

"For the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy."
Revelation 19:10

Some people reject prophecy out of hand, even before they read or examine it. Scripture tells us "Do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits, whether they are of God; because many false prophets have gone out into the world." (1 John 4:1)

But think on this. "All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness, that the man of God may be complete, thoroughly equipped for every good work." (2 Timothy 3:16-17)

Think on this – All Scripture is prophecy! The books of Moses, Ruth, Psalms, the prophetic books, and Daniel, and all in between. Peter even says the letters of Paul are "scripture."

Scripture is prophetic as it reveals patterns, examples or "types" showing us the way to escape the cycle of sin and death through the "Spirit of life in Christ Jesus!" (Rom 8:2)

Living Faith does NOT suppose that the "Words of the LORD" are equal to the Scripture in the Bible. But test them! For reproof, correction, instruction, that we may be complete for every good work.

“As the Holy Spirit entered into the upper room, as My power began to flow into the church, as the tongues of fire appeared, and as I broke out into the streets of the city and all the people heard the gospel, so it will be in this hour declares the Lord. For that which has been shut up in prophecy, that which has been hidden from the minds of men who seek to understand, I am revealing in these days says the Lord, and it will come upon the earth as a rushing mighty wind. It will come as an earthquake. It will come suddenly upon the earth. For suddenly I shall appear and suddenly you shall see things turned around, things that people thought were dead. Ancient volcanoes are opening again declares the Lord. Ancient wells are being re-dug and reopened declares God, and those things that have been hidden in the earth for years are beginning to be revealed again saith God, through My people. For it's not an act of violence, it's not a rushing wind or a volcano or a flood that destroys, but it is one that gives life; and, it will give life to as many as who would receive it, that they would know Who I am. For I am preparing says the Lord, to make a demonstration, a demonstration of Myself in the earth -- of My love, of My faithfulness, of My salvation and deliverance. For even as I brought Israel out of Egypt with great display, so I am preparing to reveal My church again with great display, that all the world will see and they will marvel and they'll bend their knee, if only for a while, to Who I am declares God, because they know that this move can not be resisted; and they will yield momentarily, but they will acknowledge Who I am says God, because of the rising of My church and My people in the earth again says God. As I shook Rome, I will again shake this world. For they have not seen this kind of power, they have not seen this outflow for centuries, but they will see it again declares God, for revival has hit the world and My harvest is ripe and ready to be brought into My Kingdom declares God.

“And do not think this is going to pass you by. Don't think it's going to be only out there, it's going to be in you declares God. For Me to pour out My glory in the earth it must come through My people and My body declares God. And so even as I lift up My church, remember you belong in My church, you are My church, and therefore the blessing will come upon you in greater measure than you have ever anticipated, for I am doing this work to reveal who I am nationally, internationally, and in you says God.

So that even your relatives, even your family, even your neighbors will know this is God. And like in Egypt, oh, like in Egypt, they brought the gold and the jewels and the precious things to Israel before they left, so it will be in this day that they will seek you out for your wisdom, they will seek you out because you know Me; and because they don't know Me, they will seek you out and they will ask you questions and they will deliver the things that they have possessed for years -- their pride, their arrogance, their fear, their hate, their anger and they will give all these things to you, because you will carry them away and you will release them and bring them into My presence says God.”

