God Still Speaks

Since the beginning of 2013, God has blessed Living Faith with His precious presence. Living Faith gathered and printed a booklet of the prophetic words He was speaking to us and this booklet ignited the hearts and imaginations of our people that they have demanded us to continue to compile the "Words of the LORD" or the "Words of YHWH" for them in a second, third, fourth, etc. booklet.

These prophetic words from YHWH are a wonderful reminder of God's love and faithfulness throughout our journey in life, and the hope of Jesus' soon return and reign.

What a wonderful God we serve!

*"For the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy."
Revelation 19:10*

Some people reject prophecy out of hand, even before they read or examine it. Scripture tells us "Do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits, whether they are of God; because many false prophets have gone out into the world." (1 John 4:1)

But think on this. "All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness, that the man of God may be complete, thoroughly equipped for every good work." (2 Timothy 3:16-17)

Think on this – All Scripture is prophecy! The books of Moses, Ruth, Psalms, the prophetic books, and Daniel, and all in between. Peter even says the letters of Paul are "scripture."

Scripture is prophetic as it reveals patterns, examples or "types" showing us the way to escape the cycle of sin and death through the "Spirit of life in Christ Jesus!" (Rom 8:2)

Living Faith does NOT suppose that the "Words of the LORD" are equal to the Scripture in the Bible. But test them! For reproof, correction, instruction, that we may be complete for every good work.

“Faith is never meant to be just kept within the church, to be just kept within your own personal life. But I have given prophecy and faith to speak about the conditions of the world, to reveal the things that I am doing - that you are encountering - that you would have faith in Me to overcome these, because I’ve shown you the future to come that the present will not overwhelm you. So walk in faith before Me. Believe what I say and you will see it come to pass in your time. For I am moving and I am still the creator says God. And everyone who turns to Me and comes to Me, I create in him a right heart and a clean heart, and I will lead them in the ways of My Spirit that they would be My ambassadors in the earth. I do it for every person who comes to Me says God. And I will not refuse them. And I will not demean them says God because they are My children. And I will hold every good and precious gift for them says the Lord.”

“My holiness is being poured out in the earth. It’s being poured out through My people. It’s being poured out by those who genuinely worship Me declares God. And there are those who come from different doctrines, different strains, but yet they are glorifying Me and exalting Me in this hour and in this moment declares God, all, all around the world. For the unity is not in our doctrine but it is in Me saith the Lord. Our unity is that we are of one heart and of one mind. And the enemy is trying to steal the moment of holiness from My people. For he has openly declared this impeachment to be a holy process. They are seeking a sacrifice; and they are offering up their own sacrifice of their own choosing, of their own making, and they are declaring this to be a sacred, holy moment, because they’ve brought their sacrifice to the altar. But I have already provided the sacrifice declares God. And His name is Jesus. And because of this sacrifice that I have offered says God, the sacrifice of men is meaningless. For what can you give that I have not already provided. And those who are seeking to offer this natural sacrifice to what they consider to be their ‘god’, is an abomination in My sight declares God. And I will not receive it, and I will not let it be done. For I am exalting Me in this hour says God. I am exalting My sacrifice of Jesus in this moment. And that sacrifice was a lamb, but is now the Lion of the Tribe of Judah. The lamb was slain but the lion has been resurrected from the dead; and all power, and all authority in heaven and in the earth has been given to the Lion of the Tribe of Judah! And He is roaring and roaring and roaring to where all heaven shall praise Him and worship Him, and those on the earth will bow their knee to Him declares God. For He is the only true sacrifice and the only one that can forgive and cleanse and to make righteous. For I have already given Him says God. And those who refuse to come to Me and those who refuse to acknowledge My sacrifice of My own self says God, they are an abomination. And like in the book of Revelation, I will spit them, spew them, vomit them out of My mouth, for they have no part in Me. So don’t let them bewitch you, and don’t let them think that they are holy or that they are righteous, for they are neither of the same. But they are charlatans who have come in to steal My glory and to steal what I am doing in the earth says God. And they would take the credit for themselves instead of honoring Me with it. For that reason I reject them, and I spew them out of My mouth.

