He is the Lord of Glory. For I am preparing declares God, to shed My glory, to pour out My glory on all the earth, on all the flesh, that everyone, everyone in the world would know that I am real declares God. There will be those who rejoice. There will be those who dance in the streets. There will be those who will glorify Me in the midst of all these things, and there will be those who hide. For the glory of the Lord means their destruction, except they turn. If they would turn back to Me says God, they would be participators of My glory. But otherwise, My glory will burn them away like the chaff is burned by the fire. For the days are coming declares God, when I am doing those things I've said of years ago, and I am bringing them to pass. And many, many, many will see this day of the outpouring of My glory, and they will know this is God! For man could not imagine this. Man could not create this by his own efforts, by his own abilities, for this must be God. For I will do things that people will look at and say 'How could this be done?' But you know it can be done declares God, for you know Me and you know what I am able to do. For My glory will shake the earth as it has never been shook before. Not only in Jerusalem where My Son preached, not only in Samaria, not only in Judea, not only in Rome and Greece, but the whole world shall feel this shaking, for it is starting even now. For the call of liberty has gone forth; and those who love liberty are rallying to My side declares God, because I am the only true God that can give liberty unto men. For I have come to set them free that they would know what freedom really means declares God, and they are grasping on to it declares Jesus, and they are coming home to Me. As a prodigal returns to the Father, they are coming home to me declares God.

"For great will be that day. Great will be that day. And it shall go down in the annals of history as a great moment in time. For it shall not be repeated again until there's a new heaven and new earth. For My glory is soon to appear and make all things new and fresh declares the Lord."

“The enemy has declared war, but My people sought a truce rather than to defeat the enemy, because they saw the enemy as larger and stronger than Me, says the LORD. But now I am exposing the enemy as he really is – weak and pathetic. Unless he can convince or intimidate people to support him, he is powerless. His words are as clouds without rain. The brightness of My Son will cause the enemy to evaporate.”

“Look to Me, for your salvation comes from Me and not the ways of the world. While the world seeks for you to compromise, I offer you victory over the prince of this world.”

“And I say unto you My children, this is the day to enter into My presence. This is the day to enter into My quietness and My confidence. This is the day to let the things of the world, all the burdens, all the pains, all the sufferings, all the losses, all the excuses -- this is the day to let those things go. To come and walk with Me. To come and be one with Me. To learn to live at a deeper level. To stand before Me. Because no sin can stand in My presence. No sin can come before Me. And yet I have cleansed you from all unrighteousness and all ungodliness. And I have made you able to stand in My presence declares God. This is not a light thing. This is not just a forgiving of sin. This is a cleansing and makes you able to stand in My presence before Me declares God. The world cannot take this away. The world cannot spot you, the world cannot stain you, for I have made you righteous with the righteousness of My Son. And He stands before Me and sits beside Me declares the Father. For there is no sin in Him. For I made Him to be sin that you would be sinless. That the power of sin would be broken over you. So, this day rise up. Take it by force. Take it by assurance and make the declaration, ‘I am a child of God, and I am able to stand in His presence as though sin never existed. And I can, as a child, receive all that the Father has given to me.’ To say these things. To believe these things. For this is who you have become in Me declares the Father, the Creator of all things!”

“I am pouring out resurrection power in the earth. When Jesus was raised from the dead the power began to flow, and it flows through people. And it flows through the faith of those who trust and believe in Me. And all over this world I have people planted, all over, in every country, every nationality, in your back yard I have people planted that carry My seed of faith declares God. And that resurrection power is not at a peak, but it’s rising and it’s coming on strong. Things that many people have said have been dead in the earth for years is coming back to life. Because people are seeking freedom again. They’re seeking liberty and they can only find that in Me declares the Lord. They can’t find it in men, they can’t find it in government, they can’t find it in wealth, they can’t find it in their sexual immoralities , but they can find it in Me says God. And that resurrection power is beginning to flow into the House, into the Legislature, into the Congress, into the Courts, into the Government all over the earth. It’s a force that will be resisted; but it is a force that cannot be resisted, for it’s coming on all flesh even as I pour out of My Spirit says God. And you are seeing the beginnings of the revolution now, but it will come in greater and greater form as even those who proclaim lawlessness will be quieted by the outpour of My glory declares God. They will not desist, but they will cease for a season, for a time, for this is not their season declares God, but it is My season declares the Christ.”