“Let your hearts be at peace. Do not fret and fear as the world fears, for the very things that they have feared are coming upon them. In this world there will be tribulation, but still I have overcome the world, and I'm still overcoming it. The darkness cannot overtake the light. No matter how much it tries and how hard it strives against Me it shall not prevail declares the Lord. For I am still abiding with My people, and I have not abandoned them. I have not forsaken them. There are those who are asking this morning, 'Where is the Lord?' I'm where I've always been says God, desiring to be enthroned on the hearts of men - desiring to direct their lives and bring them to a point of peace with Myself as well as others, to bring in a sense of harmony. And yet there is one who seeks to steal, kill and destroy; and as long as he is willingly yielded to, he will manipulate people and he will use their emotions and he will use their own frustration to do the will of the one who hates My children. For even as he seeks to destroy others, he uses those whom he is destroying to do his work, just as I use those to do My work says God, who will yield to Me, who will seek My presence, who will give their hearts and their lives to Me says God. I will use them and I will use them for good declares God. And I will use them to bring healing says Christ. And I will use those who seek My will to bring peace upon the earth to as much as is within their parameter. But there will always be those who seek their own. There will always be those who cry out against Me says God. Yet My love is toward them also. For as a hen calls her chicks to herself, so I'm calling those to Me says God, that all who would hear My voice, all who would hear My Son would gather themselves to Me says the Christ. For this is the day of the separation. It is the day of the sheep and the goat nations. It is the day of the wheat and the tares, and it's the day of the harvest declares God. It's the day when I am calling those to Me and gathering them into My barn. It's the day says God, when I am receiving My own to Myself. For it's the day of My coming, it's the day of My appearing says God. And I will make Myself known, that all will know that it is Me that they are struggling with. And they are dealing with life and death everyday; and those who seek life will come to Me, and those who hide from life, those who seek the darkness, who seek their own way, oh, they will grow further and further away from Me. But for My children, they will know Me and they will have the peace that the others promised to give but cannot fulfill. For I am the way, the life and the truth declares the Christ."

"(These are changing) times for some but not for Me says God. There are those who see the things in the world and they go from here and they go from there, but I do not change. I am the same yesterday, today, and forever. For I see things from a grand perspective, 'cause I see the end before it even started. There are those who will begin to celebrate the victory and they'll celebrate too early. And like the Israelites they'll say, 'They've released us, they've let us go!' And they go to the sea and they find a difficulty, but yet I am there, and I will part the waters. And they will go through and they will celebrate again; and then the enemy will follow and they'll say 'Oh, woe am I'. Oh, but be constant says the Lord. For those enemies that follow you, I will overtake them and I will overthrow them declares God, and they shall not have effect upon you declares God. For they will come and they'll ....(tongues).... they will think that they are in pursuit and they will say (and some of them are already saying) that, 'This is their end, this is time when we totally overthrow the people of God. This is the time when we destroy Israel. It is the time when we destroy the church!' But they shall not conquer declares God! For like the Egyptians, they shall pursue you into the sea thinking that God has even given you into their hands, and yet I have set a trap for them declares God. For the more they rail the more they rise up against Me and My people, the more their idiocy is seen and revealed to all the world, to where the world will reject them. And the world will even turn against them, for they will decry the very things that they once believed in. For they have seen the outcome of it. For they're beginning to see their end, they're beginning to see their demise says God. Their time is coming quickly. Their time is coming rapidly to a close, for I am closing this age says God; and I am elevating My people that they will rise in this hour and in this time says God."

"You are in the midst of the calm. You're in the eye of the storm. Things appear to have settled down, and many people will take it as a sign of rest. It's just the peace of the storm. It's the eye and soon the eye will pass. And once the eye passes, the storm will begin to rage again with greater intensity than it has raged to this far. Greater intensity shall be upon the earth. Greater pressure will be upon My people declares God. For when the eye passes, oh, there will be those who are disappointed because they've thought 'We've won, we've won!' Oh, no, no, no. The storm is still there, it's just that temporary peace, that temporary calm. But it will pass. That's when you've got to continue to stand. You've got to continue to hold the ground. For even the ground that people stand on will be shaken in these days declares God. For the shaking must occur so that that which is real will continue to stand. But the shaking will cause the false things to not only appear but to also be destroyed and be demolished. For those things of the world can be shaken and they will be shaken until they collapse declares God. And yet My people, when they are shook, oh, they just stand in greater strength on the Rock on which they are built. For you are not built on sand that shifts with every tide, with every -- everything that man thinks, but you are built on the solid rock of the foundation of My Son declares God. And this foundation cannot, will not be shaken, for it will endure forever. The reason it seems to be so still at the moment: the enemy hasn't ceased his efforts; he hasn't decided to quiet down and be nice; he hasn't surrendered his will. They're gathering their momentum for what they think is a final push. But that final push will be met with an equal and greater opposition, and they do not anticipate this. For they think that they have the strength, but they have no strength outside of Me declares God. For I have said it is the meek that will inherit the earth. It is the meek, those who are surrendered to Me and to My will. It is the meek who have died to themselves and let Me live in them, these are the conquerors, these are the overcomers, these are the ones who will know My power in that day declares God. So be prepared. Be ready. Don't take this calm as the battle's over, for it's going to rage again in a short time; and, all things are going to come out and all things will be shaken, so that which is permanent will endure and remain standing after the storm has gone through."