But those who will recognize My sacrifice, those who will come to Jesus Christ, I will exalt them in this day declares God. And they are the shining lights of My glory all around the earth - in every nation and every tongue, of every color, of every make-up, large and small, male and female, slave and free, they are exalting Me this day says God. And I have heard their cry, and I will not leave them alone declares God. For I will rise up and I will fight their battles and I will win victory upon victory; and the world, the world will stand aghast and say ‘We don’t understand how this could ever happen’; because it’s not by the will of man, it’s not by the strength of men, but it is by My glory and by My word and by My Spirit declares God, in this day.”

“...in speaking forth the things of My Spirit, before they see it happen they’re speaking it forth, because they are revealing My nature of what I intend to do. So Isaiah could speak about the coming Christ, the Messiah, the Son of God. ‘Unto you this day a child is given, unto you this day a son is born.’ He could speak about those things because he knew who I am says God. And because he knew Me, oh he knew I would save the world. He knew that I would offer up the sacrifice that was the final sacrifice forever - that no other sacrifice could be given. He did not come to know this through the study of the Word as you perceive it. It wasn’t in the great halls of learning that he perceive(d) who I am, but it came from walking with Me says God. And because he knew Me he could speak of Me. He could speak forth My words. He could speak forth My revelation and give to the people who were still walking in darkness, still walking in their own way of thinking, he could begin to speak to them to bring light into their darkness, that the darkness would be broken. That they would have a hope that is not based in this world but is based in My person says God. For this is prophecy - speaking forth of My nature, speaking forth of who I am; that you would call the things that are not as though they are, because you know who I am says God.

“Walk in this faith. Walk in this revelation that I’ve given to every one of you. Every one of My children has this revelation in them, and yet it is untapped because you’re walking according to the ways of the world and not by My Spirit. For once you begin to walk in My Spirit declares God, oh, the prophecy would roll out of you - maybe not in a ‘thus saith the Lord’. Maybe not in the way that you would think as being a great orator, but the prophecy will manifest itself in you and through you as you proclaim by faith, ‘By His stripes I was healed’, as you prophesy ‘my sins are forgiven, I am cleansed by the power of the blood of Jesus Christ.’ For even though you still sin, and even though you still fall short, yet that prophecy has become real on the inside of you where you look past the natural into the realm of My Spirit, and you find yourself walking in forgiveness, walking in My grace, walking in My mercy, because you’ve received that revelation of who I am. Yes I demand justice. Yes I demand judgement, and yet My mercy is greater than these. For when you receive My grace, when you receive My mercy, oh, the judgement just passes away, because I’ve already judged the sin of the world. And I’ve judged the sin - not you, I’ve judged the sin that holds you in captivity. I’ve judged the sin that holds you back from achieving all that I have desired of you. And I’ve judged you to be free from that sin. To be free from the restraint, the condemnation, I’ve judged you to be free of all those things that you would walk in the law of the Spirit of Life. That you would be free from the law of sin and death, that My Spirit of life in My Son Jesus would dwell in you. That it would resonate on the inside of you. That that glory, that manifestation of My goodness would pour forth through you in every endeavor of life and everything that you set your hands to, that it would prosper because of My anointing, because of My love, because of your faith in Me says God. I do not declare that I am the great ‘I was’, neither do I declare that I am the great ‘I will be’, but I Am that I Am. And I am always present with you declares God. So seek Me. Seek Me out. Trust Me that you would know My love for you and know that I have set you free and walk in that liberty. Walk in that grace, that strength, that power that emanates from My Spirit within you, that you would do great exploits in this day declares God.”