“As My Son rode into the city, He rode on the back of a donkey, the colt of a donkey. And on that day He was sending a message. The King of Israel has come. The Messiah. The King of Kings and the Lord of Lords. And when He rode in, faith was stirred. Faith in the Kingdom of Heaven on earth. Faith of the Christ, of the Messiah. Faith for deliverance. Faith for all the things that are contained in the Word of God. For all the promises from Adam on. Faith was stirred for all of these things. So, faith is stirring again in the nation. It’s stirring again in My church declares God. From all the places in the earth and every nation, every peoples, every continent, faith is stirring again. For again they’ve seen the crossing through the Red Sea. And they’ve seen the waters part. And the enemy has chosen to follow into those waters thinking, ‘If they did it, we can too.’ But they will fail declares God. For as I will part the waters for those who belong to Me, so I will close it on those who pursue Me out of their own lust and out of their own greed. And the waters are beginning to close in on the enemy, and they are drowning and they don’t even know it. They still think, the Pharaoh of this world still believes, that he can overcome the Christ who rode into Jerusalem. But My Christ, though He were killed, yet I raised Him on the third day declares the Father. And today He is the Lord of the Resurrection. And in this day I am resurrecting faith. My Church is feeling the stir. And as faith arises, so do the Pharisees, so do the Scribes, so do the hypocrites - those who have called on My name but do not believe in My power says God. And you see in many churches even, those who have gained wealth and power and position by using the name of My Son, and yet they are being challenged this day because My Word is causing a separation and a division among My people and those who are called by My name. For many have been called, but yet few have been chosen. And this is the time of the division that it begins, when the tares are being separated from the wheat. And My angels are causing it to come to pass declares God. For faith is arising again. And people have seen a glimmer of the coming of the Son of God, and they’ve seen Him pushed out of politics, seen Him pushed out of education, pushed out of all the areas of life, and yet now at the near breaking point, My people are saying ‘No more shall we be denied. No more shall we be the ones hiding in the closet.’ But they are coming out, and their faith is coming out with them declares God. And they are threatening every power, every stronghold, every political position, every philosophical position, they are challenging the educational systems in the world that have been raised on the ideas of men that have proven to fail. And they have sequestered the Kingdom of God that always works.

“So this is the day not to grow faint but it’s the day to let your faith increase. It’s the day to hide yourself in My Word and to cover yourself up with My glory declares God. For as My glory pours out, it is revelation, it is light, it is healing, it is mercy, it is power, it is strength for those who believe; but it is condemnation for those who will not, who have chosen to walk in the dark side. But all this is because faith has risen and is continuing to rise across this great country. And I will restore the light to the city on the hill. And I am removing the basket that has covered up that glory for so long, and it shall shine from sea to sea declares the Lord.

“Those who oppose Me are talking about values and morals while they declare that living babies fresh from the womb are not human. And they talk about morals. It’s an insult to Me declares God, for the heathen to talk about righteousness when they have no righteousness except their own. And I am revealing their dirty rags that are soaked with the blood of humanity. Daring to equal themselves to the righteousness of My Son who gave His blood so that people could be saved. Put your faith into My Son. Put your faith into My Word, My Spirit, declares God for that truth will set you free from the limitations and the confinements that the god of this world has placed upon My people. For the shackles are coming off, and the doors to the jail are opening again says the Lord.”

“There are those who would say that I leave things undone; but, I don’t leave things unfinished. For I’ve finished things from the foundation of the world. From the beginning of your time I saw the end says God. And I’ve made preparation for all of you to reach that goal in life, for all of you to attain the prize at the end of the time that you live. I’ve given you that opportunity. But there are those that say, ‘Well, God just does this and He starts a thing here and He starts a thing there.’ No, no, no. I finish it. But you, by your understanding, only walk into a part of it. For many times what I have begun, people grabbed hold of, but after a while it grew old to them, and they grew tired of it, and so they requested a new thing; but I want to finish what I started says the Lord. I started with Adam and Eve that they would have fellowship with Me in the garden, but they grew tired and they wanted something new and something different, so they tried the apple. They tried the fruit and it led to failure. Any time you leave My plan, it will result in failure says the Lord. But I gave an opportunity for Adam and Eve to return to Me; and I’ve given an opportunity for everyone of you to return to Me through My Son, Jesus, that you may finish the race, that you may complete that good thing that I have started on the inside of you.

“So this is not the time to grow weak. This is not the time to faint. It is the time to hold onto those things that I have planted in your heart. In your soul, in the innermost recesses of your heart, there is a dream that I have given to you says the Lord. And I am with you to see you fulfill that dream. To fulfill that vision that it would come to pass, and that you would come short in no good thing says God. For I’m still with you, and I’ve not backed off. And I’ve not said, ‘Oh I’m, I’m going to change My, My attitude, I’m going to change My mind in the middle of the stream.’ No, no, no. I don’t do that says the Lord. For My thoughts are not here and there. My thoughts are not up and down, My thoughts are consistent, for My thoughts are of My essence says God; and I have decreed salvation. Things that you are beginning to see the results of were because people aligned themselves with Me years ago. For I cannot change a generation overnight, but I plant seeds in that generation that they would flourish, that the seeds would grow up and mature and when the time is ripe, the seeds bear fruit and the seeds come to harvest. This is a harvest time declares God. And things that I have sown forty years ago are now coming to pass says God.