"For My Glory will cover the earth. My Word will cover the earth. It will go out from all nations, from all peoples, from all sources that will make themselves available. And My Word will cover the earth, and the ears that have been sleeping are going to be woke up. For as the system of the world collapses and people remember that they have no lasting hope to offer, they will seek Me out again says the Lord. And they will cry out unto Me says God, and I will answer them and I will draw them into My Kingdom, I will draw them to Myself declares God. For I am seeking all over the world for those who hunger and thirst. For those who are willing to come under My government, I am seeking out these people says God. And there's many, many, many, many that have been caught up in the things of the world, but as those things fade, as they begin to pass away, more and more they will seek for the answer. And as they seek they shall find that I am the answer, that there is no one beside Me, there is no one that can answer the heart cry that they have except for Me declares God. And they will come to Me by the thousands, by the millions they will come unto Me declares God. And they will come and they will bring light into My church. To those institutions that call themselves My 'church', the ungodly have become Godly and they will bring light into the deadness of the institution, and they will bring life back into the church. For they will not be content to sing the old songs the old way, but they will have found a Living God, and as they find that Living God they will bring that life with them; and those places that will not allow them to express My life will cease to exist. For they shall fade away even as the things of the world fade away. For I am bringing My light into the darkness and the darkness must - has to - yield to the light, for the light is greater than any darkness that is upon this earth."

"Did not I warn you to not be deceived. For there is one who goes out to deceive the nations, to deceive the world. He's called the deceiver of the brethren. He's called the liar, the thief. That he would deceive the world is not surprising, but many in My own church have been deceived. They've walked under a spirit of bewitchment. For they've replaced My word with their own theology, with their own doctrine. They've replaced My word with the wisdom of men, and My word no longer has place in them declares God. But I am breaking that spell, that witching spell. I'm breaking the hold of the enemy over My people declares God. For for many years there has been an awakening, but it's going to increase in this season, in this time. It's going to grow rapidly, and as My people catch fire, so will the true church catch fire, also. And the true church will rise up and be separated from that church of the world, that church of Satan, where he has taken up his throne, and where he has bewitched many, many, many who think that they serve Me, but they're really just serving the lust of the flesh and the lust of the eyes. But My kingdom is coming, and it brings conflict with it, for it brings that division, it brings that separation. And there are those who will not want to know that separation, for they will say 'We're all one.' No you're not all one declares God. For there are those who are with Me and there are those who oppose Me. You are not one until you are one in Me declares the Christ. Until I have the headship over your life and the headship over the church, it does not belong to Me. But in these days that spirit of bewitching is going to be lifted and truth will be seen for what it is. For as I remove the spell, as I remove that darkness from the face of the earth, oh, the depravity of man will come out, and it will come out in the church and it will come out in the world. But don't be afraid, for these things must be revealed in the end times to truly separate the sheep and the goats, the tares from the wheat, for this is all part of the plan. So be not afraid of all these things that are about to come upon the earth, but rejoice that your King draweth nigh. And rejoice in those things being exposed, for even as those evil, dark things are being exposed, so will the light of My sons and daughters be exposed in this day declares God. For you shall shine brighter than you ever thought possible. And people will run to you, yes they will flock to you and they will say 'Tell me about this Jesus, tell me about this way of life', because the truth in their heart is being revealed. And not only are they seeing the darkness in their own soul, but they are seeing the light of the gospel. And I will be lifted up in these days declares God, and I will draw many, many, many to Myself; for it is the day of the outcoming. It is the day of revival, but it is the day of renewal where nations will be renewed. For I am doing a work in this world again, revealing the sheep nations and the goat nations. And the line will be clearly drawn between the two so that all can see and all will have to decide whether they will follow the sheep or follow the goats. For this is the outpouring of My Spirit declares God.”