“It would seem that all of the earth is looking to Miami - seeking a diversion, seeking a way of escape from the temporary things of this world; and yet all of heaven is looking at where My Son is seated says God. They’re watching Him to see if this might be the moment when they would stand up. When they would stand up in victory declaring that the time is at an end. And it is time for the Kingdom of Heaven to enter into the realm of the earth in a way not seen before. They’re looking and anticipating not an escape, but for the real reality to show up - for the saints of the past to be lifted up and exalted, to prove that the faith of men has not been empty nor has it been in vain. But the coming of the King is at hand. All of heaven is looking at the throne where My Son is seated - full of anticipation of that which is yet to come. So should My people look and have their eyes upon Me says God. For you know not the time nor the hour of the appearing of My Son. But I’m telling you it’s closer than it’s ever been before. And I’m telling you that that day will arrive at some point. When it will arrive is dependent upon my timing says God. But that day is ahead and that day is soon to appear when all heaven and all earth will join in one voice, in one celebration, praising and magnifying the King as He comes riding in on a white horse. As He comes upon the clouds filled with the saints of the air coming back to reclaim what is His rightfully. For I've already paid the price declares God. And I've already set My time says the Spirit. And Jesus says He is ready at any moment to come and put things in their right place.

“For I am not slow compared to what some would think. Neither am I in a hurry to close up all matters. But there is a time set, and men are becoming aware of that time. That's why they're clinging so desperately to their false beliefs, because they see it falling out of their hands. And it scares them, because they have no higher authority than that which they have taken on themselves. For their authority is of this natural world, and that authority is passing away says God. But the authority of My Son, the authority of Jesus Christ, I have given Him all authority in heaven and on earth, and that authority will never diminish, but as My word says it will increase and increase and increase 'til it fills all the earth and all of heaven with My glory declares God.”

“For I am an all consuming fire declares the Lord. All consuming. When Moses stood before Me when I was in the bush, he saw that the bush was on fire and yet it did not burn. It did not decrease, but the glory, My glory in it, was accentuated. He knew he was on holy ground. He took his shoes off and knelt before Me as I burned in that bush. In the same way, I want to burn in My people declares God. To set them on fire. A fire that cleanses them. A fire that purifies them. A fire that makes them acceptable in My sight. A fire that literally is unquenchable. A fire that burns away sin, burns away chaff, burns away all the junk. That's why it's an all consuming fire, because it's not just in one place, it's not in just one locality, but My fire is all consuming. It goes everywhere. It touches every part of your being to be purged, to be cleansed. Don't limit Me in your thinking. Don't restrict Me from operating in your life, but allow that fire to go into every joint, to go into every outstretched hand, to fill you. For I will consume you, and yet I will not destroy you. But I will set a fire on the inside that puts fear in the enemy, for they know that fire consumes the wicked. But the fire glorifies those who come to Me. The Hebrew children were thrown into the fire, and yet they were not consumed. Instead I walked with them, and they knew Me, and they knew the coolness of My presence. For even Adam walked with Me in the cool of the garden. So I will walk with you. To you it shall be cool, to you it will be refreshing. To you it will be exhilarating; but to the world, all they can see is the consumption of that which is wicked. And those who hang on to that wickedness, those who hang on to the flesh, to the ungodliness, oh, the fire will burn them. But if they would come to Me, the coolness of My Spirit would let them walk in the fire without feeling the heat, because it will revive them, and cause healing to break out among My people declares God. So when you see the fire of God, run to it. Run to it, because it will purify you, it will cleanse you, it will lift you up. It will give you the satisfaction that the world cannot give, that the world cannot know. But My fire will feed you, and My fire will refresh you in My person declares God.”

“There is a wind. It's not a new wind, but it's a refreshing wind that is coming upon the earth. It's a second wind. It is the wind that causes refreshment, that brings relief to the captives, to My people declares God. It's a wind where you will get a breath of, and you will take off again as though you started the race at the beginning. It is a wind that refreshes. It is a wind that revitalizes. It is the wind of My Holy Ghost, because you're getting ready to move at a pace faster than you thought you could move. In every race, the winner receives a second wind, a second chance. And this is it, declares God, when I'm pouring out that second wind, that wind of refreshment; and it will propel you across the finish line, and it will propel you to that place that you thought you ought to already be. But you haven't quit, you haven't given up, you haven't succumbed to the yelling and the screaming of the world, to the situations around you. But you're getting a second breath and it has caused you to start out fresh as though you just began the race. The others will tire. The others will grow weary, and their shouts will grow stronger and stronger and louder and louder, because they have no second wind. They have no life in them declares God, so they just keep repeating the same things over and over, but yet My people will continue to go forward and My people will go on to even greater works than what they have seen to this point, for this revival is spreading out over the entire earth declares God. You're going to see nations, have already seen some, but you're going to see nations turn over to Me declares God, as people of every land, every language, every culture bow down and declare that Jesus is Lord! And it's that time to not just celebrate, but it's the time to make disciples. It's a time to bring them into the fulness of My gospel, the fulness of My Kingdom, of My glory declares God. For this is My end - not that you just die and go to heaven, but that you live in the Kingdom on earth even as it is in Heaven.