The things that I saw years ago, they’re beginning to occur now for you to see them in the natural, but the seed was planted years ago. Do not count that seed that I’ve planted in you as a little thing, for it will literally cause mountains to move and to shake and to quake when that seed bears fruit. When that seed comes to fruition, you will see the things in the natural world yield to the seed of My Spirit says God. And so things are even now yielding to My Son. And there are protests and there are those who will say ‘No, no, no!’, not just out there, but those in the church. For they fear My rule and they fear My reign. But if you will let Me rule, if you will let Me reign on the inside of you, oh the blessings that you would receive. The peace that you would have. To know that you are one with Me. To know that I am one with you says God, and that I have cleansed you and forgiven you and I have made you a new person. That you would know these things in you will be a seed for the future. To be settled and established in what I have given to My people says God, oh, that - that is a foundation that others can build on, because they see your confidence, they see your trusting in Me says God; and it will allow them to trust, and it will allow them to see that good thing in you and know that that good thing passes from generation to generation to generation. I blessed Abraham because I knew he would teach what I had given to him to his seed, to his children. So also teach the things that I have given to you. Teach the understanding, the revelation that I have given to you to those around you - to your children, to your grandchildren, to those others that you meet that that seed would continue, that your blessing would be complete.

“The things that I have started, that you’re now beginning to see in this nation, are not going to be cut short in 2020. They’re going to continue and they’re going to pick up steam. As they already are, you’re going to see this wave increase and increase and increase, and there will be stones that will stand in the way and they say ‘No, no you shall not pass here!’, but I have set the limits of the ocean says God. And I have set the limits of My glory says God to fill the earth with Myself. And I will see these things come to pass regardless of how many stones. For as the sea washes against the stones, the stones break up. The stones deteriorate, the stones will give way to My water says God, because my waters are truth and they are life to all those who will find them and receive them and walk in them saith the Lord.”

“It is My glory, says the Lord, it is My glory that leads men to repentance. It’s when they see My goodness above all the sin of the earth, it’s when they see My righteousness, My holiness, that men are drawn to Me. For when Moses approached My burning bush he saw the glory and he knelt, and he honored Me and he came to know Me as Yahweh. When Jesus healed the sick, cast out demons, when He raised the dead to life, My glory was being poured out. And there were those that followed Him because they were filled with the food that He gave them, but He said you never saw the miracles. You never saw the hand of God that was setting people free. For all they were concerned about was having their own need satisfied. All they were concerned about was just having their own needs met. But they failed to see the glory of the entrance of My power, the entrance of the invasion of My righteousness into the earth. And when they saw this glory they would repent. For you repent when you come into one who is greater than you. But if you believe you are the greater one, there’s no need for you to repent says the Lord. There’s no need for you to come to the physician if you’re not sick. But, oh, if My glory fills the earth, when that time comes and I pour out of My goodness again on all flesh to where it is so visible men will come to repent, because My glory will convict them of their unrighteousness. And as they see My glory lifted up above their weaknesses, oh they will come to Me says the Lord. And you are the vessels of My outpouring. You are the ones, My church, that I have declared to be filled with My glory and to be glory carriers in the earth, that you would carry that glory and that glory would pour from you, that men would know that they have come into the presence of the Holy One of Israel - that they would repent and call on My Name and be born again. Oh, that this glory would come, that this time would come shortly says the Lord, that My Name would be lifted up in all the earth again, that men would know Me says God.”