“Who is the one who sets the boundaries? Who is the one who set the limits of the seas and said you can progress this far and no further? Who is it that has established the borders of the nations? It is I says the Lord. For I have set boundaries and I have set limitations; and, I’m telling you this day evil can only go so far and I will intervene. Death can only proceed to a certain point, and then I will intervene and I will take over. For I have set limits and I have set boundaries. People say, ‘Oh, evil is going to overtake the whole world!’ No it won’t, for I have set the limits. I’ve set the boundaries. Even in the time of Job, I set the boundary. I said, ‘Devil, you can go this far but no further’, and he could only go as far as I allowed him to go. Because I have a plan of redemption, I have a plan of salvation; and, that plan of salvation interrupts the plan of the devil and cuts him short, because he can only go so far and then My salvation begins to kick in. And My salvation comes by faith. And as My people rise in faith, oh, the enemy will be limited. For he is raising his head right now, and he’s roaring as a lion seeking whom he may devour, because he doesn’t have the right to devour everyone. There’s a limit, and only those who yield to him can he devour. But those who call on My Name ooo, that set a limit on him and he can’t go past that spot. He can’t go past the Name of My Son. He can’t go past the redemption, the blood that poured out on the ground. He can not cross that blood line. And as long as you stay within that blood line, it doesn’t matter how much he roars because I’ve set a limit, and I’ve said you can go no further than this. So begin to rejoice. Begin to not to look at the loudness of the enemy. Begin to get your eyes off of his screaming and his yelling and his display, but begin to look at My blood and My salvation. For that blood protects you, that blood draws a line about you and about My people in the earth, and that blood line can not be crossed declares God, because I have set you in My hand, and no one can take you out of My hand says the Lord.”

“What you are watching right now declares God, has not been seen in a generation. A generation ago you referred to them as ‘the greatest generation’. But a generation ago there were men who stood up to evil. They put their lives on the line to destroy a plague that was sweeping across the earth. People thought, ‘It can’t be stopped. It’s too large.’ They formed alliances with other like-thinking nations. And yet I caused division between those factions as they turned and they began to fight on one another. And you’re seeing that now, even the factions that have joined themselves together are now beginning to fight one another again, and they are weakening themselves. But I will take advantage of that declares God. For I am raising up a generation that is going to fight against evil, that is going to stand up, that is going to be a generation that sees and ushers in My Kingdom declares God. For it’s a generation of those who have no fear. It’s a generation of those who will climb on walls and leap over fences. It’s a generation of those who will not tire and who will not quit, that will not yield to another, for they have found the True God and they will not deny Me says the Lord. And they’re taking place and they’re in the process now of rooting out the evil, revealing it once again so that like a generation ago men denied it, they claimed it didn’t exist and they claimed it was a good thing, and it was rottenness to the bones. And as they fought, they literally uncovered the deepest, darkest secrets that hid in the souls of men; the desire to do evil, the desire to promote themselves as angels of light, but their deeds were full of darkness. So it is this day. You have men and women rising to the occasion that are willing to fight, are willing to stand up, and the world is confused because they thought they had won. They were so close, and they can’t understand that the world will not just embrace them and will not accept their ways. But there’s still a remnant in the earth declares God. They know right and wrong. They know good and evil, because their minds have not been clouded or tainted with the things of the world. And even though they walked in the world, yet their thoughts were before Me says God. And I am restoring that generation to the generation (tongues), to the generation of David, of mighty men that did great works.

Mighty men that were not afraid. Mighty men that would set themselves at risk, at peril of even death itself. Oh, but they did not die, but they overcame, and as they overcame other men became mighty, other men began to rise up and say 'Me, too!' And they created a wave, and it is of that kingdom of David that I said My Messiah will reestablish his kingdom in the earth again. And you're seeing the beginnings of that kingdom rise again in the earth declares God. For you are seeing something that has not transpired for a generation, because evil is being revealed, and evil is being fought head on. And there were those who said D-Day was a massive failure waiting to happen, and where there is no way we could go against an impenetrable continent as Europe, because the enemy was too strong. And yet, I confused their plans to where there was an opening. And there were brave men and bold men that came to place, and they took charge of that opening, and they saw the breach in the wall that no one else could see. And they attacked. So, My people, I am showing you the breaches in the walls of the enemy that you may attack them and pull down their strongholds, and reveal the vileness of their hearts again to a people whose hearts have grown dull. But your heart I am reviving again declares God, to see these things done in your time.