“So take the wind. Take the breath of the Holy Spirit that I'm giving to you again, and refresh yourself in Me declares God. Let the things of the past go, but let the new things begin to come out in you. Let the life of My Holy Spirit dwell in you richly, that He may produce the good work, the fruit that He has created you to bear in My name declares Jesus.”

“Oh, for I have given so much to the world declares Jesus. I've offered them all that I am. I've offered eternal life, and there are those who will see it and turn away from it because they have judged themselves to be unworthy. Even those in My church who love Me, consider themselves to be unworthy to receive My grace. Oh, stop rejecting Me says God. Stop turning your heart away from Me and come to Me. As a prodigal son I will welcome you into My house. I will kill the fatted calf. I will put the rings and the robes and the shoes on you. I will clothe you in My righteousness, but come home. Come to Me. Receive the grace that I have offered, that you would be set free from the death and the condemnation that entangles you so easily. Receive My grace, and let My life fill your life to overflowing. For this is My will for you. And it's My choice for you says God. Will you choose Me that you can walk in My way of living?”

“As in the days of Moses when the plagues began to be poured out upon Egypt for their sin, for their violation of My people, for the things that they have done against My word and against Me declares God, the people of Israel suffered some of the effects of those plagues. But there came a time of separation where I drew a curtain around My people, that the plagues would no longer affect them. And so I am drawing a curtain around My people declares God, in America and in the earth, that the things that the world fears shall not come upon you. For I have separated you from those things, from the things of the world, and I've called you to be separate. And for those like Israel that are willing to go into their house, for those who are willing to exalt Me and magnify Me and lift Me up, those plagues, those fears that the world sees and terror grips them, My people will see those things, but they shall not be affected. For My glory will surround you, and My cloud will hover over you, and I will gather you under My protection says God, to where that you will see the things come upon the wicked but they shall not come upon you. For I am your shield and your guard and I am the one who surrounds you. So take joy. Take joy in Me declares God. Not that the world is suffering, not that you are being protected from those things coming on the world, but take your joy in Me declares God, and know who I am in you, and know My manifestation and know My glory is at work in you this day forever and ever and ever says God.”

“For the night is past, declares the Lord, and the day is now dawning again. It’s dawning again in My Church. It’s dawning again in My people declares God. For the night has nothing to do with the virus, it has to do with the oppression against My people. The night of the virus is when My people drew into their houses, and I am declaring it is now time to come out into the light. It is morning, the light has come and we will continue to walk by faith. We will continue to walk in the Word of God because the Light has come.

“Pentecost is on its way. Pentecost is the day of the giving of revelation. Pentecost is the time when My people will begin to understand and they will begin to look, not only to the past of what I have brought them through but Pentecost will be that time when you begin to see the future of what I am preparing for you to enter into declares God. And there will be those who will keep the faith who will enter into the Promised Land, who will enter into the glory of God who is rich in mercy, who is rich in giving good things to His children. For you shall see this come in the days ahead but you will know, too, this day that I have already declared it. And I am already bringing you out to bring you in declares God.”