“I am the Most High declares the Lord. I am high above all other things. There is no other name by which men can be saved than the name of Jesus. There is no place higher than My throne declares God. There are those who seek to depose Me. They’ve kicked Me out of their lives. They’ve refused to even acknowledge that I exist, and they struggle against Me day after day. But they shall not pull Me down says God. For while they throw stones, they’ll always have to throw the stones higher, because they know that they are beneath. They know that every knee shall bow, every tongue confess that My Son, Jesus, is indeed Lord over all things. For I have enthroned Him high above the seraphim, high above the cherubim, high above all the ideas or things that men could begin to comprehend; and yet men want to pit their ideals against Me, and every time they do they fail again and again and again. And yet they try and they lift up their wisdom and they lift up the things of men, thinking that this time, this time their tower will stand - this time they will succeed in reaching heaven - this time they will succeed in uniting all people under one banner; but yet they don’t understand that all will be united under one banner, but it is My banner declares the Lord. For I am drawing all those who believe unto Me says God. And this is the day of the outpouring. You look at it and say it’s still yet to come. I say it’s already here. I say it is already started declares God. For when one person believed in My Son, the Kingdom broke forth. And on the day of Pentecost 3,000 came to Me declares God. Oh, it shook the kingdoms of darkness, and it still shakes those kingdoms; and those kingdoms want to rise up again and declare ‘No, no, no, no. We will not bow our knee!’; and yet they shall bow declares God. For they will have no choice in this day but to acknowledge who I am, even before their enemies. For many will come out of the darkness and they will come into My light declares God. Those who have declared themselves to be My enemies shall see the light and shall turn from their wicked ways, and I will receive them says the Father. And I will make them sons and daughters. And yet My people will say ‘Oh, no, no, no, no! They haven’t worked like we have, they haven’t done the works, the deeds that we have done.’ But yet I will pay them the same wages says God. For My mercy and My grace is Mine to do with what I choose. And if I choose to give grace to one, then I will show him grace. For I want all those to come to Me and to know Who I am, that they could in this day be set free.”

“We’re going to shift into a gear in the Spirit that we didn’t even know we had. We’re about ready to shift into a gear in the Spirit that we didn’t even know we possess.” We have so much more potential than we’re operating at. Cause you have the fulness of God on the inside of you. There’s realms of the Spirit that cause tremendous acceleration; and it’s not that we work harder, it’s that God works through us and we see supernatural breakthroughs.

“Do not think that your salvation is only about going to heaven. Do not begin to entertain the thought that what I have promised is going to some day come in your future, but begin to believe it is now saith the Lord. For the things that I have promised are ‘yea’ and ‘amen’. They are not ‘Oh, for someday after you’re dead...’ no, no, no, it’s for now. It’s for now. It’s for now. Your salvation took place and is daily, even by moment by moment, taking place in your body and in your soul. For you are continually renewing yourself in Me says the Lord, and as you do that, I am quickening the manifestation of My Spirit, My life in you says God. Do not begin to put off that which I have given you now for some day in the future that will never get here. For tomorrow is always ahead of you. That’s why I say today is the day of salvation. Today is the day of My appearing. Today is the day of My coming says the Lord. For I do not see it as some day by and by, but I see it now says God. And when you begin to walk in the power of My Spirit, the things that you have put off for tomorrow you will suddenly find are at hand, and you can possess them now says God.”

“This is not the end. This is not the conclusion, but this is the beginning -- the beginning of new things in My Spirit and in this nation declares God. It’s a new time for you as an individual. It’s a new time for the people of God around the world. For years they have put up, for years they have tolerated being oppressed and depressed. But this is the day of the liberation of My people, of My church in the earth says the Lord. For as My people grab hold of the things of My Spirit, as they grab hold of heaven, they are pulling it into manifestation in the earth. This is what My people have prayed for thousands of years, ‘Thy kingdom come, thy will be done in the earth even as it’s in heaven.’ Well, it’s starting to happen says God. For My people have put up with all these years and all the prayers have not gone unheard, for I have heard the prayers of My people, I’ve heard your supplication and today is the day of the outpouring. Today is the day when the new birth is coming into fruition. It’s a new life for the nations declares God. There are those who will arise up against, there are those who will say ‘No, no, no, no, no’, but I say yes, yes, yes, yes, yes! And My will reigns supreme declares God. And it is that day of the outpouring, so don’t be a bystander. Don’t be one of those who just watches things go by and say, ‘Hmmm’ that was interesting.’ Get involved says God. For as you get involved it will also be to your salvation. It will also be that time when you will step over the line, the barriers that you have set in place in your life. And you will see new works, new wonders and new activity in the realm of My Spirit says God. For this is that day that the prophets spoke of and you are seeing it come to pass again says the Lord.”

“For in My presence declares the Lord, in My presence there flows mercy, compassion, oh, righteousness flows from My throne says God. It flows to all those who would receive, it flows to those coming in, it flows to those going out. It’s a flow, it’s a steady flows says God. It’s not one that I turn on and turn off, it’s not one where I pick a time and say it’ll work today but not tomorrow. No, no, no! It’s a steady flow from My throne. For that flow to change says God, I would have to change; and I change not. I DO NOT alter My person or My word declares God, for I am the same yesterday, today and forever; and My flow is a regular consistent flow from the throne of My grace, the throne of My mercy, into the earth for all those who would believe and receive it.”