"For what men have thought they lost, oh, I'm calling the dead bones to rise again. I'm causing them to take on flesh and sinews, and I'm commanding breath to return to the bones, and they will stand up again declares God. A mighty army that shall not be vanquished. A mighty army that will see that the orders of their Commander are carried out. And you're that army, 'cause I am breathing My Spirit into the earth afresh says God. And there is an awaking going on all over the earth, for those that were furthest away are realizing who I am and they are starting a revival that will literally sweep the planet and give glory to My Name declares God."

"My people walked around the City of Jericho. They walked in silence. They walked in worship. They walked in anticipation of that which I was about to do. But then the day came and I said, 'Shout!', and when they shouted it created such a reverberation in heaven that the walls of the city collapsed. So when you face trials, you often start out in solemnness, you often start out in silence seeking My will, seeking what I would desire to do. And if you stay before My face long enough, oh, I will raise up a shout. A shout that comes from within you. A shout of defiance, a shout of victory, a shout of the glory of God; and I will cause reverberations again to resound from heaven to enter into your situation, and the walls that resist you will collapse before you. And the enemy will be unprotected. The enemy will be confused, and that's when you go in and you take the booty of the city. The things of the world are laid up for the righteous, and those things are beginning to pour into My Kingdom says God. For I have opened the gates because I have people that have shouted against the walls, and they have lifted up their voice against the opposition, against the nay sayers, against those who say 'No, no, no. Be quiet, be quiet, be quiet!' No, no. My people are beginning to shout again this day, not only in America, but throughout all the earth, and they are shouting with the voice of triumph. They are shouting with the voice of liberty and the walls, the retainers, the things that have stood against them are collapsing even as they declare My glory says God. For in the shout of My people there is victory. And when My people raise their voices, all the earth trembles before them; for every knee must bow and every tongue confess that My Jesus is Lord, and all authority in heaven and on earth has been given to Him.

"So lift up your voice against your opposition, against the barriers, against the limitations. Begin to lift up your voice and begin to shout 'Mighty is my God! Glorious is He Who stands with me!'; and those walls will begin to fall and they will collapse around you even as you shout, even as you lift up your voice, even as you make the declaration. My people will be set free again says God, and you shall be the overcomers.

"For the greatest enemy that has risen up against you is not the things you think you see, it is the fear and the intimidation of the enemy. And My shout sets him to flee, because like any wild animal, when there's a shout it disrupts his plans and his inclinations, and he flees when no one pursues him. So your enemies will vanish into the night. The fears, the apprehensions, those worries will literally dissipate in the atmosphere. For I have caused you to rule and to reign over the things of this earth."

And I want to put that fire of My flame of My Holy Spirit, of My life, I want to put that in and impart it into My people, that they would burn with the glory of Myself says God; that they would know these things for themselves - not look far off, not look from far away, but they would walk into the presence. It would be as the children in the fiery furnace, they walked around but I was in the midst. And they think, ‘Oh, look at the fire that men have built’. It was My fire of My glory says God, because they walked in that fire and yet it did not consume them. They stood, and when they walked out of the fire, when they called them out, they did not walk out just of the fiery furnace, they walked out of the fire of My glory, My presence, that is greater than the fire of the world. For My fire will protect you from the fires of this world, for My fire is greater and it is the genuine fire where the other is only a copy. So walk into My fire, walk into My flame, for it is a consuming fire that will consume you and yet not burn you. And you will come out smelling of the fragrance of My glory declares the Lord.”