(Pastor Gordon praying:said the farmer should be the first partaker of the fruit. God if this stuff flows from us, if You flow from us, God, Lord, it’s gotta flow in us to every cell, every corpuscle, every organ, every tissue in the name of Jesus Christ, that Your healing resides within us, emanates within us in the Name of Jesus.)

is putting on you can’t stay, can’t abide in your bodies declares God. It’s not because you’re so awesome, it’s because I’m so awesome. It’s because I am the one, the life that dwells in you. And as you dwell in Me, oh, I saturate you. Scripture talks about the fat dropping from us. It’s not the fat of the world, it’s the fat of My anointing, it’s the excess of My presence with you declares God. If that excess..., where you go that excess drips, drips, drips, and remains, that I cover those places. This is why I told Moses, this is why I told Joshua, wherever you walk, every step you take marks out territory for Me. (He says) I said that I will give you the land. I will give you the territory. And it’s still so today says God. Wherever you walk I’ll give it to you if you just claim it, if you would receive it. Instead of being intimidated by the world, you must understand the devil is intimidated by you. It is afraid of you says God. For you are carriers of My presence. You are carriers of who I am. And wherever you go the enemy screams. When Jesus crossed the lake, He came to the shore, the man with the demons, with the legion of demons came down to Him, cried out to Him. So are these days coming, that those who walk strong in My anointing that the demons shall seek them out. And the people shall be set free. For the day of the devil is over. It has passed(tongues).... and this Pentecost you will see a dynamic change in the lives of many people. For the light has come. The night has passed, and all those who cling to darkness shall see the glory of the light. It is a day of decision says the Lord, where many will be forced to choose between Me and darkness. There are those who have already chosen Me, and oh, the light shall dawn on them even greater and greater. In greater dimension, in greater glory shall they walk after Me. But for those who are in darkness, they have that choice to walk with Me or to continue to walk in the way of the world. And they have an opportunity to repent. They have that opportunity to change their mind. And those that don’t will fall into utter darkness. And they shall cry out, and yet I will not satisfy them says the Lord, even with death itself, that they will be forced to live in My light and the pain that they suffer, they will cry out and gnash their teeth, and they will cry for the rocks to cover them, for My glory will penetrate. And they shall see My hand at work. And it will be against them says the Lord. Oh, if only they would turn. If only they would call out My name. But instead they will curse, and their curses will fall to the floor and shall have no power in them. For I am taking their voice away from them and I am putting it back in My church says God. For the Lion of the Tribe of Judah has roared. And His roar is increasing in the earth to where it will subdue every other voice, but My voice will be supreme, declares God, in these days ahead. For you are preparing to enter into the glorious age. And you are preparing to enter into what I have prepared for My church from the beginning of the world. That you would be My body and you would be My voice in the earth declares God. This is the day the prophets saw, and you get to live in that day declares God.”

“For the Lord would say, I am not discouraged. I do not look at the land and see everything falling apart. I do not look at those who are howling against Me and those who are raising their voices against Me. They do not persuade Me one way or another says the Lord. But I look to My people, I look to My church, to My body in the earth. And it is a body that I have ordained for the redemption of the world. For as you preach the gospel of My Son, as you minister the things of My Spirit, truth comes in, light comes in to the midst of the darkness, and people are changed. You are the light, you are the seed, you are the salt that I have sown into the earth. And as you go, so goes the world. And as you magnify Me as you have this morning, and elevate Me above all the situations, above all the strife, above all the things that are coming out against Me, as you exalt Me, declares the Lord, My glory fills the earth. And those who rebel against Me are doing it out of conviction. For they have no answer and no hope. So they tie themselves to a movement, and they tie themselves into the facade that looks as though they’re doing something when they’re doing nothing but cursing the darkness.

“Oh, for the darkness to leave declares God, My light must have entrance. And as I speak to the chaos in the world, I speak My light. I say ‘Light, be! Revelation, be! My children, be!’, the voice of My Son in the earth released, that all would come to see My glory and My power in this day. For what you see now is in the process of passing away. For they will raise their voice(s), and others will say ‘Oh, yes, yes, yes, yes!’, but it shall soon pass away. And all those who say ‘Yes, yes!’ will tomorrow say ‘No, no!’, because they have no conviction. They do not know what truth is says God, and apart from Me, they will never know what truth is. So pray for them. Pray for the earth that all would come to the knowledge of the Son of God, that they would know the things that you have discovered, and that they would learn to walk in the things that you’re still learning how to walk in. For it’s a never-ending walk, for you to grow and increase in Me. But as you grow and increase in Me, I grow and I increase in the earth.