“My Glory is being poured out on the earth. The sons and the daughters of men, the sons and daughters of God are rising up. No longer content to live in the sin of the world. They’ve seen the light. The light has transformed them and is transforming them yet to this day declares God. For My glory is going out and I’m pouring it out on flesh. I’m pouring My glory out in the earth. Not just in the atmosphere, but in the lives of people. My glory is being poured out through My word. For suddenly My people have begun to understand that My word is not for tomorrow down the road, but My word is for now. For My word is always active and My word is always present. And yet many have held My word to be that which is someday to come, oh, in yonder year we can see it in the distance; but to Abraham that word was. He saw it in his lifetime. Jesus said ‘Abraham has seen My day and rejoiced in it.’ This wasn’t just a future thing for him, but it was a present everyday walk that Abraham had with Me. And as we supped, as we spent time together oh, it increased until he could see it in his opening vision. In his day to day sight he could see these things - they were so real to him. And I want My word to become real to you, that it’s not for some distant future, but it’s for the now. It’s for the current time. It is an ever present work within you, where you do not lose sight of it, you do not yield it up for anything because that word has become your life. And that word surrounds you and that word moves through you and causes you to act in the way that you act, because of the power that it contains.

“This is the season when the world seems so concentrated on the word becoming flesh, but My word has always taken on flesh says God. When I spoke at creation, My word became what you would call natural and it manifested in the natural. That is My way. For I do not speak vainly into the air and hope that it comes to pass. Oh, but when I speak My word, it’s a now word. It’s for My people today, this moment. It’s for you. So receive My word. Receive it as a now word for you and begin to build your life, your expectations, your vision. Begin to see those things living and working in you now, and you shall have those things that you ask for, and you shall see them come to pass. And when others are amazed, you’ll just say ‘But I knew it, I knew it.’ - because it’s already real in you. That’s why the flesh changes to conform to My word, because it’s real in you. So rejoice. Be glad. For when you get this revelation, joy will be continually with you. For you shall always walk in My presence and know that I am greater than he that is in the world, and it is I that live and dwell and move in you says the Lord.”

Simeon prophesied over Jesus when he was brought into the temple. He said “This child is destined for the fall and rising of many of in Israel.”

“Thus saith the Lord: This year to come will be the time of the rising and the falling of many people. Some whom the media have declared to be shooting stars and rising stars will suddenly burn out. And they will fall to the ground as burned out embers. And those things that the world has cast aside, those things that the media and the world - and they claim these are worthless, these are nothing, they mean... they are insignificant, oh, I shall put My light in them. For I dwell in the least of these. And I will raise up those who the world discounts, and you will see them rise up and they shall become not shooting stars, not rising stars, they shall become the lights of My glory says God. And I will shine through them and the world will begin to behold and to begin to see My move. Along with the move there will be resistance, and there will be those like in Jesus' day that want to seek to put out the light, but it shall not be quenched declares God. But it shall increase and increase and become brighter and brighter in the years ahead. And many will look to this day as the turning, but it turned years ago declares God, when My Son was birthed into the earth, that's when it turned. That's when sin was forgiven. That's when righteousness was poured out on all those who would believe. It was then that this movement that you're entering into, it began in that manger in Bethlehem, the House of Bread. And that bread has continued to increase and it has fed millions and millions and millions with eternal life. And that bread still is today. It's My word. And those who will eat of My bread, they shall be set free and they shall know eternal life and they shall know My glory and they shall know My benefit says the Lord, for there's life in that bread. And I will show Myself strong. In the day that the world declares is utter darkness, My light will shine forth and My glory shall be revealed to all those who come to worship Me. And I will lift them up, and you will begin to see the enemies put under your feet, even to the point of death being put under your feet, that it shall no longer rule and reign, but My Son will rule and reign through My glory and by My power declares God.

“So rejoice! It's a time of the outpouring of My Spirit. It's already begun but it increases and increases and increases to where as Isaiah spoke, His kingdom shall know no boundaries and no limitations, for I will have My will done in the earth in these days declares the Lord. And no man shall be able to stop it. For My Spirit is rising in the multitudes of those who are hungry and those who are thirsty for My knowledge says God.”

“For in 2020 you will be forced to walk and live in My Spirit, says God. For the eyes of what you see is going on in the world will lead you astray if you don't keep your eyes on Me. For it is the rising and the falling of many in this earth, and many things will be revealed; but if you are watching the things in the natural you will back out before you see My super come into the natural. Do not be deceived by the things that you see in the natural, but keep your eyes on Me says God. And I will lead you through and you will see My working and you will wonder at it because you don't see how I could possibly do it, but there must be the revealing of hearts so that all things will be revealed.”