“For I have the answer. I am the answer declares God. And all those who come to Me, I will deliver out of darkness and I will set their feet on a Solid Rock, and they shall not be moved, just as you are not moved by the things that you hear, the things that you see, the things going on in the earth. You’re not moved by the shouts, you’re not moved by the clamor, but you are moved by the Word of God. For I still watch over My Word to perform it, declares the Lord. And because My Word is in My people, I watch over My people declares God, that My Word would be large within them as a witness to the darkness of this world.

“So take joy! Take joy that the Word is in you, that the light is in you, the glory is in you. Don’t despair. Don’t get caught up in the grief of the world, but know I have called you out of that. And I have called you to walk before Me, says God. And there is no higher honor than to serve the King of Kings and the Lord of Lords. For this is the glory of My people. This is the glory of My children, declares God, that I am their Father and they know Me by name says Yahweh.”

“There will be freedom. There will be a release in My name declares Jesus. Where there is suffering it will be relieved. Where there is confusion there will come clarity, for I have spoken into the darkness declares God. I’ve spoken in the midst of the chaos, and My word will endure forever. I have not drawn it back. I have not changed My mind. I’ve told My people to pray ‘My will be done on earth even as it’s done in heaven.’ Not your will - My will; and when the reality of that comes, it will not be the will of an individual or a political party. It will not be the will of a group, but it will be My will that overrides all the other things to where My reign will rule in the earth even as it does in heaven. For this is My will, that you would live at peace with Me declares the Lord. That you would know My peace within you. The peace that comes from the world, it will not last. It can not last. The peace that you gain through achievement will not last. The peace that you attain through belongings and through possessions will not last, it will not endure. But My peace declares God will endure forever. It will carry you through in this life into the next. It will carry you over the storms that rage in this world and will set you on the mountain top, where one day you will look and you will see all the pettiness of men has come to naught. For it is My kingdom that will be established. And My kingdom will be established for-ev-er declares the Lord! There is no shadow of turning in Me, but My word will endure. Heaven and earth will pass away. The things that consume your mind now are temporary. They will not endure. But you, your spirit, your soul will endure for-ev-er. And those who come to Me declares God, I'll even give you a new body. Oh, and then your salvation will be complete. So take your eyes off the things going around, happening around you. Take your eyes off the temporary things of your own body and begin to look at My glory. For as you watch My glory, My glory will fill the earth because it fills you. And I want you to be the source of the outflow of My grace and My truth to others. But you have been declared the first partaker of the fruit. It doesn't pass through you and not affect you. But when healing flows from you there should be the healing, the renewal that comes in your own body. When peace comes through you as you pray for others, there should be that residue of peace within you that confidence within you. For the farmer is always the first partaker of that which he gives. He receives it first. And the outflow, the overflow, the abundance goes into the lives of others and affects others and changes circumstances, and it will change the world says God. So call on My name today while I am near. Call on My name now while I am moving declares God, and I will meet your need and I will heal you says the Christ."

"For there are those looking for life, and yet they have not hungered after Me says the Lord. There are those who are seeking meaning, but yet they're not looking to Me. Oh, but I said I will satisfy the hungry. I will satisfy those who are thirsty for I will fill them up. For I will put within you the living waters, and I will put within you the reason for living. A reason to live. A reason to grow, a reason to prosper. For I am that reason declares God. And I am the one who seeks to come into your life, and I am seeking to bring the dead back to life. To restore the lost. To restore the dreams, the hopes, the visions that I gave you in your youth. For I have not passed away declares God, and I have not let those things pass away that are within you. For those things are My dreams, they're My visions for you, for your family, for your household, for your city, for your region, for your nation. For those things that are good and beneficial, they're from Me says God. They're not just your own imagination. They're not just the things that you wish, but they are My God dreams put on the inside of you. And if you will follow Me with all of your heart, you will see those things come to pass. You will watch the coming of My Son Jesus, and you'll will watch those things manifest in your life and change your world. For the world has no hope. The world has no meaning apart from Me says God. For they are the dead going to die. Oh, but you are not among them, for I've called you to life. And you are going from glory to glory to glory. For as My Word increases in you so My glory increases. And as My glory increases, so does the light in the earth increase with every step you take and every word that you speak. For I, I declare (says) God, I am the giver of life."
